Union Community Club Has Meeting

The Union Community club held their regular meeting at the school building last Monday evening. The first number on the program was two numbers by the band who are: Leon Fitz-Bonnie Baker, Sara and Carol Stander, Joyce Stevens, Dorothy Bone, and Joyce Stevens, violin. Mrs. Sanford was at the piano. Two Christmas carols were sung, "Joy to the World" and "Silent Night," by the high school chorus. These girls were: Shirley Lee, Lois Garrens, Barbara Wolfe, Bonnie Baker, Sara Carol Stander, Joyce Stevens, Dorothy Sehanot, Betty Neil, Mary Lou

Morton, with Ramona McQuinn at the piano. A trumpet solo by Carol Stander followed, and closing with group singing with Mrs. Sanford accompanying. Mr. Peterson of Nebraska City then showed some very interesting pictures after which a short business session was held.

The Junior Woman's club met in the main dining room of the Edith Solomon coffee shop on Monday evening, December 12th for their annual Christmas party and December business meeting.

The president, Mrs. Vera Wurga, presided over the meeting.

The room was decorated in keeping with the Christmas season and was a beautiful setting for the party.

A report was given on the bake sale by Beverly Propst, Dee Nielsen, membership chairman, reported on several new members. Juanita Brendel, county cancer chairman, sent word that anyone wanting a speaker and pictures on cancer control, contact her and she will arrange for a speaker.

The president announced that the Red Cross blood mobile would be in Plattsmouth, January 12th, and any of the members wishing to donate a pint of blood, should contact her. These blood banks are now furnishing blood to the Veterans hospital in Lincoln, so it is doubly important that all members give if it is possible.

A report was given of the meeting with the senior woman's club to meet the state president. Everyone that attended had a nice time and enjoyed the state president very much.

A committee was named for the President's ball to be held in January. Those on the committee are: Beverly Propst, Joan Solomon and June Jacobs, the place and date of the dance will be announced later.

The president states she is still looking for a March of Dimes chairman for Plattsmouth, as funds are badly needed. The business meeting was closed and the meeting turned over to Mrs. Nielsen. Christmas carols were sung by the group led by Shirley Mayabb. Mrs. George Jacobs at the piano. John Jacobs sang three beautiful Christmas songs accompanied by Mrs. George Jacobs and was received with pleasure by the club.

Gifts were exchanged and a cash donation was sent to the Child's Saving Institute in Omaha.

Delicious refreshments were served by the committee, Mrs. Nielsen, Pat Christwiser, Lillian Schmitt, Mildred Hall, Catherine Kaffenberger.

Holy Rosary Church Party

One hundred and thirty-five people attended the annual family Christmas party in Rosary Hall last Sunday evening. A buffet supper started the evening at 6:30. Jim and Bud Bellitz of Omaha, played on piano and accordions during the supper.

The program for the children included the showing of the motion picture "Enchanted Forest" and a comedy reel. The pastor, Father Edward C. Tuckek, distributed gifts to the trustees of the church, the organist, choir director, members of the choir and the altar boys. Treats were given to fifty children present. The singing of Christmas carols brought the party to a happy conclusion.

B. B. Shanholz arrived from Bassett, Virginia, to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shanholz. He was accompanied by Dean Snyder who will visit relatives and friends.

Garden Club Has Christmas Party

The Plattsmouth Garden club held their Christmas party on Monday afternoon at the main dining room of the Edith Solomon coffee shop, a very fine attendance of the members being present to take part in the delightful afternoon.

The tables were very attractively arranged by Mrs. Orville Nielsen with the colorful Christmas theme, sprays of the pine branches, poinsettia and candles being artistically arranged.

Mrs. Lillian Freeman had charge of the program of the afternoon that was very interesting and enjoyed by everyone very much.

The members joined in the singing of the Christmas carols led by Mrs. Al Nierste with Mrs. Freeman as the accompanist. Two very lovely piano duets were given by Marilyn Koukal and Lorena Nierste that added much to the program.

Mrs. P. T. Heineman entertained the members of the club with a very interesting talk on the various birds that she had observed at her home the past few months, birds that remained here for the winter season.

One of the features of the meeting was the auction which was held under the direction of Mrs. Charles Grosshans. The decorations that had been arranged by Mrs. Louis Hansen and Mrs. Emma Egenberger were sold and the proceeds used in club expense.

The refreshments of the afternoon were under the direction of Mrs. R.B. Keller.

