Shraders Home From Motor Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Shrader, residing south of this city, have returned from a very delightful motor trip that they enjoyed with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Burke of Cairo, Illinois. The party left here for the southwest, driving through Missouri, Arkansas and Oklahoma. On the trip they visited at the ranch of Will Rogers in Oklahoma, to enjoy sights in that part of the southwest. In their trip through Arkansas they visited at Van Buren, the home town that Bob Burns made famous.

They continued east to make a short tour of Kentucky and Illinois. At Paducah, Kentucky, they visited the home of Vice-President Barkley, enjoying the sights of that famous Kentucky city.

Mr. Shrader reports that crops looked good, seeing a great deal of cotton and soy beans through the south. One thing the local people noted was the lack of live stock, what they saw was small and not the well fed stock found on Nebraska farms.

Mrs. George W. Perry Undergoes Operation

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Alwin departed Thursday for Flagstaff, Arizona, called there by the serious illness of their daughter, Mrs. George W. Perry, formerly Miss Wilma Pickard of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Alwin returned here a week ago from Arizona at that time the patient was apparently well. The message announcing that she was to undergo a severe major operation came as a great shock to the relatives.

Mrs. Perry was operated on Thursday at the hospital at Williams, Arizona. The latest reports from the hospital are to the effect that she is showing much improvement and it is hoped will soon be able to resume her usual activities.
