Mr. and Mrs. Jack Philpot left Saturday for Fort Scott, Kansas where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Elgaard and family. Virginia, who has been with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Elgaard, will return here with her brother and wife.
Major and Mrs. Marvin Hunt and family left Monday for Dayton, Ohio, where they will go apartment hunting. Major Hunt is to be stationed at Wright Field. They are planning to return here for a short visit before settling down in their new home.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Patterson were hosts to a family dinner last Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Rector and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. LaNeil Patterson and family and Mrs. David Patterson were their guests.
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elliott and family returned here last Sunday after a very pleasant vacation stay at the Y. M. C. A. Camp near Boone, Iowa. Before returning here they visited at Winside with a sister and her husband and with Mr. Elliott's mother in Omaha.
Mrs. Elvira Bussell and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson and Jean spent Sunday at the Sigvald Jensen home and enjoyed celebrating their sister Freda's birthday. They came to spend the day and extend greetings.
Mr. and Mrs. Willis Lonson and family returned here last Sunday following a vacation trip through Wyoming and other points west. A visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Young, former Weeping Water residents, was enjoyed.
Our Fourth of July week end good deed turned out to be a boomerang. The little tan and white dog that we rescued from his tormentors who would throw fire crackers at him and who we let sleep in the house because he was so exhausted from running away from them, left us a batch of fleas, to entertain us. So—we got out our remedy—moth crystals—and put the little pests on the "jump" somewhere else.
Mrs. Floyd Hite was pinch hitting for Mrs. Charles Evers while the latter was away on vacation.
Mrs. Aura Mae Keckler drove to Columbus Sunday where she attended a meeting for postal employees.
Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hinds and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Elgaard of Ft. Scott, Kansas, drove to Lincoln last Friday evening to celebrate the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hinds at the home of their son, Major and Mrs. Harold Hinds.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Porter returned here Monday from a short vacation trip to Missouri. Last Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Albrecht and Mrs. John Anderson of Lincoln were visiting with their former Lincoln friend, Mrs. Clifford Jones. Mrs. Jones has been staying at the home of her husband's parents for several weeks.
Mrs. Fred Gorder is here at her home for several weeks. Mrs. Pearl Vette is staying with her. Mrs. G. E. Gambill of Birmingham, Alabama, left Friday after a two week's visit here with her sister, Mrs. D. O. Dwyer.
Mr. and Mrs. Sigvald Jensen drove to Omaha last Monday, where he took electrical appliances which were damaged and covered with the muddy waters of last spring's flood.
Janet Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Cook of Nehawka was the initiate at the Rain Bow meeting held last Tuesday evening. During the business meeting plans for a Cass county fair fleet were discussed. Eleanor Lindsey, worthy advisor, will head the committee for the fleet.
Major and Mrs. Harold Hinds and son, Tommy of Lincoln, were here for a short time Monday with Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hinds. Major Hinds was called to Offutt Field that same day, while Mrs. Hinds remained here for a week's visit.
Mrs. L. B. Gorthey of Murdock and Mrs. Jack Majoram of Lincoln were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones on Wednesday of last week.
A meeting was held by the athletic finance committees last Tuesday evening.
Dr. and Mrs. L. N. Kunkel entertained last Thursday evening at dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Noble and girls, Mrs. Estella Huff, Mr. and Mrs. John Krogh and family of Brooklyn, New York, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roberts and Wendell Cole.
Mrs. Arthur Berthold was honoree of the Birthday club last Friday evening when nine members arrived to help her celebrate at a picnic supper. Later on canasta was played with Mrs. Sterling Amick scoring for high and Mrs. Dwight Hays talking for low scores.
Charles V. Wallick and S. J. Marshall drove to Ralston Sunday to contact Howard Phelps on matters of business.
The United Missionary church camp meeting is well under way. Starting August 17th through August 27th, young people's meetings are to be held daily at 10 a. m. with evangelistic meetings each evening at 7:30. Children's meetings are scheduled daily for 9:30 every morning.
On missionary day, speakers will include the present pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. O. L. Traub, and Miss Nellie Young, all three missionaries on furlough from Nigeria, West Africa. Preaching services each morning at 11 o'clock and at 3 o'clock each afternoon are also slated. Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Meredith, youthful evangelists, of Wichita, Kansas, will have charge of the singing services.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunt were hosts to a family reunion last Sunday when 45 of their relatives were present for a picnic dinner and supper. Colored pictures were shown of the overseas places seen and visited by Major and Mrs. Marvin Hunt and family. Those present to enjoy the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Pollard of Seymour, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Louie Amick of St. Louis, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. John Truman, Ruth and Delwin of Bristol, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tilson and children of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Hunt of Elmwood; Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Coolman and children, Mrs. Minerva Coolman and Earl Amick, all of Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Underhill and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Childers, all of Lincoln; Mrs. Jean McGill of Center, and Mrs. Kathryn Richardson of Council Bluffs. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Amick stayed over the week end, leaving Monday for their home in St. Louis. The rest of the family left for their homes on Sunday.
Mr. D. O. Dwyer returned here Monday night from Colorado where he spent a most enjoyable vacation.
Rev. and Mrs. John C. Pryor returned here last Thursday from a three weeks vacation in Chautauque, New York. They both report a most enjoyable and profitable time while there.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Marion Stone accompanied Mr. and Mrs. D. D.

Wainscott of Lincoln on a vacation trip. Susan is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bickford of Lincoln during her parents' absence.
Fishing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Minium recently was Mr. Minium's daughter, Mrs. Carl Campbell of Phillipsburg, Kansas.
Miss LaVonne Lühring left last Thursday for a short stay with Hanover, Kansas relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Lühring and Roger drove to Hanover Friday for the week end.
Mr. Walter Roberts and Carroll Roberts were Lincoln motorists last Thursday afternoon.
Neil Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rice was here last Sunday for the day with the folks. On Thursday he left for California for Naval Air Reserve Training. Rice, a University student, has been employed by the Bankers Life Insurance company on part time duty during the school year. This summer he has been working full time.
Mrs. Eunice Applegate and Rickey were joined by Mrs. Deles Denier and Miss Lorene Applegate of Plattsmouth on the early start west for a trip to attend the Clyde Beatty Circus. Rickey's uncle, J. A. Applegate is the boss of the circus. I imagine that Rickey had a swell time.
Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Domingo are vacationing in the west, en route to Hardin, Montana where they will visit with Mr. John Swindle and a daughter.
Miss Mildred Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith has entered training at the University Hospital in Omaha.
Charles Hugh Thompson of Albuquerque, who has been here visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh T. Hagan left for Omaha Monday where his parents have been for several weeks. Thompson Sr. has been seriously ill for some time in an Omaha hospital but has recovered sufficiently so that she is leaving for New Mexico with her son and family to make her home there.

Mrs. Alice Whitcomb and Miss Laura Whitcomb of Norfolk came last Sunday bringing with them, Miss Ruth Whitcomb of Wisner. The latter remained here for a week's stay with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Meeske, her uncle and aunt.
Miss Caroline Kunkel left Friday for St. Louis, Missouri for a visit with her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Gerald M. Kunkel. Jerry Joyce and Richard Keckler left Thursday for a motor trip to Iowa, which will include a stop at Omaha and Lake Okoboji where Dale Gray and Lanny Ludwick have pitched their tents, after making a motor scooter trip there.
