Texas State Highway 219 is, perhaps the shortest designated highway in the United States. Near Huntsville, Tex., it is only two blocks and 19 feet in length.

Death of Stella Foral in Omaha

Mrs. Stella Foral, 49, died Thursday, May 18th at the family home, 1810 Deer Park boulevard, Omaha. Mrs. Foral was a member of one of the old families of Omaha, and was a sister of Mrs. L. A. Caldwell of this city.

There is surviving her death, husband, Louis; sons, Jack Louis, Jr., Gene and Richard; mother, Mrs. Anna Pavlik; sisters, Catherine and Emma Pavlik and Mrs. Tena Caldwell, Plattsmouth; brother, John Pavlik, Gary, Indiana; five grandchildren.

The funeral was held Saturday from the Dworak-Chapuran chapel to St. Wenceslaus church at 9 a. m. Burial was at St. Mary's cemetery with the Caldwell funeral home of Plattsmouth in charge.

VISIT OLD HOME

Wednesday afternoon Frank A. Levings and sister Mrs. Charles M. Edwards, formerly Miss Myrtle Levings of this city, were visiting with old friends. They were at Oak Hill cemetery to look after the care of the family lots, also to visit in the business section of the city, meeting old acquaintances.

Some kangaroos live in trees, and can jump as far as 50 feet to the ground, the World Book Encyclopedia reports.

Nehawka
(Mrs. F. O. Sand)

District 3, the Munn school, held a picnic to close the school year on Sunday. Patrons and children of the district and their friends attended.

Mrs. Paul Poppe and daughters of St. Joseph visited over the week end with her mother, Mrs. Gertrude Carper. Mrs. Poppe came to attend the alumni banquet Saturday evening.

The Johnson families of Nehawka held a picnic Monday evening at Steinhart park at Nebraska City honoring Wallace Nelson and family, San Francisco, who are visiting his mother, Mrs. Selma Nelson, at Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson and family drove to Auburn Sunday to view the flood damage and to visit Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nichols at Brownville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Harshman attend the alumni banquet at Weeping Water Saturday evening. The class of 1931 held a reunion at that time.

Sunday callers at the homes of Mrs. Roscoe Harshman and Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Harshman were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Shomaker and family, California; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Shomaker and Mrs. Eldon Gallentine, Springfield, Nebr.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bagley left Monday morning for Perham, Minn., on a fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Hoback and family, Nebraska City, were guests for the day Sunday of his mother, Mrs. Georgia Hoback. Mrs. Georgia Hoback attended a bridal shower for Miss Lola Midkiff at Union Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Murdoch, Lincoln, were dinner guests Sunday of her mother, Mrs. Addie Dodson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eaton and family, Mrs. Charlotte Shomaker and Mr. and Mrs. Vilas Kettlehut went to Auburn Sunday for a picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hunt, Enders; Mrs. Farrell Avise and children, Imperial, left Friday for their homes after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Embury. They came to attend the graduation of Donna Embury.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wulf, Avoca, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hansen Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hild, Murray, spent the day Monday at the Hansen home.

Mrs. Fred Hansen and infant daughter returned home Friday from Lincoln, where the baby was born. Mrs. Hansen and daughter stayed at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. D. E. Smith, at Lincoln the past week. Fred Hansen and Bryce and Mrs. F. A. Hansen drove to Lincoln for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schrader, Lincoln, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Helen Elizabeth, to Howard Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hansen, Nehawka. The wedding will take place at the St. Paul Methodist church at Lincoln at 3:00 o'clock June 18 with Rev. Frank C. Court officiating. Miss Schrader will receive her degree in home economics at the University of Nebraska June 5. Howard Hansen is a farm training instructor at Howells, Nebr., since his graduation from the university in February. Mr. Hansen and Miss Schrader spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hansen.

Mrs. John Hansen and Frances shopped in Lincoln Thursday.

4-H Sunday was observed Sunday at the Methodist church. John Knabe led the 4-H pledge and the flag salute. The choir sang "Follow the Gleam." Jean Stone sang "Service," accompanied by Mrs. Jean Hansen. Rev. Harry Hart devoted his sermon to 4-H.

Memorial services will be held at the auditorium next Sunday.

Lovell Massie was a dinner guest of his sister, Mrs. Georgia Hoback Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Briggs and son, Omaha, were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knabe Sunday evening.

Joan Kropp, Lincoln, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kropp and attended the alumni banquet.

Cyrus Trotter, Omaha, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kropp and Mrs. Sarah Kropp Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Trotter, Omaha, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Trotter Sunday afternoon.

