

Louisville

Mrs. Bessie Core, Journal Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sell, Sr., and son Dave arrived in Louisville Wednesday evening to spend the holidays. Mr. Sell has been working on a large project out at Kearney, Nebr., for the past two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Isaac announce the engagement of their daughter, Hazel La Vonne, to Donald K. Smith, son of Mr.

Mike Tritsch, O. D.
OPTOMETRIST
WATCH REPAIRING
Ruse Bldg. Plattsmouth

The Sure Way
YOU CANNOT put all your property in a safe deposit vault. But you can insure it against those dangers which will cause the greatest losses. Consult this agency today for dependable insurance.

Stephen M. Davis
Second Floor Plattsmouth State Bank Bldg.
Phone 6111

and Mrs. W. J. Smith of Lincoln. The wedding will be some time in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Van Overbeck visited their daughters, Mrs. Wm. Searles and Mrs. Joe Searles of Beaver Creek, Minnesota, leaving here Friday and returning Sunday. Both girls had been ill but were better when their parents left for home.

The Fishermen's club, a group of men of the Methodist church, held a family night at the church parlors Friday night. A covered dish supper was served to about 50, and a very pleasant evening was had by all. Rev. Manners of the Loveland Community church of Omaha was a guest speaker.

The Hell school east of town held its Christmas plate supper and program Thursday, December 22. Every one was invited. Mrs. E. A. Ingram is the teacher.

Claude Heim was one of the many to bag a deer, weighing about 150 pounds. Claude got his deer on a ranch near Crawford.

Mrs. Roy Colerick of Antioch, Nebr., spent last week with her son, Mike Colerick and family. She left for home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stander and baby have moved to Omaha where they have purchased a home. They were living with Mr. Stander's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stander, and Gerald was driving to and from work in Omaha.

Miss Louise Sprecher of Mankato, Minnesota, was a guest this week of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Benash. Miss Sprecher, who is a college student, came down a few days early to visit.

Mrs. C. R. Rackles left Tuesday for Downer's Grove, Illinois, where she will spend a few days over Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Morris and husband.

Don Mass, Geo. Gray and Jack Addyman left the air base at Wichita Falls, Texas, Tuesday to drive home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Krecklow of Wabash are planning to spend Christmas with Mrs. Krecklow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Winkler of Eagle.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Miller spent Christmas at the home of their daughter, Ruth, and family, in Omaha.

Mrs. Esther Gadway of Omaha and her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Switzer of South Dakota, of Bessie Core.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Anderson were called to Omaha Sunday because of the illness of their son-in-law, Floyd Eastridge. He has been taken to a hospital.

Miss Gertrude Zastera of Lincoln was home over the week end. Her father drove to Lincoln to take her back Sunday evening.

Mrs. John Ritter called at the Tom Tennant home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Elsemann visited in Omaha Sunday.

H. J. Addyman has been redecorating his home the past week.

Geo. Inman of Plattsmouth was in Louisville on business last Friday.

Frank Dall of Manley was in Louisville Saturday. He was having some dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gardner, Jr., and family of near Gretna were Sunday evening guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hennings.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wildrick went to Omaha Saturday to do some shopping. Mrs. Cushman took care of Donald and Agnes for the day.

Mrs. Jim Ingram, Mrs. O. R. Faust, Mrs. Hugh O'Brien and Mrs. Philip Hennings attended the party at the parish hall in Manley Wednesday.

Mrs. E. A. Ingram and Myrna, Mrs. Ralph Weite and Miss Lorraine Wheeler were shopping in Omaha Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. Pickrel of Omaha attended the family night meeting of the Fishermen's club here Friday night.

Emil Anderson, Jake Reichart, Wayne Gess, Irvin Inman and Eric Davis attended the hockey game at Omaha Saturday night.

John Rieke of Union, treasurer of the Cass County Farm Bureau, was in Louisville on business for that organization last Thursday.

Glen Lewis of Exeter was a pleasant caller at the Courier office Monday. The Courier editor and Mr. Lewis were boyhood friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Huffman spent Christmas with their son and wife at Lincoln.

Mrs. A. H. Funke, Mrs. C. S. Hirsch, Mrs. Lewis Amelang, Mrs. C. R. Ackles and Mrs. W. M. Halstead attended the "Messiah" given at the First Methodist church in Omaha Sunday.

