Virgil Perry Family Has Very Fine Trip

The Virgil Perry family have had an interesting summer. The middle of July Mr. and Mrs. Perry and Nancy Ellen left for a three weeks trip to the southwestern part of the country. They spent a week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon Riddle and family at Raton, New Mexico. Mrs. Riddle is Mrs. Perry's cousin and will be remembered by many here as Kathryn Windham, a sister, Miss Hermia Windham, still resides here in Plattsmouth.

The Perry's found Raton and the surrounding country very interesting. Mr. and Mrs. Riddle showed them many places of historical importance as Mr. Riddle is an authority on the old Santa Fe Trail, having just published his second book on the subject.

After leaving Raton they traveled on down to New Mexico visiting a number of Presbyterian Mission schools, hospitals and churches in Dixon, Santa Fe and Albuquerque where the church serves the Spanish speaking people. From there they drove to Phoenix, Arizona, spending the week end in that famous Presbyterian mission that is located in the heart of the Navajo Indian territory and includes a fine class A hospital, school, high school, commissary, dormitories, shop and so on—a little city in itself.

On their return trip they visited the Mesa Verde National Park, Royal Gorge and had a pleasant stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McCord, former residents of Plattsmouth, who now live in Canon City, Colorado.

They came through Nebraska via Lake McConaughy and enjoyed short visits with Mr. Perry's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Verner Perry at Big Springs and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cole at Brule.

At Cozad they drove over to the new Methodist conference camp and surprised Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Williams and Mary Ellen who have just moved to Big Springs and were helping at Camp Comoco at that time. They went by Johnson's Lake at Lexington and Arapahoe where they stopped to visit Chas. A. Patterson, Mrs. Perry's uncle.

Soon after their return to Plattsmouth Elizabeth and Nancy Ellen left with Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Minor and family for a ten day visit in Kankakee, Illinois at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Minor.

This past week end Elizabeth entertained a number of her Tarkio College friends.

The guests were Dean Morrison and Lowell Morrill of Kansas City, Margaret Adams, Red Oak, Tom Magill, Atlantic, Dick Mulder, Reinbeck, Iowa, Dale Morrison of Burchard, Nebraska and James Graigmile now of this city.

YOUNG SOLDIER HONORED

Memorial Is Dedicated Sunday

love of country and in service. Mrs. J. E. Dvorak of Sioux City, national chairman of the Blue Star memorial highway, told of the history and purpose of the movement.

Mrs. Edward Berlett and Mrs. George Swingle spoke of the designation of highway No. 75 as the memorial highway by the Nebraska legislature.

Mrs. William Parkinson of Denver, president of the Rocky Mountain area of the Garden clubs, was presented for a few remarks on the fine work of the clubs in this patriotic move of highway marking.

The unveiling of the memorial was carried out by Mrs. Philip Leperet and Mrs. Alpha Muncie, whose sons had been taken in their service to their country. Remarks were made by Dale Bowman, commander of the Leperet-Wolever post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Mrs. Sophia Wolske, president of the V. F. W. Auxiliary, Mrs. Charles Janacek, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, Ira Johnson, who had done the masonry work for the memorial was also presented.

The quartet composed of Don Cotner, Orville Nielsen, Bill Knorr and Darrell Sorensen, gave the selection, "My Buddies". The program was closed with the benediction by Rev. Harold Mitchell.

A reception was held at the Hotel Plattsmouth following the program. Miss Phyllis Bourck vocalist, gave several numbers during the reception where a large number of the residents called to pay their respects to the distinguished visitors.

Funeral of G. J. Winscot Friday

Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock services were held at the chapel of the Caldwell funeral home, 7th and Avenue B for George J. Winscot, long time resident of Plattsmouth.

There were a large number of the old friends and neighbors in attendance at the services to pay their last tributes to his memory.

Rev. George D. Swiney, pastor of the First Christian church, had charge of the services and brought a message of comfort to the bereaved family.

During the service Raymond C. Cook and three of the numbers that were favorites of the departed, "Under His Wing", "Face to Face", and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye". Mrs. Roy O. Cole served as the accompanist.

Casket bearers were William G. Highfield, Harvey Bruns, Ray Smock, Sterling Sand, Richard Beverage, John Glaze.

The burial was at the Horning cemetery south of this city.

Enjoy Trip to West Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cottingham and mother, Mrs. Ollie Atkinson, have just returned from a two weeks trip. The party made their trip west by stopping at Billings, Montana, to visit a brother, Finis Atkinson, who resides near that city, then to Idaho to visit an aunt. They then drove to Oakland, California, to see another brother who works in a glass factory. The party then took the coastline drive to San Diego to visit with a sister of Mrs. Cottingham. The route home was through the south and found to be very warm and they were happy to get back to old Nebraska.

Return from Minnesota

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gorton and children, who have been enjoying a two weeks vacation in Minnesota have returned home. They enjoyed fishing in Rush Lake, Minnesota near Otertail, where they resided at the camp maintained by Gus Weiss, formerly of this city. They also took a trip to Bemidji, Minnesota at the many places of interest in that part of northern Minnesota. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gorton, of Omaha, the former a brother of Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gorton of Otoe, Nebraska.