The Nehawka library has received $45 from the sale of magazines by C. M. Miner, who works for the Curtis Publishing Co. Mr. Miner also presented the library the book, "Out of the Earth," by Louis Bromfield. Books donated to the library recently were "Raising a Riot," by Alfred Toombs; "Rowan Head," by Elizabeth Ogilvie, which were given by Miss Evelyn Wolph. George "West donated "Tomorrow We Reap," by James Street, and "Port Arrique," by Dryer. Mrs. Roy Waldo donated "Longfellow's Poems" and "Pavilion of Women," by Paul Buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cole and three grandchildren, O'Neill, returned home Monday morning from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Bucholz.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bucholz and family and their guests attended the school picnic at district 12 near Nebraska City Sunday. The Bucholz children attended this school before they moved to Nehawka in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Thoms and family, Weeping Water, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kearney Sunday afternoon. Harold Kearney is suffering from a knee injury, which is the result of being kicked by a cow Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schneider, Nebraska City, called at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Everett Jose and family, Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kettlehut and Thelma Rae called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Englekemeier at Murray Sunday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. L. N. Kunkel, Weeping Water, were Sunday evening luncheon guests of Rev. and Mrs. B. N. Kunkel.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knabe and family, Joseph Huber and Jack House were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Yearsley, Otoe.

Rev. and Mrs. Harry Hart, Weeping Water, and their daughter, Mrs. Smith and son, Lincoln, called at the Harry Knabe home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Kenneth Anderson, Lincoln, and Mrs. Victor Ross, Nehawka, entertained 65 guests at a miscellaneous shower Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church parlors at Union with Miss Mary Lou Garrison, the guest of honor. Tables were arranged in the form of the letter "N." The center table, at which the guest of honor presided, was decorated with an umbrella covered with pink and white ruffles. Miss Garrison received many attractive and useful gifts. Miss Garrison and Dean Nutzman will wed June 3.

Mayor's PROCLAMATION

Notice is hereby given that it has been determined that the public safety requires that the powers vested in me by Ordinance Number 686 be exercised at this time, and that this proclamation be issued pursuant thereto.

It is therefore hereby proclaimed that no dog shall be permitted to run at large within the corporate limits of the City of Plattsmouth unless such dog is securely muzzled with a fine wire muzzle, securely fastened upon such dog, and it shall be the duty of the members of the police force of this city to destroy all dogs found running at large contrary hereto, this proclamation to be in full force and effect from June 1, 1950, until further order is issued.

Dated at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, this 25th day of May, 1950

Clement T. Woster, Mayor

Attest: Albert Olson, City Clerk

L. C. Stoehr Litters In Duroc Program

Leonard C. Stoehr, prominent Duroc breeder of Plattsmouth, has entered four additional litters of purebred Duroc pigs in his breed's official sow-testing "PR" program, according to word received from B. R. Evans, secretary of the United Duroc Record Association, Peoria, Ill. This makes a total of 11 litters under test in the Stoehr herd.

In an official testing, certain minimum requirements must be met to qualify the sow and her litter. Minimum requirements for a PR qualifying litter from a mature sow is 8 pigs or more raised to an official 56-day litter-weight of 320 or more pounds. Farrowing report and 56-day weights both must be certified by an official witness.

Hilt Family Visit Illinois

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hilt, Sr., and children, Gary and Jacky Lu, have just returned from a ten day visit at Park Ridge and Chicago, Illinois. They visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Friedrich, cousins, also at Clear Rapids, Iowa, with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hilt. Kenneth is a telegraph operator at Beverly, Iowa.

The Hilts enjoyed their visit very much and also stopped enroute for a visit with old friends and neighbors.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Midkiff of Union, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Lola Midkiff to Mr. Robert Murdock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodward Murdock, Tarkio, Missouri. The wedding is to take place this month. Both are employed at Lincoln.

Returns From West Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Dunning who have been in California for the past two years, residing at Santa Ana, have returned to Plattsmouth, expecting to make their home here in the future.

Mr. Dunning is feeling much better and they are planning on moving to the home by the latter part of June, as soon as the present occupants are able to secure a new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunning are very happy to be back in Plattsmouth where they have so many old friends and associates.

Visit Relatives In California

County Assessor and Mrs. W. H. Puls departed this week for the Pacific coast where they will spend a short time. They are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Esther O'Brien and family at Los Angeles, also with another daughter, Mrs. Eugene Rector and family and their son, Robert Puls. While on the coast they are expecting to look up many of the old friends from Cass county now located in that part of the west.

Claude LaHoda, of Omaha, was here Tuesday evening for a short visit with his brother, Tony LaHoda and family. He reports his son, Don LaHoda is to be married.

SCHOOL SLATED

LINCOLN—The annual Nebraska Guernsey type school will be conducted at the state fair grounds coliseum on Saturday, May 27.

Otto H. Liebers, president of the Nebraska Guernsey Breeder's Association, said the program begins at 10 a. m. Joe Eves of Chicago will serve as official for the type school, placing the classes. Classes for the type school will be furnished by association members.

Cow Has Triplets

MUSKEGON, Mich. (UP)—A Guernsey cow owned by Waldo Walworth gave birth to triplets. The calves, one male, two females, were normal and healthy.

IKES WORK SUNDAY

Members of the Plattsmouth chapter of the Izaak Walton league are asked to be out Sunday at the new park, assisting in getting it ready for service. All who can are urged to come out as early as possible and join in the good work. A great deal was accomplished last week and it is hoped to have same completed this week.

INVITED TO WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thiele were pleased to be invited to the marriage of Betty Anne Grey, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Joseph Robert Gray, to Frank Ray Mickelsen, which is to be an event of June 3rd. The wedding is to be at Walter Reed chapel, Washington, D. C., with a reception at the officers club following the ceremony. They regret being unable to attend.