

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER

Paul, World Evangelist
Lesson for September 24: Acts 26: 9-20
Memory Selection: I Corinthians 2: 2

PAUL, native of Tarsus, came of a Jewish family that had acquired Roman citizenship. Well educated and fluent in Greek, which was used throughout the Roman empire, he was admirably fitted to become the Apostle to the Gentiles.

After being set upon in Jerusalem by a Jewish mob, and being sent by Roman authorities to Caesarea for his own safety, he despaired of justice from the Roman governor, and appealed unto Caesar and was eventually sent to Rome. Meanwhile, King Agrippa and Bernice came on a state visit to Festus, who had succeeded Felix as governor. They desired to see Paul and he was brought before them. The lesson text is a part of his defense.

Paul gave a brief history of his life and recounted in full his vision on the Damascus road, when the risen Lord appeared unto him and commissioned him as an Apostle to the Gentiles. And he stoutly maintained that he had not been "disobedient unto the heavenly vision." The world has learned how truly Paul spoke that day.

The first to see Christianity as a world religion, Paul, in the course of several missionary journeys and in his labors in chief cities of the Roman Empire, made Christianity a religion for all men. We are thankful for his great service to mankind. Let us each make sure of redeemed life through the Christ Paul proclaimed.

(Isaiah 55:7)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Man understands spiritual existence in proportion as his treasures of Truth and Love are enlarged. — The aspiration after heavenly good comes even before we discover what belongs to wisdom and Love." Weeping Water
(Opal E. Wallick)

Mrs. Theodore Davis left for Douglas, Wyoming Thursday morning to visit with Mr. and Mrs. George McDonald. Mrs. D. Dwyer took Mrs. Davis to the Omaha Union Station. She expects to be gone until some time in October.

Grade school and high school teachers enjoyed their postponed picnic last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Marion Stone. Fried chicken with all the trimmings made up the menu. Previous plans called for the City Park as the picnic site but was later changed at Mrs. Stone's invitation. A long table set up on their lovely green lawn was quickly filled with platters of fried chicken and soon to be heard, "m-mm isn't this good? Pass the potato salad and baked beans or make mine pickles, etc. Following the picnic those who wished went to the Chief Theater. I was told later that some of them went to Plattsmouth to the King Korn Carnival, but no names were available for this item.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Alton Sterling, John and Dalene were Omaha visitors last Saturday, spending the day there.
Departmental work in the 6th, 7th and 8th grades has been reinstated here this year. Miss Maude Baldwin, 8th grade instructor, will teach geography and art. Mrs. P. H. Hinds, 7th grade, will teach reading, science and health. Mrs. E. W. LaRue, 6th grade, will teach history and English. Each instructor will have her own arithmetic classes. Departmental work is no new thing here, having been used quite successfully for several years, but fell into disuse when some of the newer teachers didn't care to cooperate with the system. It stands to reason that we all have a flair for certain things and teachers are no exception. They excel in some subjects and can introduce them in a more understanding way than others. By using the departmental system each subject can be presented in a more efficient method and will, we hope, produce better grades for the pupils.
According to custom and requirements as set forth by the state health board of Nebraska, examinations were given for vision, hearing and dental defects. Out of 276 pupils enrolled examinations showed a total of 178 defects, of this number dental defects reached the appalling total of 88 pupils needing attention, next was nose and throat with 40 defects reported and 38 with defective vision. This, we would say, is quite alarming and it is hoped that the parents will use the results of these tests and check with their family doctor or dentist for further examinations and see to it that they are corrected.

"The Magic Bean Stalk," which was presented here in the 1940's, has been chosen as the opera for this year, featuring the 6-7-8th grades, with L. A. Malstead directing the musical. The cast is as follows: Jack, Wally Ludwick; the mother, Joan Bender; Gypsy Ann, Susan Stone; Captain Kidd, Larry Wale; Blunderbuss, Roger Lühring; Juliana (a cow), Gary Van Horn and George Wiles; Fool-mess, Gayle Meeske, and announcer, Dale Meisinger. When given before here in the grades the only member of the cast that I have been able to recall was Carl Schomaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schomaker, who played the role of Jack. Can anyone else do better?

Weeping Water public schools enrolled 276 pupils for this year. Kindergarten has 18, 1st grade 23, 2nd grade 23, 3rd grade 14, 4th grade 23, 5th grade 20, 6th grade 18, 7th grade 20, 8th grade 18, in high school 26 freshmen reported, 25 sophomores, 24 juniors and 23 seniors.