MOOSE SMOOCH . . . Donna Enders and Robert Stoll were named Miss and Master Chicago of 1949 in a baby contest conducted by the Women of the Moose in Chicago's Civic Opera auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Larsen and family, Mrs. J. R. Larsen drove to Hastings Tuesday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Meno Murman and family and to see their new niece and granddaughter, Delores Ann Murman. In the evening they drove to Minden to see the nationally famous lights of Minden which has given the town the name of the Christmas city.

The Triple B club met at the home of Duane Ahrends Dec. 12. There were five members and three visitors present. Mrs. Ahrends served refreshments.

The Elwood Pankonins were at the C. J. Pankonin home Christmas. They drove to Sutton on Christmas to be dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Pankonin's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Fape.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Brammer left Friday for Indianapolis, Indiana, to spend the Christmas holiday with their daughter, Miss Gertrude.

Work of remodeling the Louisville theater is almost finished. Louisville will then have a very neat, up-to-date little picture theater.

Kenneth Graham has been home the past week from Rapid City, South Dakota, where he is stationed with the air forces. He is spending his 20-day leave with Ernest H. Graham and family.

Rev. Richard W. Dinsdale, former pastor of the First Methodist church here, now pastor at Imperial, Nebr., was one of the male soloists at the Imperial community chorus. The chorus consists of 55 voices.

L. J. Kroctoev is remodeling the old washhouse at the former Mrs. Mary Pankonin home into a garage.

Herbert Heil had some of his turkeys entered in the Ak-Sar-Ben show at Omaha last week. One tom won a fifth place ribbon.

Christmas day guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Meyers and Max were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Raasch of Kimball, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. Gibert Raasch and Wayne of Ashland, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wright, of Lincoln.

The H. W. A. club held their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Coleman. Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth O'Rourke, were Omaha shoppers Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Meisinger and Vivian, Margaret and Virginia Cameron and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Green and sons were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louie G. Meisinger.

Mrs. Emil Meisinger and Margaret Cameron were ill last week with the flu.

Christmas Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Leesley and family were Mr. and Mrs. George Leaver and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leesley and family, Mrs. Margaret Leesley, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wright and family and Mr. and Mrs. Price and family.

Christmas Day guests of Rose McDonald and E. J. McDonald were Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Turner and family of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth O'Rourke and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Ryan and Mrs. M. P. Ryan.

Mrs. Elsie Trader entertained the Deal-A-Deck club at her home in Ashland Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Meisinger and Margaret and Virginia Cameron spent Christmas eve at the Joe Leesley home in Waverly.

Christmas Day guests at the Stanley Bergers home in Omaha were Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Buckingham and sons, Mildred Hrabon, Mr. and Mrs. Claude

Osburn and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Robinson, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Buckingham and Gloria.

Mrs. Dee Card was hostess to the Extension Club at her home Wednesday for their regular Christmas party.

Miss Vivian Meisinger is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clinton Green and family in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Schroeder and sons were Christmas Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Schroeder in Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Todd spent Friday afternoon at the Emil Meisinger home.

Mrs. Rose McDonald was a Lincoln shopper Thursday.

Christmas programs were presented at the Methodist church and Christian church on Friday evening.

The Twin Table club enjoyed their Christmas party with an exchange of gifts at the home of Mrs. Leora Reighard Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Green and sons were hosts at a Christmas dinner at their home Monday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Todd and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Leesley and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Todd, Mrs. Alice Cameron and daughters, Mr. Kenneth Merrit and Mrs. Dora Leesley.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Niday entertained at a pre-Christmas dinner Friday noon. Their guests were Mrs. Jim Niday of Union, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. George Pollard and Larry.

Leon Elliot, university student of California, called at the Larry Pollard home, Tuesday.

George Pollard presented his mother, Mrs. Mollie Pollard, a television set as a Christmas gift.

Nehawka

By Mrs. F. O. Sand

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rutledge attended a birthday party Sunday for her aunt, Mrs. Rozella Clark of Union. Mrs. Clark was 80 Monday. She was the guest of honor at a party at the home of her sister, Mrs. Rebecca Hines and family at Council Bluffs.

