The Golden Text is: "O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity." (Hosea 14:1). Other Bible citations include: "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit that we are the children of God." (Romans 8:1,16).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "In divine Science, God and the real man are inseparable as divine Principle and idea. When speaking of God's children, not the children of men, Jesus said, 'The kingdom of God is within you; that is, Truth and Love reign in the real man, showing that man in God's image is unfallen and eternal.'" (page 476).

Shocks of corn, Nebraska's staple crop, are seen in the windows with a fine array of pumpkins, the large 1950 variety, carrying promise of many toothsome dishes for the future. The red oak leaves also are placed through the room as if blown by a passing fall gale.

Centering the picture Herb has placed a newest model of the Pontiac in order that all who pass by may enjoy a view of the new car.
