CASS COUNTY'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

THE PLATTSMOUTH JOURNAL

Largest Paid Circulation of All Cass County Newspapers

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY

Nebr. State Historical Soc. State Capitol Bldg.

VOLUME 65

FOURTEEN PAGES

PLATTSMOUTH, CASS COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1950

FIVE CENTS PER COPY

NUMBER 83

Crown New King and Queen of 1950 King Korn Karnival

United Nations Theme Adds Color To Korn Karnival Ceremonies

Traffic Signs Asked for Street Crossing Use

Monday evening was streamlined for business and over in a short time. All hands were present when Mayor Woster called the thing possible to maintain the body to order and the matters tradition of wholesome and encoming before the body soon set-from the League of Nebraska out the nation. at North Platte on September one is eligible to membership 19th to 21st inclusive. There upon payment of a small memwere none of the city officials bership due. We know that many mont and the southwest part of King Korn Karnival and suggest stop and go signs be placed on the King Korn Klub. Chicago avenue at 4th or 5th kindergarten cross the streets carnival possible. before the older students are out of school which creates a ment to point out the highlights

It was suggested by Mayor Woster that regardless whether and starting at 12:15 with a signs were placed or not he fa- concert by the Nebraska City vored the continuance of the Safety Patrol of the school, a group of the older boys and girls farmers' parade, featuring floats that are out in the morning. at noon and afternoon to pro- sented on Main street: followtect the crossing for the small ing the parade, the Cass County children. It was the opinion Saddle Horse Association will that the patrol did a good serv- present its famous Horse Show ice and should be continued in at the Memorial Athletic Field.

any changes made. the mayor and members of the and early evening, as you will streets, alleys and bridges com- note from the printed programs. mittee to secure cost prices on and at 8:00 o'clock tomorrow automatic signs, their installa- night the evening horse show. tion and report at the next with a complete change of meeting of the council.

Complaint was received of the parking situation on Seventh rural school and kiddles parade street where the no parking at 2:00 o'clock and the mer-(Continued on Page Six)

Committees Of 1950 Coronation

The members of the various committees of the American Legion Auxiliary that made pos- your time sible the splendid success of the karnival were:

Chairmen, Mrs. Don Warga, Mrs. Beatrice Brothers Princesses - Mrs. Karl Grasshans, Mrs. Kenneth Schmitt. Platform and Street - Mrs. Laveta Baumgart, Mrs. Kenneth Dunlan Mrs. Charles Janecek-Pages - Mrs. Louis Baumpart, Mrs. Mae Favors. Mrs. Bill Williamson, Mrs. Glen McClure. Flower Girls, Crown Bearers. Train Bearers - Miss Shirley Jacobs, Miss Alice Javne Grosshans, Mrs. Russell Nielsen, Mrs. Landen, Leora Landon vs. George E. Stewart, et al. The Mary Nelson:

Hussars - Mrs. Jean Lockin. Parade Chairman - Mrs. Adrian Newens. Reception Committee - Mr.

and Mrs. Richard Peck, Mr. and Mrs. James Begley.

Sgt. LeRoy Covert In War Zone

if reasonable partition is im-Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Covert of this city received a letter possible, that the land be sold Tuesday from their son. Leroy at partition sale. Covert, who is with the 84th | In the county court Wednesdivision of army engineers. He stated that he had landed mond J. Case was called upon estate attended the hearing. at Pusan in Korea. August 30th, to perform the wedding service was there for a few days then for Wanda Lee Pierce and Cecli moved on to another station. Robert McCollum of this city. Subscribe to The Journal! will be $ tributed.

Preview to the coronation was given by Walter H. Smith, county attorney, past king, for sev-eral years the announcer of King Korn Karnivals.

"Good evening, ladies and gentlemen and boys and girls of King Korn land.

"The King Korn Klub and the people of Plattsmouth are privicity council meeting leged to welcome you to the 1950 King Korn Karnival. We assure you that tonight, and for the next two days, we will do everyjoyable entertainment for which the King Korn Karnival has be-A communication was received come known to people through-Municipalities announcing that "The King Korn Klub is a volthe state convention would meet untary organization and everythat were in a mood to attend. of you would derive a satisfac-Petitions were received by the tion in knowing that you have council from residents in Oak- had a part in sponsoring the the city, asking that automatic that you become a member of "The president this year is avenue. This was asked as a Ronald R. Furse, the publisher safety measure for the school of the Plattsmouth Journal, and children, most of them in the he has given generously of his kindergarten or first and second time to make this year's coronagrades. It was pointed out by, tion and carnival successful, and Don J. Arundel, spokesman for if it merits your approval full the petitioners, that the situa- credit should be given to Mr. tion there was dangerous and Furse and the members of his needed the signs as a safety committees whose time and measure. Children from the planning have made this year's

"We would like to take a moof the coming festivities.