Other guests were another sister, Mrs. Vesta Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Newton of Plattsmouth and John Guerra of Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hicks and daughter, Twila, and Mrs. Berthe Hicks, left Saturday for Tennessee where they will spend two weeks visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Romans and son, Ricky, were guests for supper Monday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Anderson. Later in the evening they called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reeves, of Warwick, N. D., were guests Tuesday and Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Weik and family. They stopped enroute to Florida, where they will spend the winter.

J. J. Pollard resigned his position with the Nehawka Farmers Grain Co. and Melvin Briant, of Wymore, will be the new manager, starting the first of the year. Mrs. Briant and daughter will move to Nehawka as suitable living quarters can be found.

Mrs. John Kettlehut, who has been in the hospital for several months came home Friday.

Mrs. George Pollard entertained at a pink and blue snow-er at her home Wednesday evening, honoring Mrs. Robert Wunderlich. Gifts were presented from a white Christmas tree. Appropriate games entertained the guests. Mrs. Walter Wunderlich and Mrs. Neil Pierce served from a tea table centered with a Christmas arrangement.

Mrs. Malcolm Pollard entertained at dinner Tuesday evening for the birthdays of her husband, Malcolm, their daughter, Marilyn, and his mother, Mrs. Oren Pollard. Other guests included Mrs. Ruth Pollard, Oren Pollard and Mrs. Alton St. John and Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Niday entertained at a pre-Christmas dinner Friday noon. Their guests were Mrs. Jim Niday of Union, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. George Pollard and Larry.

Leon Elliot, university student of California, called at the Larry Pollard home, Tuesday.

George Pollard presented his mother, Mrs. Mollie Pollard, a television set as a Christmas gift.

Union

Mrs. L. G. Todd

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Snodgrass were Sunday dinner visitors of Rev. and Mrs. B. N. Kunkel at Nehawka.

Donations for a new stove for the lunch room in the Union schools were gathered by two of the interested patrons of the school. The stove was purchased and installed during the week end. Mrs. Todd baked the first

FOR Dependable Insurance Income Tax Service SEE

J. Howard Davis
Phone 264
Soennichsen Bldg.

FUNNY BUSINESS By Hershberger

"I see Genius Jones has patented another gadget for his comfort!"

THE MIDDLES . . . . By Bob Karp

THE PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, SEMI-WEEKLY JOURNAL

Thursday, December 29, 1949 PAGE FIVE

noon day meal on last Monday morning. Those donating to this purchase were Ted Brannon, Carl Lindsey, John Fitzpatrick, Fred Baker, George Stites, R. A. Clark, Allison Clark, Virgil Meade, David Eaton, Robt. Grunwald, Frank Hobscheidt, A. L. Becker, Howard Snodgrass and George Stine. Thanks, very much, gentlemen.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church last Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Frederick William Rieke, who had passed away in California, several days before. Rev. Roy P. Morris, of Murray, conducted the service. Dale Wolfarth sang "Sometime We'll Understand" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere". Phyllis Rieke was the pianist. Pallbearers were John Christensen, Carl Cross, Deibert Todd, Charles Swan, Hall Pollard, and Sterling Harris. Burial was in East Union cemetery. Sincerest sympathy is extended to the Rieke family.

Union high school students were out caroling last Thursday evening. After leaving town they visited two members of the high school who have been confined to their homes: Gene Herman and Donald Beccard. Later they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, where they were treated to a chili supper and party.

Loren Todd was taken violently ill last Wednesday and was taken to St. Joseph hospital by ambulance last Wednesday afternoon. Latest report is that he is showing improvement.

Mrs. Todd is spending her Christmas vacation in Omaha at the home for her daughter, and family. Melvin took her to

Omaha, Saturday afternoon. A fine program was given in the assembly of the high school by the high school students. The Christmas story was read by Ann Carol Stander. "A White Christmas" was sung by several students. Shirley Lee gave the thrilling story of "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer". Another group of students sang a number. Barbara Garrenes gave "Twas the Night Before Christmas" Charles James and Clifford Rogers and kept us in stitches as they sang "I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Coconuts" and "I Never See Maggie". A group of carols was then sung by the high school students. Of course the exchange of gifts was a very exciting part of the program, too. And last, but not least, Santa appeared for a few words of good cheer.

