Johnson-Scarborough Wedding Sunday

Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Our Redeemer Lutheran church at Omaha, Miss. Alice Loretta Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Johnson of Omaha, was married to Clark Scarborough Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Scarborough Sr. of Five Oaks, California.

The wedding was very beautiful, the church being lovely in the floral and candle decorations.

The groom is a former resident of Plattsmouth, his father having purchased the paint and wall paper business here of the late F. R. Gobelman, with Al Nierste, later disposing of his interest to Mr. Nierste. The family later moved to California.

Clark was released from the armed services in May, after a three year service, most of it in China. He expects to enter the University of Omaha in September to finish his degree. The bride is a well known figure in musical circles in Omaha being a talented pianist. Her father, the parents of the groom flew in for the wedding at Omaha, which was also attended by Mollie Gobelman of this city.

Grosshans Family Leave for West

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Grosshans and daughter, Miss Alice Jayne Grosshans, deputy county treasurer, left today (Monday) on a vacation trip that will take them to the west coast to enjoy visiting with relatives and old friends for a two week period. They were joined at Omaha by Miss Edna Grosshans, a sister of Karl, to make the trip.

They are driving through to Corvallis, Ore., taking in many places of interest between here and the coast. At Corvallis they are to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Grosshans, a brother of Karl, and enjoy the major part of their stay there with relatives. A trip to San Francisco to visit other relatives is part of the program for the trip.

PLEASANT VIEW CLUB

The ladies club of Pleasant View met at the home of Mrs. Cass Sylvester Thursday, Mrs. Vernon Gish was assistant hostess. There were 17 members present and two visitors, Mrs. Wallace Philpot and Mrs. Vivian Boedeker.

The meeting was spent practicing the Extension Club Song. Mrs. Merle Rogoas served as accompanist.

Several members are planning on going on the County Club Tour.

The meeting was adjourned after which the club honored Mrs. John Joachim with a pink and blue shower. The honoree received many lovely and useful gifts.

The hostesses for the next meeting will be Mrs. Otto Schaefer and Mrs. Harold Vogeler. Delicious lunch was served by the hostesses.—Mrs. Vernon Dettmer News Reporter.

Schneider Family Back From Outing

Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Schneider and son, Ronnie, returned home Thursday evening from a pleasant two weeks outing spent in the east where they enjoyed touring a great many places of historic interest, as well as the national capital city, Washington, D. C.

They left Plattsmouth traveling through Kansas City, Missouri, to St. Louis, Missouri, where they had short sight seeing trips. Their route took them through Ohio and West Virginia to Washington.

The city of Washington took several days in sightseeing, they looked over the various points of interest that included a trip to the national capital, where they had the pleasure of seeing the House of Representatives and Senate, or rather seeing the few that were present, at the sessions. They were unable to see Senator Wherry and other of the Nebraska representatives.

Leaving Washington they drove to Niagara Falls, viewing this world famous fall and its surroundings, being there to enjoy the night display of the falls. They motored through Canada for a short distance between the Falls and Detroit, where they enjoyed a stay at the P. H. Murdock home, renewing acquaintances with Mr. Murdock and wife, the former Helen Westcott, where "Tad" and Ronnie had a very pleasant visit. At Grand Haven they witnessed the celebration of the Coast Guard anniversary, a lavish fireworks display and programs. They witnessed the display from the deck of the large Great Lakes ice breaker. They were guests on the ice breaker. The meeting at Detroit and Chicago that were a great treat, Detroit lost both games.

Mary Todd Attends Church Conference
Young people from six states in the mid-west representing various Protestant denominations are attending the sixteenth Annual Planning Conference of the Rocky Mountain region at Estes Park from August 6 to 12. Our community is represented at the conference by Mary Todd, Union, Nebraska.

The meeting is sponsored by the United Christian Youth Movement in which thirty-nine Protestant denominations, thirty-six state councils, and sixteen national youth serving organizations are represented. Seven regional conferences are held in various parts of the United States every summer.

The purpose of the planning conference is to increase cooperation among Protestant young people. The unique feature of this group is the part young people take in planning and directing the program. The camp council composed of twenty young people, elected by the entire group, determine all policies.

Dow Family Group Hold Reunion
Sunday the members of the Dow family from this part of the central west gathered at Hastings, Nebraska, for the family reunion. There was a very large attendance of the members from different sections of Nebraska for the pleasant event.

The picnic dinner was held at the grounds of "The House of Tomorrow" and the day spent in visiting and enjoying the gathering of the relatives.

Attending the reunion from this city were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dow, Cpl. and Mrs. Jack Biegger. Others of the family attending were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dow of Lincoln and Bernard Dow of that city.

