Lewiston Social Circle Meeting

The Lewiston Social Circle club met at the home of Mrs. Jess Jorgensen with Mrs. Henry Hobscheidt and Mrs. Wayne Jorgensen as assistant hostesses.

The meeting was called to order by the president, roll call and business was soon disposed of and lessons started. Because of bad roads last month a double lesson was given. Mrs. Henry Comer gave lesson on "Hay Fever Weed." Mrs. Ray Creamer gave lesson on "Unesco." These lessons were very much enjoyed by all and many thanks to the ladies for their excellent work.

A shower was given at this meeting for Mrs. Keith Hostetter and Mrs. Jess Jorgensen. A delicious lunch of ice cream and cake was served by the hostess. The dime cake was cut which Mrs. Bruce made and Mrs. Keith Hostetter received the dime in her piece of cake, so will bake the next cake. At a late hour all left for home, having enjoyed the afternoon very much. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Harry Gobelman with Mrs. Elmer Pike as assistant hostess.—Reporter.

Very Pleasant Surprise Given

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ferrie of near this city was given a very pleasant surprise on Friday when Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Ferrie and daughters Evelyn, Peggy and Patricia, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa arrived for a short visit. This was the first time that Mr. E. J. Ferrie had had the pleasure of a visit with his younger brother for twenty-three years. The visitors with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Young People Married Here On Saturday

In a 4:00 o'clock ceremony on Saturday, August 19, 1950, at the Presbyterian Manse, Plattsmouth, Mildred Fischer of this city, and Richard James Henningsen of Bellevue, were united in marriage by Dr. H. G. McClusky. Helen E. Smetana and David M. Clifford, also of this city, served as attendants.

The bride chose for her wedding a street length sky-blue silk dress with full circular skirt, a black straw hat with red rosebud trim and small veil, and black accessories. She wore a corsage of American Beauty red roses.

The bridesmaid wore a street length steel blue dress with pleated skirt, black straw hat with pink rosebuds, a veil and black accessories. Her corsage was pink roses. Her corgage was pink roses. Her corgage was pink roses.

The groom and his attendant were attired in brown and blue striped business suits respectively.

The ceremony was attended by the bride's mother, Mrs. Barbara Dvoracek of this city, and Mrs. H. G. McClusky.

The couple were honored at a 8:30 buffet dinner at the bride's home attended by 42 relatives and close friends of the bridal party. Serving was in charge of Mrs. David M. Clifford and Mrs. Frank Slatinsky. Bouquets of salmon pink gladioli were used in the decorative scheme throughout the home.

The bride is a native of Plattsmouth, graduating from the Plattsmouth high school and later an Omaha business college. During World War II she was employed by the government as Cass county's chief price clerk from 1943-1944, later was promoted to chief clerk of the Sarpy county war price and ration board, where she served until dissolution of same and then transferred to the Omaha district office where she worked during its existence. At present she is secretary to the credit manager of the Western Newspaper Union in Omaha.

Mr. Henningsen was born in Bellevue where he has since resided. He attended Bellevue schools, graduating from the high school there. He was employed at the railroad yards in Omaha as its keeper until he joined the U. S. army, where he served 42 months, 20 months of which was spent overseas. He won several honors, including the good conduct ribbon, five battle stars and the bronze star. At present he is an employee of the Wilson Packing Company of Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Henningsen departed on a short trip following which they will be at home at 222 North 13th St., Plattsmouth.

Herb Schuetz Enjoy Outing

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Schuetz returned home Tuesday from a trip to the west covering some 5,000 miles, taking them through a large part of the country. They left this city for St. Louis where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Lohnes for a few days. They found the old friends enjoying good health. Mr. Lohnes being well over his sickness of several months ago.

From the Missouri city they headed west to the Pacific coast where they enjoyed visits with friends, being with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard for a few days. Their trip included a journey into old Mexico and the many places of interest in that part of the coast.

During their absence in the west the Wimpy's Inn has been in charge of Coach Merle Stewart and Jon Schuetz a son, to look after the needs of the patrons.

Returns from Outing Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Cloldt and daughter, Miss Maxine, returned home Wednesday evening from a short outing in the lake country of Minnesota, they being at East Battle Lake where they have a cottage during the summer season.

While at East Battle Lake Mr. Cloldt made up his Rotary attendance at Fergus Falls, Minnesota, enjoyed very much meeting Rotarians from many sections who were vacationing in the lake country. The Cloldts also had the pleasure of meeting Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fricke of Ashland, who are at Alexandria, Minnesota, enjoying the fishing.

Enjoy Visiting With Relatives

Alba Young, who is visiting in this section of Nebraska with his relatives, has found the time most pleasant in enjoying the homes of the members of his family. In addition to the members of the David Young family he has enjoyed a visit with his nephew, Francis Cook and family south of this city and with his niece, Mrs. Nita Kroll and daughter at Omaha. These families are his closest relatives in this part of Nebraska.
