THANKSGIVING ON THE FARM

We picked the biggest pumpkin, Just my brother Tom and I. But we could hardly get it home. For Ma to bake the pie. Then Tommy got his knees all skinned.

From chasin' down the 'turk' Course, Dad's old hands are calloused red.

From all the harvest work. And Mom, she's not much better off—

She's got her work to do; She's got to make the stuffing and

To roast the robbler, too. The kitchen smells so wonderful. The cranberries and all. Has Tom and me a watchin' and Awakin' dinner call. Our mouths are waterin' to eat. Thanksgiving's sure is fun. Except it takes a long, long time. To get the cookin' done. Oh, boy! at last Mom rinks the bell!

To us it seems so late That Tommy grabs a drumstick and Starts drummin' on his plate. I take a dumplin' and a yam. My tummy says "Hooray" But Mom says "Just a minute, boys. We first. 'Of all... must pray!"
