

Masonic Home Has Veteran Printer

Among the recent arrivals at the Nebraska Masonic Home is a veteran newspaper man and printer, J. M. Myers, 80, who is a member of Florence lodge No. 281.

Mr. Myers has put in many years in the newspaper activities, operating papers at Tilden, Neligh, Wausa, Ralldolph, in the northeast part of the state. He also operated newspapers at Benson and Florence in Omaha. Mr. Myers was down in the business section for the first time Tuesday, dropping into the Journal. He was passing along the street, when he whiffed the smell of printer's ink, came in to visit. This is an old custom of anyone that has long been in the newspaper game.

At The Cass County Court House

Attorney Madge Garnett was appointed as guardian ad litem. Order confirming shares entered by the court, and property ordered sold at referee's sale. Walter H. Smith and Richard C. Peck named as referees and bond fixed at $65,000.

In the case of Emma Nutzmann, et al., vs. Chalmers Aitken, et al., a suit covering title to property located on Goose Island, southeast of Plattsmouth, Florence Fouchek was appointed as attorney for all persons in the military service. Answer of Walter H. Smith, guardian ad litem for Billy Lee Doty and answer of Les Doty, natural guardian of Billy Lee Doty, received and compromise settlement with the plaintiffs entered. Order was entered barring all claims to title to the land in question.

Death of Charles McPherson, Lincoln

Plattsmouth friends will regret to learn of the death at Lincoln, Tuesday, of Charles D. McPherson, 68, former Plattsmouth resident. Mr. McPherson has been in failing health for some time, suffering from a heart ailment that has kept him inactive for several months.

While a resident here, Mr. McPherson was married to Miss Margaret Rennie, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rennie. They have lived in Lincoln since their marriage. Mrs. McPherson was well known over the state, serving as grand worthy matron of Nebraska of the Eastern Star. The family home was at 3912 H. street, Lincoln.

Funeral services will be at Lincoln at 11 a.m. Saturday and the body brought to Plattsmouth for interment at Oak Hill cemetery. The cortege is expected to reach here at 1 p.m. Saturday.