Class elections results are as follows: senior class, President, John Domingo; Vice President, Gene Burgen; Secretary, Doris Davis, and Treasurer, Joy Ann Lenker. Class sponsor is Mrs. Reuben Paap. Junior class, President, Lanny Ludwick; Vice President, Terry Bickford; Secretary, Janet Christensen; Treasurer, Mary Domingo. Class sponsor is Mrs. Irma Ekegaard. Sophomore class—President, Elwin Ranney; Vice President, Benjamin Olive; Secretary and Treasurer, John Newham. Class sponsor is Miss Ellen Montross. Freshman class — President, Lloyd Sell; Vice President, Robert Betts; Secretary and Treasurer, Shirley Erhart. Student council members are: seniors, Raymond Rice and Nancy Brown; juniors, Dale Gray and Dorothy Ann Kunkel; sophomores, Carol Ambler and Rodney Knap; freshman, Nancy Stander and Keith Patton. Pep club officers elections resulted in Janet Christensen as president; Vice President as Betty Burgen; Secretary, Dorothy Ann Kunkel; Treasurer, Carol Ambler. Sponsor, Miss Ellen Montross. Superintendent's secretaries for the first semester are the band officer list as president; Richard Keckler as vice president; Secretary, Patty LaRue; Treasurer, Dorothy Ann Kunkel; music librarian, Jarry Meeske; uniform custodian, L. A. Malstead and Janet Christensen.
Mr. Lucius A. Sheldon arrived last Saturday from Sche-necly, New York to visit with his sister, Mrs. C. E. Tefft and other relatives here and near Avoca and Nehawka. While here he will attend to his farm interests.

Mrs. Keith Krecklow is substituting for Miss Fern Davis at the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Company during the latter's absence while on vacation.
Joanne Bender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bender was a tonsilectomy patient last Friday.

Marvin Philpot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Philpot of Garden City, Kansas and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Philpot of Weeping Water entered his academy year at Annapolis Naval Academy in earnest recently.

With the issue of new and different uniforms and the beginning of studies he is really "in". Marvin sits at the table for professional friends, the athletes and musicians table. He speaks of the very severe occurrences of all etiquette and manners and the severity of all requirements laid down for them to observe. His grandmother feels quite sure that Marvin can "take it". In high school Marvin was a devotee of the Drum and Bugle Corps.
Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Waggoner of Grand Coulee, Washington have been here visiting from Omaha, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson held a covered dish dinner in their honor with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jenkins and Mrs. Albert Snell of Murray, Mrs. Jennie Snell, Mrs. Peter Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Grosser and boys Mr. and Mrs. Frank Domingo and family. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Domingo and family and Mr. and Mrs. William Mutter and Douglas Lee as their guests enjoying the occasion with the Waggoners. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Murray Mutter came to greet them. Mr. and Mrs. Waggoner lived here some years ago, occupying at that time the late Mrs. Thomas Murters home. They left here and went to Texas for some time and later moved to Washington where Mr. Waggoner was employed on the Grand Coulee Dam Project from beginning to its finish.

Mrs. N. C. Nielsen (Fannie Easterday) died Thursday, September 14th, 1950 following several years illness at the Rainer Nursing Home. In poor health for sometime and since the death of her husband her condition grew steadily worse. She had maintained her residence on Eldora Avenue aided by Mrs. Ed Parker, who later with Mrs. Nielsen moved to Nebraska City. However Mrs. Nielsen did not stay there long and upon her return here to Weeping Water, following a short stay in her own home, her condition became so that she took residence in the Raines home. Services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Funeral Home with Hobson Funeral Directors in charge. Rev. Harry J. Hart officiated at the service. Charles V. Wallick sang "Rock of Ages" and "In The Garden" accompanied by Miss Maude Moulton. Pallbearers were Eugene Day, Carl E. Day, Theodore Harms, Paul Faunquet, Frank Domingo, and Herman Rauth. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery.

Death came quite suddenly to Sampel J. Baker last Friday at the Raines Nursing Home. Mr. Baker was born in Michigan August 15, 1864 and died September 8, 1950 at the age of 86 years and 23 days. With his family he moved here from Iowa to a farm east of Weeping Water in 1918. His wife Mary E. (Doty) preceded him in death in 1942. A son, Achilles H. Baker survives. Besides several nieces and nephews, funeral services were in charge of Hobson Funeral Home and burial was in Oakwood cemetery.

Roger Bickford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bickford left for Texas and training in the Air Force for six weeks, Monday evening from Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Bickford drove to Omaha that evening to drive Roger's car home.

Duane Burgen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Burgen was to leave Omaha also Monday evening for Texas and service in the Air Force. But Duane lost some papers and had to go to Plattsmouth to have them replaced and didn't get his physical in time to make the trip with Roger. He will leave the following day. Mr. and Mrs. Burgen spent Monday in Omaha with Duane.
