Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luetchens were honored at a dinner for their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home at Wabash on Saturday, February 25th with their four children and fourteen grandchildren present.

The dinner was prepared by the children and a short program was given by the family following the dinner.

Those present besides the above mentioned were: Mrs. Carl Schlaphoff, Mr. Herman Luetchens, Ester and Norma, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schweppe, Marie and Martha Rev. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fornoff, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Luetchens, Wayne and Joanne. Those attending from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Buehner and Donna, Mr. and Mrs. Don Buehner of Ponca City, Oklahoma, and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McClusky of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Will Enjoy Family Reunion in South

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson departed today (Thursday) for the south where they will enjoy a visit of some duration at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Berger, the latter the former Alice Peterson of this city at Venice, Florida.

The visit will also be a reunion of the members of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson, Sr., all of the members of the family being there. Mrs. May Spies of Ontario, California, has been there for the winter and Mrs. John E. Schutz of this city is making the trip by train to join the sisters and brother in the reunion in the sunny south.

Carol Lou Bernhardt To Sing in Choir

Carol Bernhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bernhardt of Plattsmouth, will sing in the alto section of the Hastings College choir during the group's annual four state spring tour. A sophomore, Miss Bernhardt is majoring in education at Hastings College. She graduated from the Plattsmouth High School in 1948.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gansemer of Murray are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Barbara Jean Gansemer, to Robert J. Krejci, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Krejci, of this city. The couple are planning an early summer wedding.

If the president and vice-president of the United States should both die, the secretary of state, an unelected official, would succeed to the office.

Golden Wedding Of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luetchens

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luetchens observed their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday, February 26th with open house at their country home near Wabash.

Mrs. Luetchens was the former Henrietta Schweppe and the wedding occurred at the Emmanuel Evangelistic United Brethren church near Murdoch by Rev. A. Wichmann. The couple still attend services at this church each Sunday.

The bride of fifty years wore a gray dress with a corsage of pink carnations and the groom wore a gray suit with a carnation boutonniere, each wearing a gold wrist watch, gifts of their children. The grandchildren gave them a gold colored blanket.

On the center of the dining room table was a three-tiered cake with a miniature bride and groom on the top. There were gold candle holders with white candles on either side of the cake.

The bride's dress of fifty years ago was on display at the golden wedding observance.

Over 260 relatives, neighbors and friends, other than their family, called during the day to offer best wishes to the honored couple. They received many beautiful flowers and useful gifts and many, many cards.

There were also telephone calls from some who were unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Prentice, Charles and Kenneth of Cedar Rapids, Nebraska, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nielsen, Eugene and Lola Mae of Cushing, Nebraska, came to spend the day with the family.

All the four children and their families were present, Edna, at home, Harold Luetchens of Wabash, his wife Ruth and children, Mable, Reuben and Melvin, Mrs. Herbert Oehlerking of Elmwood, her husband Herbert and children, Eldon and Lovina, Mrs. William Vogt, her husband William and their children, Marie, Billy, Gwen, Lloyd, Armin, Elmer, Margaret and John, and Linner Backstrom of Raymond.

The children and grandchildren welcomed the guests had charge of the guest book gifts and serving the refreshments.

Honored on 29th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Sheard of this city were honored on Saturday and Sunday on their twenty-ninth wedding anniversary. The members of the party were entertained on Saturday evening at the Wally Tucker home by their son and daughter-in-law, Donald and Camelle Sheard of LaPlatte. A very fine time was enjoyed by the group.

On Sunday a large family dinner party was held at the Sheard home at 1708 Avenue D, that brought together all of the children to enjoy the day with the parents, and wish them many more such happy anniversaries. The members after enjoying the fine dinner spent the day in visiting and in honor of the anniversary the parents were presented with many lovely gifts and among these a RCA radio and a Sunbeam mixer. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Sheard of Plattsmouth, John Sheard and wife Dorothy of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Max Taylor and children, Janice and Rodney of Council Bluffs, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sheard of LaPlatte, Bobbie, Clyde and Jimmie Sheard at home.

Mrs. Vesta Thomas Seeks Presidency

Old Plattsmouth and Cass county friends of Mrs. Vesta Thomas of Nebraska City will be interested in learning that she is announcing her candidacy for the office of state president of the American Legion Auxiliary, in which she has long been an active figure.

Mrs. Thomas has just completed a term as the grand chapeau of the 40 & 3 Society of Nebraska, and is at this time child welfare chairman of the Nebraska City Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Thomas became a member of the Auxiliary while a resident of Plattsmouth and was untiring in her work in the organization, and carried with her this great desire to aid in the work, when removing to Nebraska City serving there in the various offices and was very successful as the unit president.

For her fine services in the Legion Auxiliary she should find a strong support among the membership.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Pollard and children, Barbara Sue and Kathy Rae, of Schaller, Iowa, were here this week visiting at the home of County Commissioner and Mrs. W. F. Nolte, parents of Mrs. Pollard, also at Nehawka with relatives.
