Charles Jelinek And Wife Visit Old Home Town

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Jelinek of Los Angeles, California, were here Tuesday to enjoy a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Swatek and Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Kalina, as well as at the Don C. York home. Mrs. Swatek and Mrs. Kalina are sisters of Mr. Jelinek and Mr. York a brother of Mrs. Jelinek.

The visitors have been enjoying a real vacation that has taken them over a great deal of the country. They made the trip from California to New Orleans where they had the pleasure of visiting the old French Quarter, a ride on the Mississippi river, viewing the great Long bridge over the river. They then visited at Jacksonville, Florida before turning north. At Washington, D. C. they had a few days, visited the capitol building, the various departments of government, Mt. Vernon and the Washington monument. One of the greatest thrills for Mr. Jelinek was a visit to Alexandria, Virginia where he attended the Masonic lodge of which George Washington had been a member and master.

Philadelphia was another historical spot visited, seeing the Liberty bell, visiting the continental congress, rich in the history of the past. New York City was another always to be remembered places, visited on the trip. Also Times Square with its great white way. In New York they found the night clubs, restaurants, theatres and all places of entertainment crowded. They of course visited the Empire State building and saw many places of interest.

A feature of the trip to Charles was the sea food markets at New Orleans and New York, his business steward on the Union Pacific made this right down the alley for him.

One of the high spots was the trip to Buffalo and Niagara Falls. It had been a long time since their honeymoon, but Charley and Ferris really had a big thrill over this favorite spot of the newlyweds.

At Ft. it was all said and done, Charley says he likes to still measure the width of the walk up high school hill.

ST. PAUL'S GUILD
