Newlyweds Are Honored Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Harney, of Lincoln, were dinner and overnight guests Friday evening of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Heinrich. In the evening the Heinrichs invited a group of friends and former associate teachers when she taught kindergarten here, of Mrs. Harney (nee Sylvia Korbel).

The evening was spent visiting and enjoying colored pictures, the courtesy of Miss Wilhelmina Henriksen and Mr. John Straka.

Refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums and fern in a crystal bowl with tall white lighted tapers on the buffet. Mrs. Charles Walden poured coffee and Mrs. Heinrich was assisted in the serving by Mrs. Paul D. Jahrig. On behalf of their friends Miss Amelia Martens presented Mr. and Mrs. Harney with a gift.

The guest list included, Miss Amelia Martens, Miss Rose Prochaska, Zella Traudt, Miss Wilhelmina Henriksen, Mr. John Straka, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walden, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry White, Mr. and Mrs. David Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gorton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Engelkemeier, Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Jahrig, Mr. and Mrs. William Highfield, the guests of honor Mr. and Mrs. Herman Harney.

Mr. and Mrs. Harney were married Thanksgiving eve at St. Paul's church in Lincoln, and following a brief honeymoon are at home in that city.

Saturday morning the Harneys departed for Crete and Lincoln.

Entertains for Charles Wooster

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prohaska and family entertained Thanksgiving day when their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wooster of Sedalia, Mo. Mr. Wooster is a brother of Mrs. Prohaska and a former resident of Plattsmouth, who enjoyed the day in the old home town and meeting many old friends. A daughter, Mrs. Leo McCulloch and Mr. McCulloch and infant son, William, were also here with the parents.

Thursday evening the Charles Woosters drove to Omaha to attend the wedding of a niece of Mr. Wooster and Mrs. Prohaska, Evelene Wooster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wooster, to Raymond G. Lampe, took place that evening at 7 o'clock at St. Luke's church.

Enjoying Vacation At Manley Home

Frank P. Dail, one of the Cass county students attending the University of Nebraska, was home the last of the week to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dail. He is the former county surveyor and was a visitor in this city Friday to enjoy a few hours visit with old friends. He returned to Lincoln on Sunday to resume his school work.

Latter Day Saints Plan Meetings

Thursday evening, December 1, will be the date of the first of a series of religious meetings to be presented by the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Each meeting will be held in the basement of the city library and will begin at 8:00 p. m. This series will extend throughout the month of December, with a session on each Thursday night.

The purpose of these meetings is for the Latter Day Saints to present to as many of their friends as care to attend some of their convictions concerning the Church of Jesus Christ as the Master built it, and as they believe it has been restored through divine command in the latter days.

They will feature the use of slide films in their presentations, and will be conducted by Elder Charles D. Neff, pastor of the Omaha branch of the church, and Carl T. Self, Bishop's Agent for this district. Elder Neff is also the President of the Northeast Nebraska District, of which Plattsmouth is a part.