Naomi Circle Has Christmas Party

Mrs. Harry White, assisted by Mrs. Otto Wohlfarth, entertained the members of the Naomi Circle of the W. S. C. S. at her home on Dec. 15th, for their meeting and Christmas party. Mrs. J. E. Wiles gave the Christmas story from the Bible. Mrs. Glen McClure had the lesson on "Women in the Scriptures."

The members brought Christmas cookies to be sent to the City Mission in Omaha. A Christmas gift exchange was enjoyed following which the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

Maple Grove Club Enjoys Fine Meeting

By MRS. F. O. SAND

Mrs. Carl Balfour entertained the Maple Grove Extension club at their Christmas party with a covered dish luncheon at noon Thursday. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Christina Chappell, Mrs. Gilbert Kime and Mrs. Keit Balfour. Fifty were present and guests were Miss Pearl Schultz, county home agent; Mrs. Jesse Westlake, Eagle, county chairman; Mrs. Vance Balfour and daughters and Mrs. Ray Schreiner and son. The lace covered table was centered with a very attractive Christmas arrangement of Santa's Toy Shop, with a driveway of sugar squares, lollipop fence, sugar plum tree and Santa and his reindeers. The small tables were decorated with pine branches and candles.

Mrs. George Kime presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Ivan Hansen reported that 85 members joined the Blue Cross-Blue Shield health plan. Twenty-nine workers canvassed the community and twelve of these were Maple Grove club members. Eighteen club members joined the plan. A letter from the county agent, concerning the January-February lessons on "Meat Cookery," was read. It was decided to have the four clubs of Union and Nehawka meet in the Methodist church at Nehawka in January and Miss Schultz, county home agent, will present the lesson to the clubs instead of to the leaders which is the usual procedure. Since meat is very expensive this will reduce the cost of the lesson to these clubs. Mrs. George Kime, Mrs. Oren Pollard and Mrs. Henning Johnson will be the hostesses at this meeting. Mrs. Victor Ross and Mrs. Nels Thoren were elected to serve as leaders at these meetings.

Mrs. Kime turned the meeting over to Mrs. Ivan Hansen, who played Fred Waring's record album, "The Song of Christmas." Mrs. Westlake and Miss Schultz spoke of the Christmas season. There was a gift exchange.

Members of the Greek Orthodox church do not celebrate Christmas on December 25.

Guest Here for Holiday Season

The R. W. Knorr family will have as a guest over the Christmas holidays Mrs. Knorr's niece, Miss Ida Mae Whisnand of Burlington, Colorado. Miss Whisnand is employed in the office of the construction company who are building the large dam at Burlington and finds her work very fascinating.

The Knorrs drove to Omaha Wednesday evening to meet Ida Mae and bring her to Plattsmouth.

D.W. Talcott and family were Sunday dinner guests at the home of the former's parents at Greenwood.

Mynard Farm Bureau Unit Holds Meeting

On the evening of December 14th the Mynard Farm Bureau unit were royally entertained at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wiles, which was traditionally decorated for the Christmas season.

The evening began with a delicious oyster supper, capably prepared by the hostess and Mrs. Roy O. Cole. Following the supper the regular meeting was presided over by Guy Wiles. Various committee reports were given and moving pictures on soil conservation were shown by Richard O. Cole.

The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games with "white elephants" given as prizes.

At a late hour, "Christmas Tree" ice cream and cake were served. Everyone returned to their respective homes after a happy evening with thanks to a perfect host and hostess.

Mrs. Wiles Returns To Omaha Hospital

Mrs. W. H. Wiles, who has been in poor health for the past year, was taken to Omaha Sunday evening, where she was placed in the Clarkson hospital for treatment. Mrs. Wiles has been home for the past four months after an eight weeks stay at the hospital under observation and will now undergo further treatment. Her address is Mrs. W. H. Wiles, room 322, Clarkson hospital, Omaha.

Enjoys Reunion With Parents in Kansas

Mrs. Fred Feldhausen enjoyed a week end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Fitch, assisting in the observance of the fifty-fifth wedding anniversary of her parents held at Frankfort, Kansas.

The anniversary was enjoyed by all six children of the family and was an event that all will long remember as it was the first time in fifteen years that they all have had the opportunity of being together and renewing old times.

HERE FOR TRADING

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dall and son, Frank, were in the city Tuesday from their home at Manly, to spend a few hours looking after some trading and visiting with friends. Frank is home from the University for the Christmas holidays, with the home folks and the old friends and will resume his school work on January 2d.

Members of the Greek Orthodox church do not celebrate Christmas on December 25.