The Christmas program at the Methodist church was well attended and in spite of colds and flu, the program was very good. The choir folks helped out nicely with several special numbers. We were especially pleased to have Mary Ellen Williams favor us with two flute solos. She was accompanied by her mother. Thanks a lot Mary Ellen. Of course at the proper time Santa made his appearance and treated all the "good boys and girls".

Union high school students were out caroling last Thursday evening. After leaving town they visited two members of the high school who have been confined to their homes: Gene Herman and Donald Beccard. Later they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, where they were treated to a chili supper and party.

Loren Todd was taken violently ill last Wednesday and was taken to St. Joseph hospital by ambulance last Wednesday afternoon. Latest report is that he is showing improvement.

Mrs. Todd is spending her Christmas vacation in Omaha at the home for her daughter, and family. Melvin took her to

Omaha, Saturday afternoon. A fine program was given in the assembly of the high school by the high school students. The Christmas story was read by Ann Carol Stander. "A White Christmas" was sung by several students. Shirley Lee gave the thrilling story of "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer". Another group of students sang a number. Barbara Garrenes gave "Twas the Night Before Christmas" Charles James and Clifford Rogers and kept us in stitches as they sang "I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Coconuts" and "I Never See Maggie". A group of carols was then sung by the high school students. Of course the exchange of gifts was a very exciting part of the program, too. And last, but not least, Santa appeared for a few words of good cheer.

The Christmas program at the Methodist church was well attended and in spite of colds and flu, the program was very good. The choir folks helped out nicely with several special numbers. We were especially pleased to have Mary Ellen Williams favor us with two flute solos. She was accompanied by her mother. Thanks a lot Mary Ellen. Of course at the proper time Santa made his appearance and treated all the "good boys and girls".

Union high school students were out caroling last Thursday evening. After leaving town they visited two members of the high school who have been confined to their homes: Gene Herman and Donald Beccard. Later they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, where they were treated to a chili supper and party.

Loren Todd was taken violently ill last Wednesday and was taken to St. Joseph hospital by ambulance last Wednesday afternoon. Latest report is that he is showing improvement.

Mrs. Todd is spending her Christmas vacation in Omaha at the home for her daughter, and family. Melvin took her to

Omaha, Saturday afternoon. A fine program was given in the assembly of the high school by the high school students. The Christmas story was read by Ann Carol Stander. "A White Christmas" was sung by several students. Shirley Lee gave the thrilling story of "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer". Another group of students sang a number. Barbara Garrenes gave "Twas the Night Before Christmas" Charles James and Clifford Rogers and kept us in stitches as they sang "I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Coconuts" and "I Never See Maggie". A group of carols was then sung by the high school students. Of course the exchange of gifts was a very exciting part of the program, too. And last, but not least, Santa appeared for a few words of good cheer.

The Christmas program at the Methodist church was well attended and in spite of colds and flu, the program was very good. The choir folks helped out nicely with several special numbers. We were especially pleased to have Mary Ellen Williams favor us with two flute solos. She was accompanied by her mother. Thanks a lot Mary Ellen. Of course at the proper time Santa made his appearance and treated all the "good boys and girls".

Union high school students were out caroling last Thursday evening. After leaving town they visited two members of the high school who have been confined to their homes: Gene Herman and Donald Beccard. Later they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, where they were treated to a chili supper and party.

Loren Todd was taken violently ill last Wednesday and was taken to St. Joseph hospital by ambulance last Wednesday afternoon. Latest report is that he is showing improvement.

Mrs. Todd is spending her Christmas vacation in Omaha at the home for her daughter, and family. Melvin took her to

Omaha, Saturday afternoon. A fine program was given in the assembly of the high school by the high school students. The Christmas story was read by Ann Carol Stander. "A White Christmas" was sung by several students. Shirley Lee gave the thrilling story of "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer". Another group of students sang a number. Barbara Garrenes gave "Twas the Night Before Christmas" Charles James and Clifford Rogers and kept us in stitches as they sang "I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Coconuts" and "I Never See Maggie". A group of carols was then sung by the high school students. Of course the exchange of gifts was a very exciting part of the program, too. And last, but not least, Santa appeared for a few words of good cheer.

