No services are to be held at the E. U. B. churches in this vicinity on Sunday, August 20, as so many are in attendance at the assembly camp program at Milford. This is an annual meeting that is much enjoyed and with benefits.

Hold Observance

It was a memorable birthday party that was held at the Methodist church Friday, August 11, celebrating the tenth anniversary of the year of the beginning of the Woman's Society of Christian Service in 1940.

The Eagle and Elmwood groups met at the Elmwood Methodist church, the guests bringing a beautiful birthday cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Virgil Bishop.

The event was in line with a chain visitation plan sponsored by the national headquarters for this division of service. Elmwood is invited to Alvo on August 30. The president, Mrs. Arlo Pratt, was in the chair and Mrs. Guy Clements was acting secretary.

Mrs. Joy Miller presented devotional on the subject, "The Pillars of the Church."

Mrs. Wm. Brunkow, assisted by Mrs. Douglas, gave the lesson on "Christian Living in Many Lands." Since the theme was the church and missions, the spiritual life leader had decorated the worship center with a picture of Christ and the miniature church made at the vacation Bible school.

Appropriately the status of woman reporter, Mrs. Plybon, used as "Woman of the Month," Mrs. D. T. Miles, who started vacation Bible schools. She, the young wife of a Methodist minister, began in 1894 in her back yard with a class of 37 boys and girls in this important mission at Hopedale, Illinois. Over 100,000 schools are now held throughout the world.

The special numbers were two piano solos by Joyce Miller (her mother and two grandmothers being listeners), and two readings by Mrs. Parsell.

The main program feature was the candle lighting service. Ten executive members from each circle gave points about their work with questions and answers. If the goal had been reached a candle was lit. All but one of the ten were glowing. The eleventh candle to grow on a large one was lit by Elmwood president, Mrs. Wm. Muenchen is president at Eagle.

Mrs. Ruth Monning served as social chairman. There was a large lace covered table and Mrs. Grace Blessing poured. The birthday cake was served as dessert. Members of the ten groups paired together, largely to become acquainted. The room was decorated with several bouquets.

No. 1—New Homes Toured: Approximately 325 homemakers and visitors attended the new home tour sponsored by the Home Extension Clubs of Cass County. The planning committee consisted to Home Agent, County Chairman, Mrs. Jesse Westlake and group chairmen, Mrs. W. E. Nickle, Eagle; Mrs. Herbert Oehlerking, Elmwood; Mrs. A. J. Toole, Murdock; Mrs. Elmer Johnson, Louisville; Mrs. George Tompliff, Plattsmouth; Mrs. Roy Comstock, Greenwood and Mrs. George Kime, Nehawka.

The following homes were visited: Herbert Oehlerking, Donald Fredenburg, Everett Brockman and Jesse Westlake of Elmwood and Joe Vickers of Alvo.

The special features were front door entrance with extended roofs for protection. Entry ways with built-in closets for wraps. The combination of living and dining made a most spacious room. Picture windows with beautiful scenery, color harmonies in draperies, floor coverings and furnishing were greatly admired and especially appreciated after our Floor Coverings Demonstration lesson from last spring. Storage space in hallways, bathroom, bedrooms and kitchens demonstrated a good use of space. Arrangements of kitchens and utility rooms for convenience and family needs were functional. The individual preference of built-in and steel cupboards, arrangement of equipment and circulation of traffic were emphasized. The U and I shaped kitchens were well planned. Convenient heights of working space for the homemaker was very outstanding especially for the short and medium height of the omemaker. Back entrance with clean-up space and outer clothing closets were arranged for conveniences especially for the man of the house.

Basements were planned for storage of canned fruits and vegetables. Laundry rooms with interior drying facilities during winter months were useful for the homemaker. The recreational rooms were the last feature in the building program. None were completed.

The homemakers wish to extend a sincere thanks to those who planned the tour and homebuilders for the opportunity we've had in seeing the new homes of today. — Pearl L. Schultz, Home Extension Agent.

IMPERIAL...is the word for it!

"Imperial," says Webster, means "superior excellence." IMPERIAL, says Chrysler, is this luxurious new car that excels anything on wheels in the sheer exquisiteness of its styling. Come look inside this reigning beauty . . . look at the lavish wool broadcloth fabrics, tastefully combined with topgrain leathers. Look at the lovely color harmonies, the soft sheen of the butler-finished chrome. Consider the advantages of Fluid Drive . . . exclusive new automatic transmission . . . Waterproof Ignition . . . Full Flow Oil Filter . . . High Compression Spiffire Engine . . . electric window lifts . . . the CLEARBAC rear window for exceptional driver vision . . . and dozens more. Surely, of all the world's fine automobiles, only the Chrysler CROWN IMPERIAL, this car's running mate, achieves the same aristocratic distinction. Come see the flawless workmanship, the fine materials, the superb Chrysler engineering . . . and you'll agree that no other car, at any price, compares with the Chrysler IMPERIAL. Inside or out, there is no finer car in America!

ONLY THE CHRYSLER IMPERIAL offers you this absolutely unique system of window control! Each window has its own separate electric motor . . . each one can be raised and lowered independently from the driver's seat or at the window itself. And that's not all! So many other de luxe features . . . the kind you think of as being in the "special order, extra cost" category . . . are STANDARD EQUIPMENT on the Chrysler Imperial. For example: armrests on all four doors . . . foam rubber seat cushions and seat backs . . . double-width center armrests in front as well as rear seats . . . stainless steel wheel covers . . . white sidewall low-pressure tires . . . carpeted luggage compartment! Full flow oil filter and many other engine features! Yes, you get all these extras as standard equipment with your beautiful new Chrysler Imperial.

Inside and out . . . it has no equal at any price . . .
