Father of 289 Descendants Wins Dad's Day Prize

The week of May 22, John L. Osborn, of Wallins Creek, Ky., reached his 95th birthday. One of the gifts he received was a $100 U. S. Savings Bond, which was the prize he won, for being the father of the largest number of living children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

The prize was given by the National Father's Day Committee.

The search for the dad of the largest family was nation-wide. John Osborn was feted by the community in which he lives, for winning this competition. Bert Vincent of the Knoxville, Tenn., News-Sentinel first discovered the prolific Mr. Osborn and notified the Committee. The descendants include 12 children, 76 grand-children, 163 great grand-children and 38 great, great grand-children — totaling 289.

Mr. Osborn lives on a farm and does most of the farm work himself.

Newsreels of the ceremonies were taken by motion picture companies and are being shown in local theatres.

The Father's Day Committee conducted this search and offered the prize to encourage large families, a vanishing phenomena in American life.

Cullom Woman's Extension Club

The Cullom Women's Extension Club met at the home of Mrs. Otto Peteret, June 8, 1950, at 1:30 p.m. with Mrs. Marvin Peteret as associate hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president and opened by repeating the Lord's prayer in unison.

Our song leader, Mrs. Marvin Peteret, led us in singing "This is my Father's World." Our president read us a poem on Father's Day; both song and poem honored our fathers who are given special recognition June 18th. Cards and birthday greetings were sent to Mrs. Fritz Siemoneit who is a shut in at this time.

Mrs. Walter Weiss and Mrs. Wilbur Means conducted an interesting study on "Your Club Meeting." They also had 15 true or false questions to answer on "How to conduct a meeting on Parliamentary Law."

We were very happy to have as our honored guest, the County Home Extension Agent, Miss Pearl Schultz. Twenty members were present and also a visitor, Mrs. Art Sprick.

Delicious refreshments were served by our hostesses, Mrs. Otto Peteret and Mrs. Marvin Peteret.

The next meeting will be held on July 13 at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Means with Mrs. Gerald Keil as associate hostess. The study will be "Time's A Wasting."

Sketch of Life Of Mrs. Nolte, Butler, S. D.

Butler (S. D.) Reporter—Mrs. Augusta Nolte passed away at 1:45 p.m. last Thursday at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hert west of Butler, where she had made her home for a number of years. Mrs. Nolte had remained active and in fairly good health until her recent illness. Death came at the age of 88 years, one month and 5 days.

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Butler Lutheran church with Rev. Overt Hoven officiating. A quartet consisting of Ben Bohn, Henry Sveum, Donald Bohn and Olaf Bye, sang "The Old Rugged Cross" and "In The Beautiful Land." Mrs. Magnus Espeland and Ben Bohn sang "Whispering Hope," a favorite of Mrs. Nolte. Mrs. Edward Buhler was organist.

Palbearers were her grandsons, Donald and Richard Grode Lester Herr, Herbert Nolte and Howard Jensen of Butler and Oren Pollard of Schaller, Iowa. Interment was made at the Bristol cemetery.

Attending from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. William Nolte and Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Nolte of Plattsmouth, Neb. Mrs. Ella Blatterger, Mrs. John Grotjohn, Mrs. Frank Grotjohn and Mr. and Mrs. Oren Pollard and daughters Kathie Rae and Barbara Sue of Schaller, Iowa. Augusta Blatterger was born

April 20, 1862, at Blake, Germany, where she grew to womanhood. She was baptized and confirmed in the Reform church. On Dec. 30, 1888, she was married to August Nolte, to which union were born six children, two daughters and four sons.

On March 29, 1892, she and her husband and two children, Augusta and William, arrived at Schaller, Iowa, to make their new home. In 1910, the family moved to a farm four miles west of Butler where they remained until 1924, when she and her husband retired from active farm life. They moved to Bristol where they resided until the passing of her husband, Nov. 19, 1934.

She was preceded in death by her husband and one son, Otto, who died in Army service during World War I in France.

Left to mourn her passing are two daughters, (Augusta) Mrs. Emil Hert, and (Emma) Mrs. Joe Grode of Butler; three sons, William and Ferdinand of Plattsmouth, Neb., and August of Butler; one brother and one sister in Iowa, 15 grandchildren, 22 great grandchildren and a host of friends and relatives.

Local Young Men Enjoy Trip East

Robert Tritsch and Kenneth Tiekotter of this city, Dick Paulson of Omaha and Jack Olson, of New York City, who has been attending the University of Nebraska, have returned home from an outing in the east.

The boys were at New York City where they visited with Dr. Robert Kroehler, uncle of Bob, as well as the relatives of Mr.

Oison. They had a busy time taking in the sights of the world's greatest city and surroundings. The trip was one that they all will very pleasantly remember.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS

The Campfire Girls met at the home of Mrs. Howard Davis Tuesday, June 13th, at 2:30 in the afternoon. We had our business meeting, then went down to the sewing center, saw how they made their robes and how they made the different parts. Alice Hughton, reporter.