The Christmas program at the Methodist church was well attended and in spite of colds and flu, the program was very good. The choir folks helped out nicely with several special numbers. We were especially pleased to have Mary Ellen Williams favor us with two flute solos. She was accompanied by her mother. Thanks a lot Mary Ellen. Of course at the proper time Santa made his appearance and treated all the "good boys and girls".

Union high school students were out caroling last Thursday evening. After leaving town they visited two members of the high school who have been confined to their homes: Gene Herman and Donald Beccard. Later they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, where they were treated to a chili supper and party.

Loren Todd was taken violently ill last Wednesday and was taken to St. Joseph hospital by ambulance last Wednesday afternoon. Latest report is that he is showing improvement.

Mrs. Todd is spending her Christmas vacation in Omaha at the home for her daughter, and family. Melvin took her to

Omaha, Saturday afternoon. A fine program was given in the assembly of the high school by the high school students. The Christmas story was read by Ann Carol Stander. "A White Christmas" was sung by several students. Shirley Lee gave the thrilling story of "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer". Another group of students sang a number. Barbara Garrenes gave "Twas the Night Before Christmas" Charles James and Clifford Rogers and kept us in stitches as they sang "I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Coconuts" and "I Never See Maggie". A group of carols was then sung by the high school students. Of course the exchange of gifts was a very exciting part of the program, too. And last, but not least, Santa appeared for a few words of good cheer.

The Christmas program at the Methodist church was well attended and in spite of colds and flu, the program was very good. The choir folks helped out nicely with several special numbers. We were especially pleased to have Mary Ellen Williams favor us with two flute solos. She was accompanied by her mother. Thanks a lot Mary Ellen. Of course at the proper time Santa made his appearance and treated all the "good boys and girls".

Union high school students were out caroling last Thursday evening. After leaving town they visited two members of the high school who have been confined to their homes: Gene Herman and Donald Beccard. Later they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, where they were treated to a chili supper and party.

Loren Todd was taken violently ill last Wednesday and was taken to St. Joseph hospital by ambulance last Wednesday afternoon. Latest report is that he is showing improvement.

Mrs. Todd is spending her Christmas vacation in Omaha at the home for her daughter, and family. Melvin took her to

Omaha, Saturday afternoon. A fine program was given in the assembly of the high school by the high school students. The Christmas story was read by Ann Carol Stander. "A White Christmas" was sung by several students. Shirley Lee gave the thrilling story of "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer". Another group of students sang a number. Barbara Garrenes gave "Twas the Night Before Christmas" Charles James and Clifford Rogers and kept us in stitches as they sang "I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Coconuts" and "I Never See Maggie". A group of carols was then sung by the high school students. Of course the exchange of gifts was a very exciting part of the program, too. And last, but not least, Santa appeared for a few words of good cheer.

The Christmas program at the Methodist church was well attended and in spite of colds and flu, the program was very good. The choir folks helped out nicely with several special numbers. We were especially pleased to have Mary Ellen Williams favor us with two flute solos. She was accompanied by her mother. Thanks a lot Mary Ellen. Of course at the proper time Santa made his appearance and treated all the "good boys and girls".

Union high school students were out caroling last Thursday evening. After leaving town they visited two members of the high school who have been confined to their homes: Gene Herman and Donald Beccard. Later they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, where they were treated to a chili supper and party.

Loren Todd was taken violently ill last Wednesday and was taken to St. Joseph hospital by ambulance last Wednesday afternoon. Latest report is that he is showing improvement.

Mrs. Todd is spending her Christmas vacation in Omaha at the home for her daughter, and family. Melvin took her to

Omaha, Saturday afternoon. A fine program was given in the assembly of the high school by the high school students. The Christmas story was read by Ann Carol Stander. "A White Christmas" was sung by several students. Shirley Lee gave the thrilling story of "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer". Another group of students sang a number. Barbara Garrenes gave "Twas the Night Before Christmas" Charles James and Clifford Rogers and kept us in stitches as they sang "I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Coconuts" and "I Never See Maggie". A group of carols was then sung by the high school students. Of course the exchange of gifts was a very exciting part of the program, too. And last, but not least, Santa appeared for a few words of good cheer.

