Mynard Farm Bureau Meets

The Mynard unit of the Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Smith on Wednesday evening, Sept. 27. No special program had been planned as reports from the delegates to the convention at Grand Island were to be given and discussion of the coming membership drive was in order. The convention was a meeting for the captains assigned to certain areas for the drive, and their assistants. Reports were given by Richard Cole, who is a captain in this vicinity. Mrs. Richard Cole and Glen Wiles. At the last meeting Roy Cole was elected as president of the unit for the coming year but he felt that he could not fill the office at this time. So Robert Cole was elected.

After the business meeting adjourned the officers selected the committees for the next year. These will be announced later.

Visiting and a delicious lunch concluded the evening.

Riverview Club September Meet

September meeting of the Riverview Club was held at the home of Mrs. Georgia Creamer with Mrs. Oval Snodgrass assisting. After the business meeting an enjoyable time was had by the members on learning who their Pollyanna Friends had been for the year past and drawing for new ones. All members were present but three. Mrs. Lulu Wolfe was a guest.

A delightful luncheon was served by the hostess. The October meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Betty Peterson, with Mrs. Beulah Stappert assisting.

Mrs. Grace Chambers of Denver is here to enjoy a visit with her brothers Roy and Howard Gregg of near Murray.

Young People Married At Elkhorn Church

The Bethany Lutheran church at Elkhorn was the scene Saturday morning at 7:30 of the wedding of Miss Lorna Wulf, daughter of Peter Wulf of Elkhorn, to Richard Meisinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Meisinger of Louisville.

The bride wore a gown of white satin. The yoke and long sleeves were trimmed with seed pearls and the full skirt had a long train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held by a satin tiara with seed pearl trim. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Irwin Blum of Papillion, Nebraska, matron of honor for her sister, was gowned in gold slipper satin and she carried pink gladioli.

Mrs. Joann Bull and Mrs. Gail Meisinger, the latter of Louisville, wore rose and blue satin gowns and carried gladioli bouquets.

Donald Ahl of Louisville was best man. Ushers were Robert Wulf, brother of the bride; Gail Meisinger, brother of the bridegroom; and Wayne Sunds of Omaha.

A reception was held at the parsonage of the church following the wedding service. Mr. and Mrs. Meisinger departed on a wedding trip to California and on their return the couple expect to reside at Louisville.

LEADS IN CLUB WORK

In the list of department heads of the Lincoln Woman's club appearing in the Nebraska State Journal the past week, appeared the picture of Mrs. E. W. Johnson, head of the evening lecture group. Mrs. Johnson will be recalled here by the older residents, as the former Hilda Fahleson. She was born here and made this her home in her girlhood, later moving to Waverly. The members of the family were frequent visitors here at the home of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hallstrom and other old time friends.

Guests At Howard Kennell Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kennell in this city has been the scene of a very pleasant family gathering the past week. C. L. Kennell, uncle of Howard, has been here for a few days visit on his way east from the west where he makes his home. Mr. Kennell is to make a stop in Pickard, Mo., at the home of a brother. H. L. Kennell and family and from there goes to Newport News, Va., where he will visit a sister, Mrs. Rose McGurk.

Mrs. Cecil Berner of Modesto, Calif., a sister of Mrs. Kennell, has also been here and has also visited at Murray with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Eaton.

Return From Trip To Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. White who have been spending the past two weeks on a vacation trip to the west coast, returned home Saturday after a most pleasant stay.

They made the larger part of their visit at Coronado Beach, where their son and daughter-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Allan White are making their home. They were disappointed in not getting to see Lt. White who was on sea duty at Hawaii while they were there.

On their way west they stopped to view the Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico and were delighted with this great natural wonderland to the southwest.

New 4-H Club Is Organized

The first meeting of the Cass County Sheep Club was held at the home of Walter Wiess our leader.

We had election of officers. Five members were present, one for each office. They were: William Wiess, president; Carroll Schmidt, vice-president; Roy Smith, secretary; Mary Schmidt, treasurer; and Nola Jane Wiess, program leader.

We would appreciate more members. The next meeting will be held October 2 at the home of Emil Schmidt, Carroll and Mary's father. —Roy Smith, secretary.
