By Mrs. F. O. Sand

Mrs. Olney Easter suffered a stroke at Sheldon's store last Tuesday afternoon. The Hobson ambulance of Weeping Water was called and took her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Balfour called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Paap at Otoe and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schutz at Avoca Sunday afternoon.

Sunday afternoon, November 13, at the Nehawka auditorium, the Brownies and Intermediates of Lone Troop 1, of Nehawka, were invested as official Girl Scouts by visiting members and leaders from Nebraska City. The program was opened by Marilyn Whipple, who played a piano solo, "Faith of Our Fathers." The Brownies then took their places around a small table centered with a mirror and cedar boughs. This represented a lake in the forest. Mrs. Earl Webb, of Nebraska City, received the Brownie Promise from Mrs. Cooper Hunt, Brownie leader, who heard the Promise from each of the eight girls, and gave each her Brownie pin. The girls then entered the imaginary forest and took a big Brownie smile out of their pockets and put them on their faces. The girls who were invested as Brownies were: Brenda Ford, Twila Hicks, Shirley Hooley, Sandy Hunt, Susie Johnson, Gladys Nixon, Marilyn Pollard and Rose Marie Stoll. For the investiture of the Intermediate Girl Scouts, a large green trefoil circled with white candles was placed upon the table and the nine girls and the leader, Mrs. Glen Thacker, formed a horse shoe around it. The trefoil is the emblem of the Girl Scouts and represents the three parts of the Promise. Mrs. Chas. Clark, leader from Nebraska City, called forth the flag bearers, Ella Clark, and Ruth Conway; the color guard, Sandra Lima and Vera Lee Fitzka, all of Nebraska City. After the flag ceremony, all of the members gave the ten Girl Scout laws. The colors were retired and Mrs. Webb conducted the candle lighting service. Each girl gave the Scout Promise and received her pin. Those invested as Girl Scouts were: Judy Dodson, Barbara Ford, Francine Jones, Charlene Mayfield, Caroline Miller, JoEllen Nixon, Janice Switzer, Phyllis Switzer and Marilyn Whipple. Mrs. Thacker presented certificates of membership to two members of the troop committee, Mrs. Victor Ross and Mrs. Thurmond Nixon. The third member, Mr. Norman Krong was unable to be present. To conclude the program, members and leaders formed a friendship circle and the Nebraska City girls taught the Nehawka girls the Scout hymn and the closing service. Fanned at this service and refreshments were served. The refreshment committee were Mrs. Nixon, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Elmer Stoll, Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Harold Dodson and Mrs. Paul Whipple. Mrs. Harvey Raben and Mrs. C. L. DeLong, members of the Scout committee, were also in attendance from Nebraska City.

LINCOLN—Balding, 42-year-old David Martin, Kearney lumberman, is the new chairman of the Republican party in Nebraska. He defeated youthful Max Denney, Fairbury city attorney on the second ballot of the voting to choose a successor to A. T. Howard, of Scottsbluff, who resigned because of illness. Martin's victory caught observers by surprise and was made possible by the sudden withdrawal of Joseph Wishart, Lincoln, the party treasurer. Wishart, widely-heralded as a compromise candidate should either Martin or Denney fail to muster a majority, confounded observers when he scratched his name after polling 12 votes on the first ballot to 25 for Martin and 29 for Denney. The stage seemed set for Wishart's forces to put on the pressure and push their man thru, just as Howard had been "compromised" into the chairmanship from a poor third on the first ballot in 1942.

But Wishart, thru Paul Kruger, committeeman from Fort Calhoun, asked that the race be narrowed to Denney and Martin.

The next ballot was all it took. There were two plausible explanations as to what happened: 1. Some onlookers believed that the 12 votes Wishart commanded on the first ballot really weren't votes at all, but rather mere tokens of appreciation for Wishart's lengthy service to the party. These persons said Wishart knew he didn't have these votes on the second ballot, so he withdrew.

2. Other observers believed that Wishart didn't want to risk the humiliation of another defeat like the one he suffered seven years ago.

In a press conference following his election, Martin said he planned a visit to all Nebraska counties soon after the first of the year, to "stimulate interest in Republicanism."

Mrs. Eve Bowring, of Merriam, who resigned as vice chairman to give the new chairman a free hand in choosing a vice chairman, was re-named immediately by Martin.

LINCOLN.—Nebraska's farm income this year will drop below a billion dollars for the first time since the peak set in 1947, when the state realized $1,068,350,000. That's the opinion of a man who should know—Rufus M. Howard, capable director of the state agricultural department.

Howard says farm income this year probably will fall to $920,893,000, about 10 per cent under the 1948 figure. Farm receipts for the first nine months of this year amounted to $682,386,000, he said. This is about 8 per cent below the same period last year. (Continued on Page Six)

The Union Community club held a dance at the American Legion hall last Monday evening. There was a fine attendance and the dancers and spectators enjoyed themselves. There were sandwiches and coffee served by the committee who had charge. They were: Mrs. Ivan Balfour, Mrs. Ted Brannon, Mrs. Fred Baker and Mrs. Hinton.

Melvin Todd and Loren Todd (Ike) drove to Peoria, Illinois, last Wednesday, where they were attending a Corn Belt Stock Breeders' meeting. Melvin was one of the speakers on the program on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McQuinn and daughters visited Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Sawyer at Valley last Sunday.

The Fox family moved to Douglas last Wednesday.

Rev. Williams is driving a new car and enjoyed the drive to Union last Sunday morning very much.

The American Legion Auxiliary of Union held their regular meeting last Tuesday afternoon at the Legion hall. Reports of the county convention at Greenwood were given by several of the ladies. Mrs. Russ Schaefer gave a fine report of the Welfare meeting at Elmwood. The Auxiliary has sent in their Gift Shop assignment to the Veterans Hospital at Lincoln. It was also voted to send $5.00 for "Gifts to the Yanks Who Gave." Delicious refreshments were served by the following hostesses: Mrs. Gretchen Everett, Mrs. Deborah Mullis, Mrs. Violet Dye and Mrs. Maggie Everett.

The Womans Society of Christian Service met at the Methodist church last Thursday. Twenty-six members and three invited guests were present. One of the guests was Mrs. Ermond Moore and baby daughter of Maryland. It was great fun for "Grandma Snodgrass" to present her granddaughter to the ladies present. After the business session and the lesson, given by Miss Iva Mougey, the afternoon was spent in quilting. At the close of the afternoon the hostesses, Mrs. Charles Meredith and Mrs. George Poulos served very delicious refreshments.

The Baptist ladies are busy these days finishing up their plans and soliciting for their annual Thanksgiving dinner and bazaar.

The latest report from Pauline Schoneberger from Louisville, Kentucky, states that her son, Richard, is still in a very serious condition.

Miss Ruth Ann Sporer spent the week end with her parents in Murray.

Only three days of school this week, Thanksgiving. Good news for the teachers and pupils. Also the cook.