The Christmas program at the Methodist church was well attended and in spite of colds and flu, the program was very good. The choir folks helped out nicely with several special numbers. We were especially pleased to have Mary Ellen Williams favor us with two flute solos. She was accompanied by her mother. Thanks a lot Mary Ellen. Of course at the proper time Santa made his appearance and treated all the "good boys and girls".

Union high school students were out caroling last Thursday evening. After leaving town they visited two members of the high school who have been confined to their homes: Gene Herman and Donald Beccard. Later they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, where they were treated to a chili supper and party.

Loren Todd was taken violently ill last Wednesday and was taken to St. Joseph hospital by ambulance last Wednesday afternoon. Latest report is that he is showing improvement.

Mrs. Todd is spending her Christmas vacation in Omaha at the home for her daughter, and family. Melvin took her to

Omaha, Saturday afternoon. A fine program was given in the assembly of the high school by the high school students. The Christmas story was read by Ann Carol Stander. "A White Christmas" was sung by several students. Shirley Lee gave the thrilling story of "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer". Another group of students sang a number. Barbara Garrenes gave "Twas the Night Before Christmas" Charles James and Clifford Rogers and kept us in stitches as they sang "I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Coconuts" and "I Never See Maggie". A group of carols was then sung by the high school students. Of course the exchange of gifts was a very exciting part of the program, too. And last, but not least, Santa appeared for a few words of good cheer.

The Christmas program at the Methodist church was well attended and in spite of colds and flu, the program was very good. The choir folks helped out nicely with several special numbers. We were especially pleased to have Mary Ellen Williams favor us with two flute solos. She was accompanied by her mother. Thanks a lot Mary Ellen. Of course at the proper time Santa made his appearance and treated all the "good boys and girls".

Union high school students were out caroling last Thursday evening. After leaving town they visited two members of the high school who have been confined to their homes: Gene Herman and Donald Beccard. Later they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, where they were treated to a chili supper and party.

Loren Todd was taken violently ill last Wednesday and was taken to St. Joseph hospital by ambulance last Wednesday afternoon. Latest report is that he is showing improvement.

Mrs. Todd is spending her Christmas vacation in Omaha at the home for her daughter, and family. Melvin took her to

Omaha, Saturday afternoon. A fine program was given in the assembly of the high school by the high school students. The Christmas story was read by Ann Carol Stander. "A White Christmas" was sung by several students. Shirley Lee gave the thrilling story of "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer". Another group of students sang a number. Barbara Garrenes gave "Twas the Night Before Christmas" Charles James and Clifford Rogers and kept us in stitches as they sang "I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Coconuts" and "I Never See Maggie". A group of carols was then sung by the high school students. Of course the exchange of gifts was a very exciting part of the program, too. And last, but not least, Santa appeared for a few words of good cheer.

The Christmas program at the Methodist church was well attended and in spite of colds and flu, the program was very good. The choir folks helped out nicely with several special numbers. We were especially pleased to have Mary Ellen Williams favor us with two flute solos. She was accompanied by her mother. Thanks a lot Mary Ellen. Of course at the proper time Santa made his appearance and treated all the "good boys and girls".

Union high school students were out caroling last Thursday evening. After leaving town they visited two members of the high school who have been confined to their homes: Gene Herman and Donald Beccard. Later they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, where they were treated to a chili supper and party.

Loren Todd was taken violently ill last Wednesday and was taken to St. Joseph hospital by ambulance last Wednesday afternoon. Latest report is that he is showing improvement.

Mrs. Todd is spending her Christmas vacation in Omaha at the home for her daughter, and family. Melvin took her to Omaha, Saturday afternoon. A fine program was given in the assembly of the high school by the high school students. The Christmas story was read by Ann Carol Stander. "A White Christmas" was sung by several students. Shirley Lee gave the thrilling story of "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer". Another group of students sang a number. Barbara Garrenes gave "Twas the Night Before Christmas" Charles James and Clifford Rogers and kept us in stitches as they sang "I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Coconuts" and "I Never See Maggie". A group of carols was then sung by the high school students. Of course the exchange of gifts was a very exciting part of the program, too. And last, but not least, Santa appeared for a few words of good cheer.