Obituary of Charles Hansen
Charles Nicholas Hansen was born August 19th, 1877 on the farm his father homesteaded in the year 1854, located north and west of Nehawka, and passed away March 2nd, 1950 at the age of 72 years, 8 months and 13 days.

He was the seventh of eight children born to John George and Wilhelmina Hansen. His early life was spent in farm duties and attending the rural school near-by.

He was united in marriage with Mollie Beckner and to this union, five children were born, all of whom preceded him in death, three in infancy, Lester, age six months and Florence, who passed away in May, 1927, at the age of 24 years. Also three brothers, Simon, Peter and George, and a sister, Emma Obenolte.

During his earlier years, he was engaged in farming on a farm a few miles northwest of the Hansen homestead and later lived in Plattsmouth for a number of years.

Due to failing health, he was forced to give up his activities and went to live at Hillcrest Nursing Home, where he passed away.

Surviving are his brother, F. A. Hansen, of Nehawka and two sisters, Helena Benjamin of Bellingham, Wash., and Anna Knabe of Lincoln, Nebr. Also many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at the Sattler funeral home at Plattsmouth, Saturday forenoon with Rev. Harry Hart officiating.

Mr. Frank Clويد sang "Saved by Grace" and "The City Four Square" accompanied by Mr. E. H. Westcott.

Nephews of the deceased who acted as pallbearers were Harry Knabe, John Hansen, Clarence Hansen, Fred Hansen, Ivan Hansen and Hal Hansen.

Fittingly, his body was laid to rest in the St. John cemetery northwest of Nehawka, which was once a portion of the homestead his father pioneered.

Pfc. Pat Burk
Has Visit Home
Pfc. Patrick Burk, who has been training in the air corps at Lackland Field, San Antonio, Texas, has been home for the past few days visiting with his relatives and old friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Taylor.

Pat has completed his training period at Lackland, one of the largest training centers of the army and when leaving here will report at Fort Francis E. Warren, Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Called to York
Today (Monday) Officer Fred Vincent of the city police force was called to York, Nebraska, by a message announcing the serious illness of his father, John Vincent, aged 84. Mr. Vincent has been quite ill for some time. Officer Vincent left for his old home and will remain there until the condition of the father makes some change.

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UP)—The Holland L. Hardins had double bad luck the same day. Hardin, a police patrolman, collided with a truck in the police vehicle. Less than two hours later, Mrs. Hardin was involved in a collision with the family car.

Coleman O'Brien
Is Improving
The old friends here of Coleman O'Brien, Sr., veteran U. S. Engineer, will be pleased to learn that he is now some better and resting easier following a stroke suffered on Sunday, February 26th.
Mr. O'Brien, who just recently retired from the engineers, is living at Blaine, Missouri, where he purchased a small farm and planned to make his home during his retirement. Prior to moving to Missouri, the family resided at Nebraska City after leaving Plattsmouth until his retirement from active duty.
Mr. and Mrs. Coleman O'Brien, Jr., of this city and James O'Brien of Offutt Field, were at Blaine to visit the father and found him a great deal improved although his case was quite serious for several days.

GIVEN NEW ASSIGNMENT
Plattsmouth friends of John H. Highfield, son of Mrs. William Highfield of this city, will be pleased to learn of the fact that he has been given a promotion in Omaha where he is with the Hinky-Dinky company. Jack has been situated at store No. 11 in Omaha and is named as head meat cutter at store No. 4, one of the large stores of the company. Mr. and Mrs. Highfield will celebrate their first wedding anniversary on March 12th.

Mrs. Wm. Carnell, Union, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warden and family to Shenandoan, Saturday.

William Vogt and son John, of Wabash were in the city Saturday to visit for a few hours and while here renewed for the paper.
