Death of Long Time Resident Here Monday

The death of Conrad A. Meisinger, 86, a resident of Nebraska since six years ago, occurred on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Verna Fillmore, where he has been cared for during the past several years, as he has been very feeble and in the last year it was necessary for him to be assisted around.

Mr. Meisinger was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Balz Meisinger and was born in Pekin, Illinois, the old home of the family, February 5, 1863, and when a small child was brought by the parents to Cass county, where he has made his home most of the time. For many years he was engaged in farming in Cass and Sarpy counties until he retired from the farm and has made his home in Plattsmouth and vicinity in the ensuing years.

The family of Mr. Meisinger, settling here at an early day had had a large part in the development of the county in the succeeding years, assisting in making this one of the most successful counties in the state.

There is surviving his death, two daughters, Mrs. Lottie E. Drawner and Mrs. Florence K. Bates, both of Omaha; one son, Joe A. Meisinger of Springfield; three brothers, Philip M. Meisinger, Louisville; John B. Meisinger, Lincoln; and L. A. Meisinger of Plattsmouth. There are also five grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Meisinger preceded her husband in death some thirteen years ago. The body was brought to the Caldwell funeral home at 7th street and Avenue B where the funeral services were held this (Thursday) afternoon at 1:30. The services were conducted by Rev. A. Lentz, pastor of Christ Lutheran church, Louisville.