BOOT AND SPUR 4-H RIDING CLUB
The Boot and Spur 4-H Riding club held a meeting July 23 at the Plattsmouth Sale Barn, with Jimmy and Marjorie Grosshans as hostesses.

There was a large attendance of both members and visitors. It was decided not to have any more meetings until after the County Fair.

We practiced showing our horses in the stock horse class. We worked especially on figure eights.

Cookies, sandwiches, pop and coffee were served by Mrs. Grosshans.—News Reporter, Janice Wiles.

Married at Court House
Saturday morning at the office of Judge Raymond J. Case at the Court House, the wedding of Nick J. George and Teresa E. Gernand of Omaha was held, the marriage lines being read by Judge Case.

The marriage was witnessed by Lillian Zampec and Stanley W. Prindle of Omaha.

The bridal couple gave their occupations as cook and waitress.

Rex Allen, Radio Star, Visits Here

Rex Allen, star in western pictures for the Republic studios of Hollywood, has been spending the past week in Nebraska, appearing in person at the showing of "Hills of Oklahoma", in which he has the leading role.

The western star opened his personal appearance tour at the Scottsbluff Golden Jubilee since which time he has been seen in many of the Nebraska cities.

While in the state Mr. Allen and family visited with relatives in Cass county. They were at Nehawka to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Linder, parents of Mrs. Allen. Mrs. Allen is a well known radio star in her own right, being a member of the duo Connie and Bonnie of the National Barn Dance program, being the former Bonnie Linder. The party was here the past week to visit with Al Linder, brother of Mrs. Allen and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hobscheid. They had with them their three-year old son, Rex Jr.

Rex has a contract with Republic for a picture a year. Mr. Allen does a CBS radio program every Friday evening which can be heard over station KFAB Lincoln.

In his pictures, Mr. Allen is a rustling, riding, singing cowboy and provides some good entertainment. Those who have seen his pictures comment very favorably as to his ability as an actor.

4-H Clubs Have Fine Program
Miss Pearl Schultz, Cass County Home Extension Agent was a special guest of the 4-H club, Modern Miss, Cass County Cooks, Cass County Canners and Cass County Homemakers Friday afternoon August 4, 1950, at the Ray Schreiner home south west of Nehawka. Judy Schreiner and Evelyn Thorne were hostesses.

Judging was the event of the day. Miss Schultz assisted all clubs in judging classes. The cooking club is very grateful to those who baked bread and rolls: Mrs. Victor Ross, Mrs. Oren Johnson, Mrs. F. O. Sand, Mrs. Wilmer Harshman and Mrs. Dan Anderson.

Miss Schultz also had the kits from the State Office. Much valuable information and help was given from the samples and finished articles.

"My Idea of a 4-H Girl" recipes prepared, material for a comfort protector and 5 fruits or 5 vegetables for a good exhibit.

Plans were made for Achievement at the Methodist church August 16. The girls are very busy trying to complete their projects before County Fair.

Peggy Sand and Marjorie Whipple will demonstrate—Canning, Marilyn Whipple, in cooking, Norma Fordin Cooking and Caryl Sylvester in Dairy Foods.

Several girls plan to judge and all will exhibit. All clothing girls will enter the Style Revue.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses and Mrs. Schreiner. Mrs. F. O. Sand was a guest.

Margaret Knabe, told of a very interesting trip to Springfield, Illinois where the family attended a Hampshire meeting.

Wilkens-Owen Wedding Held At De Witt

NEHAWKA—(Special to Journal)—Miss Marilyn Wilkens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilkens, DeWitt, became the bride of Lawrence M. Owen, son of Dr. and Mrs. Owen, Lincoln, at 7 o'clock Sunday evening, August 6 at the Methodist church at DeWitt. The church was decorated with candelabra and baskets of summer flowers. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Carl W. Wilkens. Her gown was of white marquisette with an off the shoulder line, fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and full skirt with a long train. Her full length veil of illusion was held in place by a halo of pleated net. She carried white carnations centered with a white orchid.

The maid of honor was Mrs. Bruce McCallum, Wauneta, Nebr., sister of the bride. She and the bridesmaids wore identically styled dresses, floor length, with head bands and gloves to match. Douglas Bruce McCallum, nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

A reception for two hundred guests was given by the bride's parents at the Episcopal parish house immediately following the ceremony. Aunts of the bride, Mrs. Nelson Berger, Nehawka; Miss Allegra Wilkens, Mrs. Will F. Dankroeger, Lincoln, assisted with the serving.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and received her degree in home economics in June.

The groom received his degree in business administration at the university in July.

After a wedding trip they will be at home at Lincoln where the groom has accepted a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Berger of Nehawka were among the out of town guests.