"Tomorrow is Farmers' Day, band, the day promises to be a full one. At 1:00 o'clock the horses and bands will be pre-There will be other events on The matter was referred to the street during the afternoon events, will begin,

"Friday is parade day, with chants parade at 7:00 o'clock. Following the parade the high stepping Iroquois Lodge drum & bugle corps of Omaha present their exhibition, and to climax Judge at 4-H the evening, a concert by the Schmoller & Mueller giant ac- Calf Show cordion band will be presented.

(Continued on Page 4)

A suit in partition was filed in #

Landon, Lulu Landon, Henry Thelma Krugerquarter of the

the office of the clerk of the northeast quarter of section 18.

township twelve, range 9, east of the 6th p. m. in Cass county, Nebraska. It is asked that the heirs of the estate be confirmed in the parties in the suit, that partition be had of the land.

1950.

King Clem Woster and Queen Marilyn Schafer

-Photo by Chriswiser

slice Bacon is 45 cents a pound

Of Hinky-Dinky

Error in Ad

Court House Briefs . .

district court on Thursday The wedding was witnessed by seized of the trix of the estate.

"We suggest that you carry a printed program with you and mark the time of the other entertainment and well worth avenue. Judging started at 9:30 attention also to the exhibits. Livestock Feeders Association at The Corn Show is on 4th street, the platform this evening at had in the estate of Henrietta

Landon, deceased. E. A. Landon, executor and Claude Lutton, Jr.,

Children to mark the time of the other judge at the 4-H Baby Beef events because they are all good show at the tent on Chicago Friday afternoon of the King The presentation of the awards Korn Karnival will be devoted

Schools and at the nlatform.

At 2 o'clock will be held the pledges. parade, expected to be one of the largest of the Karnival. The Plattsmouth city schools as well as the rural schools of Cass At King Korn Show morning entitled Emmett A. Josephine Jenkins and Miss county will participate. Many very fine floats have been made that will be seen in the line of In the county court Tuesday march, final hearing was held in the petition sets forth that Hen- estate of Ralph Shreve, deceased. Audrey Dow Biegger, in charge In addition to the floats Mrs. letta Landon died on January Felia Shreve is the administra- of the kiddies section of the parade, expects to have a very large mittee. Tuesday in the county court number of children, pets and marriage license was issued to vehicles in this section of the Clarence Miller Hurst, son of parade. In the county court Wednes- $4 fee for entering. day morning final hearing was

For the children participating tive of Cass county there will be first, second and third place ribbons given, and all children will receive a free day noon County Judge Ray- of Ashland, attorney for the popsicle nad a ride on the devices on the midway. For the comic character section there will be $10 in cash prizes dis-tending the University of Ne- public is called to an error approving the road with county braska this fall as freshmen are pearing in another section of money and matching federal among the pledges announced the Journal. by the fraternities at Lincoln this week.

Local Boys in U. of N. Pledges

Dick Huebner is announced as instead of 54 as appears in the "We would like to call your will be made by the Cass County to the youngsters of Platts- a pledge of Beta Sigma Psi. ad. muoth and Cass county. The Sigma Chi, long a favorite of program of the day begins with Plattsmouth students at Linthe cincert by the Tabor Iowa coln, has listed two of the local high school band at 1 o'clock boys, Carl Ofe of this city and Allan Carper of Murray as

Miss Norma Ford, "Miss Cass County" selected at the county fair at Weeping Water, will be in Plattsmouth during the King Korn Karnival it was announced Tuesday by the Karnival com-

Miss Ford was here for the parade on Thursday featuring Farmer's day and will also be Mr and Mrs. L. H. Hurst and In the school parade prizes of in the parade on Friday evening. Margaret Ann Campbell, daugh- $15, $10 and $5 is offered for It is a very great pleasure ter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. first, second and third prizes, for the local boosters to have Each float entered will receive this attractive young lady present as the chosen representa-

> Nehawka girls have been named to head the two leading events of the festival season of

A classified Ad in The Journal costs as little as 35c.

