Legion Auxiliary Offers Scholarships

In an effort to stimulate recruitment of nurses in Nebraska, the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Nebraska, is offering eight gift scholarships of $200 each to students who are ready to enter nurse's training. Any girl or boy in the state who is able to meet the necessary qualifications is eligible to apply for one of the scholarships.

The competition is open right now and all applications must be in the hands of the Department Secretary (Mary G. MeVicker, 12th Floor State Capitol, Lincoln, Neb.) postmarked not later than May 1, 1950. Winners will be chosen by the Department Service Coordinating Committee of the American Legion Auxiliary in May.

Application blanks may be obtained from the Department Secretary or from any local American Legion Auxiliary Unit President.

Charles Warner to Recuperate Here

Wallace Warner and Mrs. Charles Warner drove to Lincoln Friday to bring home Charles, who has been in the Veterans' hospital since February. He will recuperate at the farm home of his parents where the family are staying.

Famous Chorus to Appear Here

People in Plattsmouth will have a fine opportunity to help the Auditorium fund when they attend the concert on May 2 at the Eagles Hall to be given by this distinguished group of singers under the direction of Dr. Noel J. Logan of Omaha. A well diversified program of famous classics as well as modern selections are included in the program to interest every one who hears this fine choral group. Tickets, are on sale now at the Style Shop, the Cass Drug store, and the Nierste Paint store, as well as by a number of people who are making personal contacts for sales. General admission tickets for the concert are $1.00 and patrons tickets are $2.50. Those who wish to give more to this worthy fund in the purchase of patrons tickets will be given the opportunity of having their names or the names of their businesses printed on the program for the evening.

Practice Ball Game on Sunday

Sunday afternoon a number of the baseball fans gathered at the Athletic park to see the practice game between the team of the Holy Ghost church of Omaha and the Plattsmouth Legion team of the D-S-C league.

The score was 14 to 8 for the visitors who were able to take advantage of misjudgments and errors in the latter part of the game to build up a lead that was not overtaken.

Several of the younger members of the team were shown in action, Carl Ofe of the high school, catching in the last innings and securing a good knock at the ball. Merle Dasher also was on the pitchers mound for the latter part of the game. The game was filled with the usual opening game unsteadiness on the part of both teams. The Legion has good material and a start of the season should be able to go places.

Mrs. F. I. Rea Renamed As Vice-Regent

Saturday and Sunday a number of the local ladies, members of Our Lady of Loretta court of the Catholic Daughters of America, were at Falls City to attend the Bi-ennial convention of the C. D. of A. in Nebraska.

The sessions were attended by representatives from all of the courts of the state and a very interesting time had.

Mrs. F. I. Rea of this city, state vice-regent, was in attendance at both days of the meeting as was Miss Josephine Warga, delegate from the local court.

The election of officers was held Sunday and all were re-elected, headed by Mrs. Laura Bruening of Hartington as grand regent, and Mrs. Rea of this city as the vice-regent. Rt. Rev. Bernard Loideman of Hartington, state chaplain of the order was also in attendance.

The host pastor of the meeting was Rt. Rev. L. F. Ebrist of the St. Peter & St. Paul's church of Falls City.

The banquet was held on Sunday evening and largely attended. It was served by the altar society of the Falls City church.

Attending the meeting from this city were: Miss Helen Eiting, regent of the local court, Mrs. Frederick Feldhausen, Lucille Horn Gaines, Mrs. B. H. G. Eiting. Mr. Eiting was driver for the party from this city and returned them home.

W. H. Wehrbein Improving

W. H. Wehrbein, prominent farmer of near this city, who has been at the St. Joseph hospital in Omaha for the past ten days, is reported as showing some improvement, although he is still required to keep quiet and have complete rest. He has been suffering from a heart attack but it is hoped that in a short time he may be able to return to recuperate at the farm home.

Harry Nielsen Has Throat Operation

Harry Nielsen, one of the well known and popular residents of this section of Cass county, was operated on Friday at the Veterans hospital at Lincoln for the removal of a throat tumor. The operation was quite successful and the patient is reacting splendidly. Mrs. Nielsen was at Lincoln Friday and remained until the husband was over the effects of the operation.

Marine Corps Is Now Taking Recruits
Capt. John H. Paetow, USMC, officer in charge of Marine Corps recruiting activities for Nebraska and South Dakota, stated today the Marines will accept an unlimited number of qualified young men for enlistment during April and May. Men from this area receive their basic training in San Diego, California.
The Marine officer cautioned high school graduates to file application early in order to improve their chances for acceptance after commencement. "An added influx of young men graduating in May and June might restrict quotas somewhat," Capt. Paetow said.
Those interested may contact their local Marine Corps office for further details, or write to the U. S. Marines, Fort Omaha, Omaha, Nebraska.
