First district: Charles Boedeker, Murray, LeRoy Moore, Plattsmouth.

Second district: Mrs. H. B. Koop, Louisville.

Third district: Rev. John C. Pryor, Weeping Water, Mrs. Floy Buell, Murdock.

The next meeting will be held at Rev. Pryor's home at Weeping Water on May 15 at eight o'clock, at which time the board of directors will meet.—Mrs. F. O. Sand, Publicity Chairman.

Merry Workers Club Meeting

The Merry Workers Extension Club met April 18, at the home of Mrs. John Hild with Mrs. Albert Kraeger and Mrs. Blanche Snell as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Robt. Valery, President, called the meeting to order. Roll call was answered with a safety measure executed in the home. The Health Leader reported on safety and other up to date data and happenings on health. A generous donation for the Cancer Fund was agreed on. A well conducted lesson was presented by the project leaders on "Selection and Care of Smooth Floor Coverings."

Those honored with a birthday song were Mrs. Albert Kraeger, Mrs. Willis Cole, and Mrs. Frank Topf.

Our next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robt. Valery on May 9th as a lawn party. Leader, Mrs. Joe Lackman, will present a study on "My Flower Garden and Exhibit."

Miss Schultz, Home Demonstration Agent, has been invited to attend our next meeting.

Delicious refreshments were served at the proper time.—Mrs. Donald Blotzer, Secretary.

Ak-Sar-Ben Honors Good Neighbors

The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben today, (Thursday) announced the selection of a large number of Nebraskans for Good Neighbor awards. The top honors were given to D. W. Reed and son, Blaine M. Reed, co-publishers of the Cherry County News. They were awarded for their community spirit in aiding the Valentine Republic when their building collapsed and the News published the paper of their rival and never missed an issue.

Others awarded will receive citations and gold lapel emblems for their service to fellow Americans and among these were:

Mrs. Ivan Balfour of Union, for many personal sacrifices to serve others as a teacher and 4-H club leader.

Mrs. Eugene L. Ludwig of Weeping Water, for refusing to be hindered by a physical handicap in her personal project aimed at benefitting children through formation of a boys' choir.

MRS. GAUER HOME
Mrs. Floyd Gauer, of Louisville, who has been at an Omaha hospital for some time, has returned to her home. She is still bedfast, suffering from a very severe attack of rheumatic fever.

New York's Wall street received its name from a boundary wall built across Manhattan Island by the Dutch settlers in 1653 to protect them from possible attack by the English.
