Larry Thimgan In Army Sport

The many friends of Larry Thimgan, former Plattsmouth high school star in baseball, football and basketball, will be interested in learning that he is still out in front in sport circles in the army team at Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania.

Larry has been at the Pennsylvania station since reporting from his summer furlough in Plattsmouth with the home folks, and is now in the full swing of the basketball activities before he completes his course and goes overseas for foreign duty.

Coach Sullivan of the Barrack squad is starting Larry at forward with Jerry Waites, one of the outstanding players of the Army Depot five. Larry was one of the sensations in the game with the Marine Reserves at Harrisburg, recently scoring twenty points for his team. He also was high point man with nineteen against the Millers.

The Barracks paper, "The Cavalcade", says in the current issue, "Watch this man Thimgan, they say he hasn't hit his stride yet". Those who have seen Larry in action can well believe this.
