

Elmwood

MRS. GRACE PLYBON Correspondent

Dale Falk is having a new house erected in the west part of town.

The bazaar held at the Christian church on Saturday was a decided success. Dinner and supper were served. In the afternoon friends were glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller arrive from Lincoln. They brought various articles for sale, among them some eleven dolls made by Mrs. Miller. The Millers are now members of the Westminster Presbyterian church in East Lincoln.

The Christmas party of the Royal Neighbors was held at the home of Mrs. Vincent Phillips on Friday afternoon with twelve of the members in attendance. They enjoyed the free and decorations and exchange of gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Prinz have moved their trailer house back to Alvo for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stokes and Bonnie came from South Sioux City on Saturday for a visit at the home of her father, Alex Miller. As Mrs. Stokes is serving as nurse to an invalid lady, she returned home on Monday. The others remained for an extended visit with other relatives.

Mrs. Dale Miller is at the Bryan Memorial hospital, where she had an appendectomy operation. Little Casey is staying with his grandmother, Mrs. Lloyd Miller until his mother is able to keep him.

The army has announced that Frank Morgan, fourth year medical student in the University of Nebraska school of medicine in Omaha, has been selected for an army internship at Madison General hospital in Tacoma, Washington beginning July 1, 1950. He received a B. S. degree from the university previous to going to Omaha. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Morgan, both of whom are of the Elmwood alumni, and the grandson of Mrs. J. Wade.

August Bornemeier has been under the doctor's care recently because of a carbuncle on the front part of his head.

C. A. Bronn has sold his cows and pigs to his son and son-in-law as his health is not so good at this time. He may take up the work later on if his health improves.

Rev. E. C. Wilcox took down the address of Dr. Frank Court at the Father and Son banquet on Wednesday evening and the next day he presented it to some not able to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ewald spent part of the week in Chicago, where he attended the stock show and other activities there.

Mrs. Nettie Downs of Bedford, Iowa, is here to spend several weeks in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Orin Burrill and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Waite Hall have been enjoying a visit of a few days of their daughter, Lois, and her little daughter of Syracuse.

Mrs. Effie Elliott and Mrs. Gertrude Davis were Lincoln visitors on Saturday. The latter spent most of the day visiting a friend, Mrs. Mike Smith.

Mrs. Blanche Kuehn is at the home now recuperating after her stay in the hospital. Miss Lillie Klemme, receptionist for the Drs. Linton, is rooming part time with her, and her daughter, Alice Kuehn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dankleff were in Lincoln Sunday afternoon attending a recital in which her niece, Beth Janet Mendenhall, took part. The parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Mendenhall and Marilyn were also there. Taking part were ten voice students, Miss Edith Robbins being the instructor. Before the recital the Dankleffs called on Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Capwell.

John McKay writes from Vallejo, California, that he is a great-grandfather to a baby girl born November 12th to Mr. and Mrs. Jim McKay of Richmond, California. Merle McKay is the happy grandfather.

On Thursday, Mrs. Monning and her sister, Mrs. Emily Gonzales prepared a luncheon and went to the home of Mrs. Mary Miller for a birthday surprise. The recipient was pleased indeed, for the evening dinner.

We are pleased to note that Mrs. Lottie Horton is much improved at the St. Elizabeth hospital. She has been employed at the government office of state registration of vehicles. During her illness her daughter, Mrs. Lela Wendt has taken a room near the hospital, and two nurses have been employed.

Mrs. O. W. Fischer and daughter, Mary, have moved here from Alvo, and are living in the Tom Taylor property in the north part of town.

Subt. and Mrs. Whittemore went to Lincoln on Thursday evening to get their Christmas shopping in early.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Erskine, Sr., route 3, Lincoln, celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary Sunday, December 4th, and held open house. Mrs. Erskine is the former Olive Swartz.

Our honor person to report this week is Mrs. Ray Parsell. She is the winner of a 1950 DeLuxe Ford with accessories and her own choice of color. She chose Hawthorne green. For this she wrote a letter in the safety rules contest "Why You Should Have Your Car Checked Regularly". She says that her husband also contributed ideas.

Going to Oakland on a recent Sunday to visit at the church service and parsonage home of Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Lind, were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Arnold, and Mrs. Emily Gonzales.

Mrs. Muench and Mrs. Lewis Hollenbeck have both been having the flu the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kunz and three children moved into the Marshall residence in the northwest part of town a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall have been active visitors at the three day meeting of the state Farm Bureau in Lincoln. Mr. Marshall is the efficient president of this great organization.

Ralph Gerbeling of Peru, Ill., has purchased a store in University Place. He informs his mother, Mrs. Cora Gerbeling, that he will not move there until some time in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Preston and daughter and son-in-law, have gone to Colorado from Lincoln to make their home. They are to have charge of a tourist camp at LaFayette.

Coming to this community from Rockport, Mo., are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Webster and four-year-old daughter, Linda. After a week at the Douglas apartment they will move to a farm home two miles north of town. Mr. Webster is to have charge of a bulldozer for work on the highways.

Rev. and Mrs. Chester Wilcox have a somewhat novel way for part of their correspondence with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carter in Florida. Each have recording sets, and they send messages to be read by the machine in the other state.

Community Kensington met on Tuesday, Nov. 30th, with Mrs. Ellis Miller. The special number was a humorous reading by Mrs. Douglas. Each one present had been asked to bring a Thanksgiving thought or poem. This proved to be interesting. After confessions and a description of the birthstone of November, the topaz, and recognition of two members having this month for their anniversaries, a delightful covered dish luncheon was enjoyed. The December holiday party is scheduled for the last Thursday, the 29th, at the home of the president, Mrs. Nettie Mendenhall. It will be between the holidays.

Life Begins at 86
 MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The fellow who wrote that life begins at 40 may have to double it. Mrs. Edith Epperson, of Blytheville, Ark., reported that an old friend of her family, Bob Marshall, recently picked 140 pounds of cotton in one day. Marshall is 86.
