

New Regime Is Installed at The City Hall

cers of the city council and then adjourned sine die.
Mayor A. B. Rogers as his last official act, administered the oath of office to the new mayor and councilmen, as well as other officials, all being present with the exception of Judge C. L.

Graves, police magistrate.
Mr. Rogers thanked the members of the council for their assistance in the past two years, to the other officials that helped in the administration of the city government during his term.

The city council was then called to order by Mayor Woster and organized by the reelection of Councilman Frank A. Rebal as president of the council.

Mayor Woster then announced the appointment of the various officers for the city as follows:
City Attorney, Harold Lebens, re-appointed.
City Physician, Dr. R. F. Brendel.

Chief of Police, D. T. Haley.
Night Police: Fred H. Vincent and Clyde Jackson, the latter a new member of the police force.

All of these appointments were confirmed by the council. Mayor Woster then announced the standing committees of the council as follows:

Finance-Tax and Property Rebal, Chairman; Arn, Judiciary - License, Sattler, chairman; Siemers.

Streets, Alleys and Bridges. Arn, chairman; Sattler.
Fire, Water and Lighting, Siemers, chairman; Rebal.

Mayor Woster announced the re-appointment of the members of the park board, George Conis, Mrs. M. E. Brown and William F. Kreeger.

The mayor also named as members of the cemetery board to succeed themselves, C. E. Ledgway and William H. Schmidtman.

Mrs. Joe Puls Now at Methodist Hospital

Mrs. Joe Puls, a resident of west of Plattsmouth, is at the Methodist hospital at Omaha where she was taken several days ago. Mrs. Puls is undergoing treatment for a series of hemorrhages that she has suffered for the past few days. She has been given several transfusions in the hope of building up her strength.

Not Lost at All
ROCHESTER, Mass. (UP) — When Jennifer Jackson, 5, and her sister, Lillian, 4, disappeared an extensive police search was started by their distraught mother. The youngsters finally were found 50 miles from home, sitting calmly in the back of their father's truck. He had driven it to Boston on a business trip.

Past Masters Night Honored By Local Masons

to which Mr. Meisinger expressed his appreciation.

An unexpected feature of the banquet, that was cleverly given, was the discourse, "European Agriculture," presented by Dr. Hans Schnitzel, who was revealed later as Mr. Kugler of Murray.

Introduction was made by the master of ceremonies of members of the grand lodge present, Ernest S. Schiefelbein, Wahoo, grand master; John S. Hedlund, Omaha, deputy grand master; Carl R. Greisen, Omaha, grand secretary; Raymond C. Pollard, Nehawka, grand Tyler.

Grand Master Schiefelbein made the presentation of the Jordan medal, high Masonic recognition, to Dr. G. H. Gilmore, a member of Plattsmouth lodge for over fifty years, as a token of his long and useful service to Masonry. Dr. Gilmore responded in his usual clever manner.

The local lodge was very fortunate in having as their speaker of the evening, John Curtiss, of Lincoln, past grand orator of the Nebraska grand lodge, one of the outstanding residents of Nebraska. Mr. Curtiss devoted his talk to the present day conditions in our own United States and in the world. He warned of the seriousness of the present time, the necessity of the citizens of the country to face with seriousness the trend of the present time. He urged Masonry to carry on their traditional service to country and community in times of stress that were now prevailing.

The program was closed with the benediction by Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Among the visitors from Lincoln were A. H. Duxbury, grand master of Plattsmouth lodge, now deputy manager of the Veterans Administration at Lincoln; Rev. T. Porter Bennett, past grand high priest of the R. A. M. There were many here from Nehawka lodge, Euclid lodge of Weeping Water, Canopy lodge of Elmwood and Unity lodge of Greenwood. In the visiting members there were representatives from lodges in New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Kansas and Iowa. There was a large number here from Morning Star lodge No. 2 of Nebraska City, for the banquet.
