Presbyterian Circles Meet

The circles of the Woman's Federation of the First Presbyterian church met on Wednesday afternoon with several very interesting meetings being held at the homes of members.

Circle No. 1 was entertained at the home of Mrs. W. E. Hickey in the Coronado apartment, where there were fifteen members present to enjoy the day. The devotions and lesson were given by Mrs. E. C. Giles. The members of this circle held their election at this time, Mrs. Marion Christianson being named as chairman and Mrs. E. H. Bernhardt as the vice-chairman. Mrs. Walter Gleason is the secretary of the group. The ladies enjoyed the refreshments of the afternoon that carried out the Washington birthday theme in cherry pie a la mode.

Circle No. 2 met at the home of Mrs. Etta Gorder with twelve of the members present for the pleasant afternoon. Mrs. Floyd Becker, chairman, presided over the meeting and the devotions and lesson were given by Mrs. Edith Becker. Mrs. Gorder and Mrs. Mike Tritsch, associate hostesses served. All enjoyed the refreshments very much.

Mrs. L. D. Hiatt was hostess to Circle No. 3 at her home on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Robert Cappell, Mrs. Paul D. Jahrig and Mrs. William Stenkamp assistant hostesses. Thirteen were in attendance. Mrs. Richard Peck, chairman, presided over the meeting while Miss Pearl Staats gave the devotions and the missionary topic. A social hour was enjoyed following which refreshments in keeping with the Washington birthday theme were served.

Well Known Young People Are Married

On Wednesday morning at the First Methodist church was held the wedding service for Miss Barbara Redden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Redden, Sr., of Murray and Howard Royer of this city.

The wedding service was read by Rev. E. C. Williams, pastor of the church.

The wedding was witnessed by Mrs. Thelma Royer, mother of the groom and George G. Eledge, a brother-in-law of the bride.

The young people are expecting to make their home in this city where the groom has been engaged in railroad work. The groom is one of the well known young service men of the community.

The many friends will extend their well wishes to the young people for their future success.

Following the wedding here the bridal party motored to Omaha where they visited with Mrs. John Redden, Sr., mother of the bride who is a patient at the University hospital. The bridal party each donated a pint of blood to be used in the care of the mother.

Attends Birthday Club Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thiele of this city attended the birthday club at the meeting Monday evening at Nehawka at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Niday. The occasion honored the anniversaries of Mrs. Niday and Mrs. Howard Philpot.

The table was arranged very artistically in the St. Valentine motif by Mrs. Walter Wunderlich and small hearts served as the favors for the evening.

The traditional birthday cakes were baked by Mrs. Thiele and Mrs. Melvin Sturm.

Following dinner party the members of the group enjoyed the time at cards and a great deal of pleasure was derived by the members.

VISIT IN WEST

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie J. Hutchinson and family spent the week end in the west part of the state where they were guests of a sister and the father of Mr. Hutchinson.

They were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pepperl and with James Hutchinson, father of Leslie.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Darrell Nolte and baby son Larry Wayne, have returned home from the St. Catherine's hospital at Omaha, where the little son was born on February 2nd.

Junior Women Plan Program For the Future

The Plattsmouth Junior Women's Club held their regular meeting, Monday evening at the main dining room of Hotel Plattsmouth. President Vera Wargha presiding over the business meeting.

A card was read from the State Chairman of Music, Mrs. P. O. Marvel, inviting the club to join in the "Massed Chorus" at the opening session of the N. F. W. C. Convention opening Friday noon, March 24th, also a letter asking for the members to correspond with people in foreign countries, the club voted to have a list of names sent to them so they could select the person they would correspond with.

Reports were given on the polo drive, Shirley Jacobs, Norman Spidell county chairman for theatre collections reported a total of $193.00 from the Cass theatre. Joan Solomon, June Jacobs Beverly Propst, reported a total of $41.37 from the March of Dimes dance, the other reports were incomplete, so will be given later. The president thanked the girls for their splendid cooperation on this project.