Mayor Clem Woster -Marilyn Schafer Reign At Annual Coronation

Nebraska State Bank Damaged by Mr. and Mrs. Tim Woster. He is 39 years old and his wife is Brakeless Car less car on the loose caused now in the University of Neconsiderable damage to the braska. building occupied by the Ne- Our new king is braska State Bank at Elm and I of the Woster Shoe Store and who is engaged in working at clerk in his second year in car on the street in the business the local high school in 1928 Seeking to avoid a collision with the Business Mens Ad Club, past another car, she was turning secretary of the Rotary Club, a side street, the car got tered, glass being scattered over Volunteer Firemans Associationa block area. The car also He is presently the State Consul large and minor damages to the ident of the local chapter of the

The car of Mrs. Henry was ractically demolished but forunately the driver escaped with only bruises and shock.

an investigation, learned from indicates a wide variety of inthe car owner that she had terests and a willingness to acattempting to turn.

Nehawka Group Visit Governor On Road Work

ness men and residents of the territory north of the town were parents were early Cass County in Lincoln Tuesday to interview Governor Val Peterson and the tate highway department. The delegation desired to disuss any possible plans of the elocation of a secondary high-day leading from the town north to highway No. 1.

Governor Peterson at Lincoln stated that the state highway department was sending engine eers to Nehawka to study the problem of possible re-routing of the road.

Nehawka representatives had old the governor and highway Several of the local boys at- The attention of the buying department of plans for imfunds if the highway is relo-The price of layer packed

A classified Ad in The Jour-

Prize Winner At Ruback's

Pictured above right to left, Mrs. C. J. Rhylander, winner of the pressure cooker given away at the Ruback Super store on fined to her home on South 7th Saturday, September 9th, Howard Ruback, resident manager of the street by a very severe infecstore, and Meyer Ruback, owner of the Ruback Super chain stores. tion of an ear. She has been - Photo by Arrow.

* New king and queen of Kornland were fittingly presented by has gained recognition in her own right as a writer. They Wednesday afternoon a brake- have four daughters, the oldest he has been connected with that Mrs. Ila F. Henry of Lincoln, business since he started as a Weeping Water, was driving her school. He was graduated from section, when seeking to turn and his career since that time from Elm street into I street has been marked by a wide varit was found that the brakes lety of civic and fraternal acon the car were not functioning tivity. He is past president of out of control and crashed into Assistant Chief of the Plattsthe building of the bank on the mouth Volunteer Fire Departcorner. Two large windows in ment and Past President of the the bank building were shat- Southeast Nebraska District crashed into the Wiseman fur-niture store and broke glass in America and a member of one of the National Committees of The loss in glass will be quite that organization. He is Pres-Isaac Walton League and a member of the Chamber of Commerce, the A.F. &A. M. No. 6 and the Eagles Lodge. He is treasurer of the Local Salvation Army Service Committee, and he Sheriff Tom Solomon was not- is in his second term as Mayor fied of the accident and made of Plattsmouth. Even this list found the brakes defective when cept civic responsibility, but we in Plattsmouth know that we are indebted to Clem Woster not only for these qualities but for the constructive and progressive leadership he has brought into these many activities. He typifies the qualities we admire when we look for a candidate for the throne of Kornland "Our new Queen, Marilyn Schafer, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schafer and is twenty years of age. Her grand-residents, the late Mr. and Mrs.

(Continued on Page Four) Friday Night Big Event of

James L. Terryberry and the late Mr and Mrs. Jacob Schafer.

She was born on the farm on which her father was born, and

Friday, closing day of the King Korn Karnival, will be a fitting climax of the annual fall festival as a preview of the pro-gram discloses

Offutt Field will send their military band here for a concert at 6 o'clock on the platform to fittingly usher in the evening of entertainment and

The parade of the merchants and G. I. units will be held at 7 o'clock embracing a large array of floats from local business establishments, also veterans organizations. Bands that are expected to participate are those of Weeping Water. Malvern. Iowa, Syracuse, Plattsmouth, the Iroquois B.P.O.E. of Omaha, al-ways a red hot favorite. In this parade a real musical surprise is promised for the onlookers. The Iroquois group will present a drill and exhibition on the street at 8:30. At 9 o'clock a fine concert is to be offered by the Schmoller & Mueller 43-piece accordian band under the direction of Johnny Swoboda. This will be one of the finest musical offerings in many years of the Kar-

HAS INFECTED EAR

several days