Gala Party Held New Year's Eve

One of the pleasant social gatherings of the pre-New Year was held at the main dining room of the Edith Solomon coffee shop Saturday night by a group of the local people who have in recent years made a practice of gathering each year to greet the New Year.

The members of the party enjoyed a very fine steak supper to open the evening of pleasure. Following the dinner the members of the party spent the remainder of the evening in dancing and enjoying singing songs until the midnight hour when they greeted the coming of the new year 1950.

Those in the party comprised: Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Caldwell, County Attorney and Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Long, Mr. and Mrs. Don Arundel, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Begley, Mr. and Mrs. Don Rainey, Mr. and

Woman's Club Enjoys Fine Address Monday

The Plattsmouth Woman's club held their regular meeting on Monday evening at the main dining room of the Edith Solomon coffee shop in the Hotel Plattsmouth, despite the unfavorable weather there was a good attendance of the members.

The pledge of allegiance to the flag for the United States of America, was led by Mrs. Etta Gorder, past president of the club.

The collect for the meeting was given by Mrs. L. B. Dalton, district vice-president, while the devotions were led by Mrs. F. I. Rea, past president.

The club voted to contribute $3 to the cancer fund and $5 to the March of Dimes. The club then enjoyed a fine address by Rev. Father John Kelly, associate pastor of St. John's church.

The remarks of Father Kelly was based on the subject, "Who Shall Find a Valiant Woman?" The address was based on the story of woman taken from the Book of Genesis in the holy bible, when God created woman from the rib of man.

The speaker told of the earliest struggle of the women of the world, from the position of practical slavery to the present day, when they have risen in most of the world to equal rights with man in many cases dominating as rulers of nations of the world. The two extremes of the life of woman were not the ideal of their creation. In the role of the slave or the ruler of a nation, they were in a sphere that was not destined for them in the beginning. The greatest and most valuable place of woman, was in the home, her natural background, where she ruled through love, and care of the family and implanted in them the ideals that made for great men and women of the world.

The address was given in an impressive manner that held the closest attention of the ladies.

The courtesy hostesses of the meeting were Mrs. Fred Feldhausen and Mrs. Glen McClure.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the committee composed of Meadames Leslie Niel, W. E. Kraeger, W. L. Heinrich, Anna Wiles, Alex Rhoden, Etta Gorder, Marvin Brown and L. D. Hiatt.

Mrs. Propst was reared in this community, attending school here and later graduating from the University of Nebraska in 1949, where she was a member of the Delta Delta Delta Sorority. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ruse.

Mr. Propst was born in Omaha and attended schools in Nebraska until 1936 when he went to Florida with his family. He later graduated from the Bolles Military School in Jacksonville, Florida. Attended the University of Florida, where he became a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He left school to join the army, where he was a member of the 6th Armored Division, serving in Germany. He attended the University of Nebraska since his discharge. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Propst, and grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Propst, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Johnson, well known residents of this community.

After a short trip through the Ozarks the young people will be at home in Omaha.

Those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. Wayne Propst, Plattsmouth; Mrs. Clara Propst, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Spencer, Plattsmouth; Mrs. Clara Lynn McPaul, and daughter, Lynn, Omaha; Mrs. Wm. Phillips Bennett, Jacksonville, Florida, and Mrs. Stella J. Wetherill, of Gentry, Arkansas, cousin of Mrs. Propst Sr., who made the arrangements for the ceremony.

Linen line is the best for deep fishing since it will not deteriorate in salt water.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Neville left by plane for Palm Springs. They will be at home in Van Nuys, California.

Miss Gilmour was graduated from Plattsmouth high school in 1934 and attended Dakota Wesleyan University. Mr. Neville attended Thacher school in California. Hotchkiss preparatory school and was graduated from Yale University in 1936.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Neville left by plane for Palm Springs. They will be at home in Van Nuys, California.

Ruse-Propst Wedding Held In Arkansas

On Saturday, December 31, Deloris Ruse became the bride of Mr. Richard J. Propst, in an impressive, double-ring ceremony at Bentonville, Arkansas. The ceremony was performed at 10:30 a. m. in the First Presbyterian church, the Rev. Richard A. Geiger, officiating.

The bride wore for her wedding a softly-tailored, royal blue suit, with matching jewel trimmed hat. Her accessories were brown and her flowers orchids. For something "old" she wore a tiny gold locket, belonging to the groom's great-grandmother, and worn by all the brides in his family. Her lovely lace handkerchief was 'borrowed' from the groom's sister.

Mr. Propst was reared in this community, attending school here and later graduating from the University of Nebraska in 1949, where she was a member of the Delta Delta Delta Sorority. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ruse.

Mr. Propst was born in Omaha and attended schools in Nebraska until 1936 when he went to Florida with his family. He later graduated from the Bolles Military School in Jacksonville, Florida.
