Guests at E. J. Ferrie Home

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ferrie was the scene of a very pleasant family gathering on Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Jack McClusky and three sons of Eugene, Oregon, arrived here on Saturday. They were enroute home from a visit in Illinois and Iowa with relatives.

Mrs. McClusky is a sister of Mrs. Ferrie and this was the first visit the sisters have had in twenty-five years.

Mr. McClusky is an instructor at the University of Oregon at Eugene.

While here the visitors were callers at the Carl Ulrich and Carl Christwiser homes, Mrs. McClusky being a cousin of the ladies.

Plattsmouth People Return

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Sweem and Mrs. W. A. Nord returned Saturday from a very pleasant three weeks vacation on the west coast. They first visited at Seattle, Washington, with a brother of Mr. Sweem, spending a week in that section of the country. Mrs. Nord visited an old friend, there then went to Los Angeles to visit relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Sweem were driven from Seattle to Port Angeles, then down the beautiful redwood highway to San Francisco, where they visited Mrs. Sweem's brother, Glen Hickson and family in Richmond also touring through the bay area. They met Mrs. Nord at Richmond and all returned via the S. P. and U. P. railroads to Omaha.

Engagement Is Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Dalbow announce the engagement of their daughter, Constance Mae, to Richard L. Newville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Newville of Omaha. No date has been set for the wedding.

Enjoy Fine Visit Through Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bryant returned Friday from a three week trip to Mexico City. They were accompanied by Mrs. Edna McWilliams and son Larry of North Platte. Francis McWilliams and wife met them at Brownsville, Texas. They drove 2,500 miles through Mexico by car and found the country very different and most of the peoples way of living very foreign to ours. They spent three days at Acapulco, world famous resort and also visited the pyramids at Teotihuacan which were built by the Aztec Indians centuries before the arrival of the Spaniards in Mexico.

The banana season was on and they were able to observe the picking and shipping of this fruit.

On their return trip they took an airliner from Mexico City back to the border at Brownsville, Texas.

Cullom Busy Bees Meeting

For their first year of club work at the County Fair, the girls made a fine showing in exhibiting some of their sewing they had completed for 1950. The ribbons won were 10 blue, 13 red and 8 white.

In competing in the Song Contest at the fair which had the largest enrollment of entries ever entered at the fair, the Busy Bees won the second blue ribbon for the large group, the quartet, Merna Jean Peterit, Marilyn Stoehr, Patty Todd and Nola Jane Weiss won the 2nd prize.

A beautiful float was made by the help of both of the Busy Bees and Nimble Fingers clubs and entered in the parade at the fair on Thursday evening which took first prize.

The club with the help of their Leaders and parents are planning to make a fine showing this year at the King Korn Carnival.

Reception For Teachers Tuesday Night

Tuesday evening the Central school auditorium was the scene of one of the pleasant social affairs of the school year, that of the reception tendered the new teachers of the school by the board of education and faculty.

Presenting the musical portion of the evening program was Frank A. Clout, veteran retired member of the board of education, well known vocalist. Mr. Clout sang "The Old Refrain" by Kreisler and "One Alone" from "The Desert Song". Mrs. H. G. McClusky was the accompanist.

Members of the party spent the evening at "Dub Bridge", serving to pass the time most pleasantly. In the contest for the men, Herman Tekotter was high with William Floyd, new principal second and Clair Schellenberger, consolation. In the ladies playing Mrs. Zephia Seward won first, Miss Diane Manning, second and Mrs. William Floyd, consolation.

Members of the program committee, Miss Pearl Staats, chairman, Miss Rose Prohaska, Miss Amelia Martens and Miss Clara Weyrich arranged the delightful social evening that introduced all members of the teaching force and the board of education. It was also very pleasant that all members of the faculty and board of education were present with their wives and husbands.

Refreshments were served at an appropriate hour by the committee composed of Miss Naomi Owen, chairman, Merle Stewart, Essie Whalen and Gerald Clayburn.

Junior Women's Club Holds Its Opening Meeting

Monday evening members of the Plattsmouth Junior Women's club held their first meeting of the fall season at the lounge of the Forty and Eight club. There was a very pleasing number of the organization present, members having been asked to bring prospective members with them.

Choosing as their objective for the year, that of the improvement and beautifying of Garfield park, members at once started their plans for this work. Landscaping of the park grounds is one of the aims of the club, also the installing of playground equipment for children. In general the plans will call for the creating of a real summertime resort for the residents of the city.

One of the entertainment features of the meeting was the singing by the Andrews sisters and was very much appreciated by the membership. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by members of the social committee of the club.

CAMPFIRE NOTES

The Wanyeye Camp Fire girls opened their meeting with the Law of the Fire. We wrote a letter to Carol Wilson, who once belonged to our group. She is moving to Minnesota. We also wrote down some honors that we could do. We got our membership card and our Flame. The Camp Fire Girls enjoy Campfire because they have a fine teacher.—Reporter, Alice Hughson.

There are about 20,000 acres of land in the western United States that could be irrigated.

Hinky-Dinky Picnic Proves Great Success

Sunday the Sokol park, near the Platte river, north of Plattsmouth, was the scene of the annual picnic of the staff members of the Hinky-Dinky stores and the employees of this large store system.

The grounds were filled from mid-forenoon until the close of the party in the afternoon, with something doing every minute of the day for both young and old. The picnic opened at 11 o'clock and the boys from the various stores of the system, were busy from early morning in getting the arrangements ready for the day.

The program opened at 2:30 following the refreshments and lunch. Announcement was made of the officers of Hinky-Dinky Employees Association, including Miss Pauline Wilson of this city, named as a director.

Softball horse shoe pitching, games and races provided the entertainment for the day. Many of the local employees from store No. 24 were on the committees that helped make the event such a success. Herb Baumgart was on the kitchen detail from noon to 1 o'clock, with Jack Highfield of store No. 4 serving. Tom Rohan was on the miscellaneous foods committee from 1 to 2, while Art Ofe was helping with the refreshments from 1 to 2 o'clock. Pauline Wilson was chairman of the children's committee from 2 to 3 p. m. Nick Newman of the Omaha office served as the master of ceremonies while Chalm Houghton, editor of the Hinky-Dinky News, was one of the general committee.
