Noerrlinger-Haveman Wedding

Avoca—(Special to Journal) Helen Fae Noerrlinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Noerrlinger of Avoca, became the bride of Leonard Haveman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Haveman, also of Avoca, in a ceremony performed in the North Branch Lutheran church Friday evening.

Rev. F. L. Bracher performed the ceremony in the presence of 250 guests. The altar was decorated with garden flowers and two T-branch candelabra. Streamers marked the pews.

Miss Joan Noerrlinger, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Ruby Noerrlinger, also a sister of the bride, and Miss Arlene Kastens, cousin of the groom, were bridesmaids.

LeRoy Haveman entered as best man. The groom's other attendants were Chester Noerrlinger, brother of the bride, and Roy Heinke, cousin of the groom.

The bride wore a gown of nylon marquisette with traditional features and a full train. She wore a fingertip veil and a rhinestone necklace, a gift from the groom. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

The maid of honor was gowned in orchid taffeta and the bridesmaids wore yellow and green taffeta, all styled alike. They wore mits and headresses and carried colonial bouquets.

Mrs. Walter E. Noerrlinger Jr. played the wedding music and accompanied Frederic Kastens, cousin of the groom, who sang "Always," "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

A reception was given by the bride's parents in the church parlors following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Colorado the couple will farm east of Avoca.
