Paul Fauquet to Make Race for County Attorney

I take this means to announce that it is my intention to file as a democratic candidate for the office of county attorney of Cass county, Nebraska.

I have been requested by numerous friends throughout the county to become a candidate. These people have expressed the wish that they might have a County Attorney who would be free from any influence, who would feel it his duty to protect the rights of all citizens with the same relentless vigor that he uses in the prosecution of the rogues and rascals.

My friends feel that my five years of service as County Judge have demonstrated that I can and will deal fairly and impartially with every citizen, regardless of race or creed, and without respect of wealth or social position.

If I am elected to the office of County Attorney, I promise to conduct the office in such a manner as to justify the confidence the voters have placed in me.

Sincerely yours,
Paul E. Fauquet.

Harry Koch Enjoys Visit in This City

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Koch, prominent residents of Omaha, were here Tuesday for a few hours, taking in many places of interest in this city and visiting friends.

Mr. Koch, for many years one of the largest insurance executives in the country, is now retired from active management of his agency and is devoting himself to one of his hobbies, that of the interest of wild life of the middle west.

He is at this time interested in development of "Ducks Unlimited," national organization of sportsmen for conservation and protection of ducks and geese. While here he had the pleasure of visiting with a number of local sportsmen, discussing laws and means of better protection for game birds.
