Obituary of Mrs. Boyles

Sarah Ellen McFall was born in Ontario, Canada, January 15, 1865, and passed away at her home here, February 19, on Sunday morning.

At the age of 16 she moved with her parents and younger sisters and brothers to Elmwood and has lived in this community ever since.

In September 1883 she was united in marriage to Elmer Boyles. She was the mother of three sons, one of whom passed away in infancy and the oldest one, Roy, died in 1931.

Mrs. Boyles joined the Christian church when a young woman and remained faithful through the years. She also was a member of the Rebekah Lodge. She had many friends who enjoyed visiting with her in her pleasant home. They moved from their farm to town in 1916. Survivors include the son

Thor, three grandchildren, two great grandchildren, three sisters, Miss Anna McFall, Mrs. George Hall and Mrs. Bertha Fitch all of Elmwood, two brothers, George McFall of Brunswick, Nebraska, and John of Ontario, Oregon.

Mrs. Boyles had not been well for some years and on Friday she suffered a severe stroke and died two days later.

Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday at the Christian church with arrangements made by the Clements funeral directors, and the pastor, Rev. E. Boosinger, officiating.

Mrs. Sid Moore played the instrumental music and Mrs. Chester Irons and Mr. Ralph Cramer sang "In the Garden" and "The City Four-square." Interment was in the Elmwood cemetery.

Burglars Use Watchdog
PORT WORTH, Tex. (UP)—Burglars of a tavern here brought their own watchdog to stand guard as they worked and drank beer. Police later found the dog, abandoned in the tavern. Missing was the beer from 10 empty cans and $50 cash.