Several money making projects were brought before the group, one will be decided on later.

The Senior Womens Club will meet with the Junior club for their meeting in April. Dr. H. Eggers will give an illustrated lecture on cancer.

March is election of officers and the following were appointed for the nominating committee: Esther Donat, Josephine Wargha, Faye Newens, Lillian Schmitt.

The meeting was turned over to the committee in charge of the program and they presented Jean Lockin and a few from her dancing class in a short show. Those taking part were: Danny Lockin, acrobatics; Janet Campbell sang, "Dear Hearts and Gentle People"; Jonan Albin, soft shoe tap; Sharon Puls, acrobatics; Wayne Lewis and Kay Casey in a song and dance; Danny Lockin came back singing "Chattanooga Shoe Shine Boy." The program was enjoyed by the members present.

Delicious refreshments were served by the committee in charge. Beverly Propst, Josephine Wargha, Faye Newens.

Stewart-Trumble Wedding Is Held

Announcement has been received here by Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Larson and other old family friends, of the marriage of Miss Margaret Dale Stewart of Berkeley, California, to Mr. Ernest Lorenz Trumble. The wedding took place on Saturday, January 28th at Berkeley, California, where the groom is attending the University of California.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Marie Trumble and the late Ernest Trumble of this city and Eagle. The father of the groom was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trumble of Eagle and lived there until he entered the army in 1917 and served through the first world war. He was employed here at the Plattsmouth State bank when stricken with an illness that caused his death.

With the death of Mr. Trumble the widow and children resided at Lincoln for a number of years and later moved to Washington, D. C., and then to the west coast where the groom has been attending school.

Sunbonnet Garden Club

The Sunbonnet Garden club met on Tuesday, February 9th at the home of Mrs. Harold Spangler with Mrs. Ethel Wall as the associate hostess. There were twelve members and two visitors to join in the meeting.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. Edith Akeson leading in the Lord's Prayer after which the business of the club was presided over by Mrs. Ethel Hennings, vice-president.

The lesson of the day was on the "African Violets" their care and planting. The special prize was won by Mrs. Bertha Davenport. The hostesses served delicious refreshments after which all departed homeward.

LOCATES AT NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Taylor, who have been residing in Omaha since their marriage three weeks ago, have moved to this city where they are now making their home in an apartment on South 9th street.

Mr. Taylor has resumed his work with the Lyman-Richey company at their local plant north of the city and they expect to be located here for the future.

WANYEYA CAMPFIRE

Wanyeya Campfire Girls held their Council Fire in front of the open fire place at the home of their leader, Mrs. Howard Davis on Friday night. The girls had passed their trail seeking requirements before the Committee of Awards. Mrs. Edgar Newton assisted our leader in passing out the beads. Later Mrs. Newton explained the aim of Campfire. Each girl took part in the ceremony, giving their Indian name and what it means.

There were thirty-one present for the ceremony. We were all sorry our assistant leader, Mrs. Hudson was unable to attend due to sickness in the family.

Patty Johnson brought our Mascot, "Bright Eyes" to the Council Fire, she receiving beads also.

Pictures were taken by Mr. Davis of the group.

Later in the evening Mrs. Davis played the electric organ and the group enjoyed singing. All departed after spending a very pleasant evening and all looking forward to having as much fun in our group in 1950 as we did the past year.

The girls presented Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Hudson with a Valentine gift box of candy.—Nancy Sedlak, Reporter.

Local People Now In the Deep South

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hamilton and family, who have been located in the south since October 15th when they were located in Kentucky, have moved to the deep south where they are located at Bossier, Louisiana, the cold weather causing their transfer to more mild surroundings as Mr. Hamilton is engaged as a diesel engine mechanic.

They write home that the section where they are now located is very beautiful, mild warm weather and the pear trees are in bloom and the residents busy cutting grass.

Mr. Hamilton thinks that it will be sometime, probably a month, before he winds up his work and is able to return to Plattsmouth.
