Among His Souvenirs

TOPEKA, Kan. (UP)—Motor car license plates for an unbroken period of 35 years have been presented to the Kansas Automobile Club by Charles E. Phillips, Greensburg merchant. The collection, dating back to 1913, came from cars Phillips has owned.

He Asked For It
OKMULGEE, Okla. (UP)—Orville Fisher, who circulated successful petitions calling for an Okmulgee county grand jury, was indicted himself by that jury before it adjourned. Fisher wanted the jury to investigate bootleggers who he charged were unmoistened while he was run out of the liquor business by repeated raids. He was indicted for selling whiskey to minors.

Must Be Genuine
SALT LAKE CITY (UP)—No harmless, new-fangled substitutes are allowed for the good old western "shootin' iron." Thousands of Utahns own rifles for big game hunting. But the Utah law reads: "Any person selling or giving away a toy pistol is guilty of a misdemeanor."
