Mrs. L. G. Todd

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kendall are the proud parents of a nine pound son, born December 6, at St. Mary's Hospital.

The Evangelistic meetings at the Methodist Church closed last Friday evening. Dr. Paul Hillman, district superintendent of Omaha, gave a very fine sermon each evening. The attendance was good in spite of the terrible cold weather.

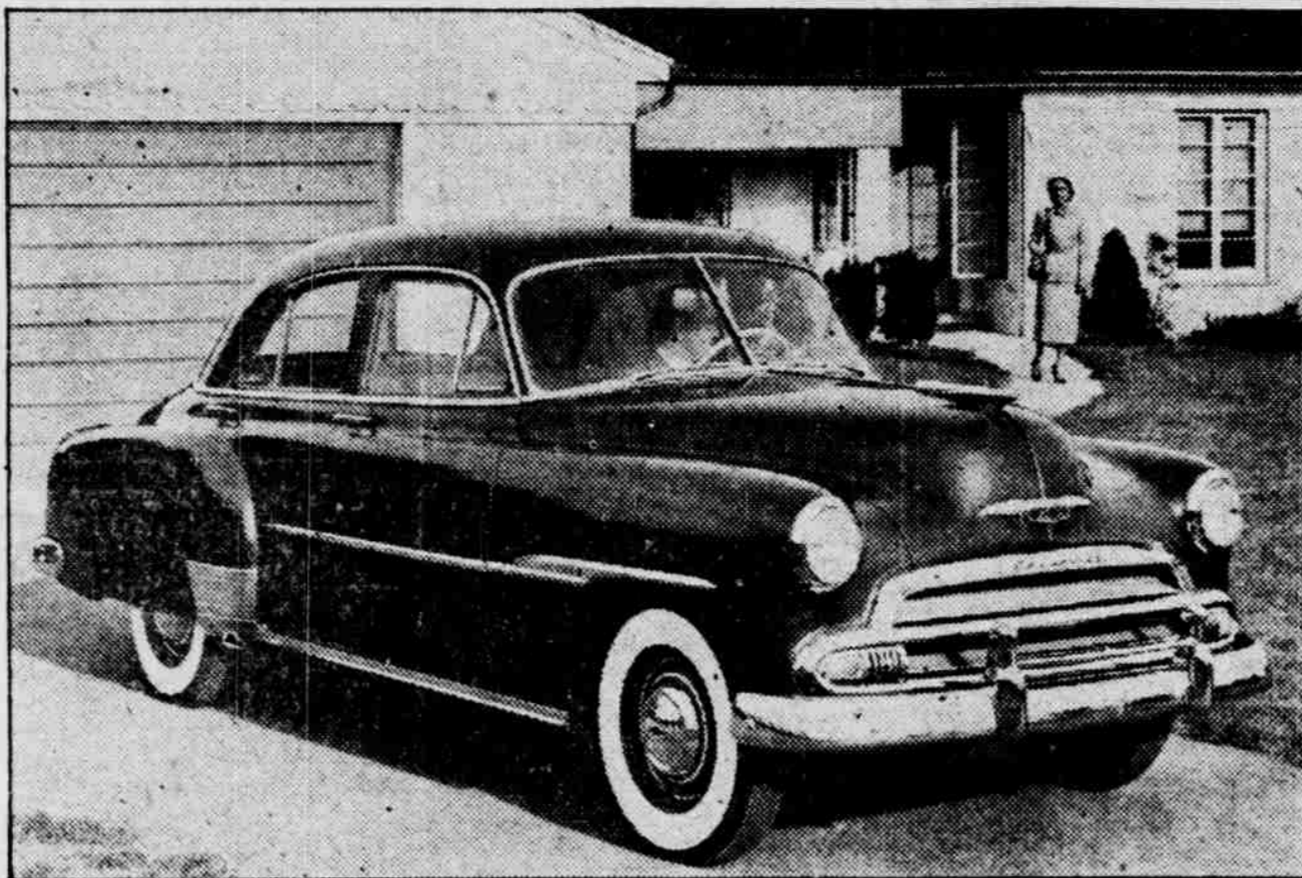

Barbara Anderson of Plattsmouth spent the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson. She attended Sunday school and church services at the Methodist church. We are always happy to have Barbara with us. She and her brothers always attended Sunday school as long as they lived in Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Feusner of Weldon, Iowa, visited with the parents of Mrs. Feusner, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Dysart, last Friday and Saturday. They had also visited the parents of Mr. Feusner at Holdrege. They left on Monday for Oakland, California, where they expect to spend the rest of the winter.

Roger Kendall is showing some improvement the past few days. Mrs. Kendall is staying with her son at Children's Memorial Hospital. Suzanne is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Land while her mother is in

Fresh Chevrolet Styling Imparts Lower Lines

Notable in this picture are the design improvements which accentuate a longer, lower appearance. Radiator grilles have been simplified, the decorative body moulding lowered and rear fender crowns raised. Models also offer added safety.

Omaha with Roger. The Baptist and Methodist Sunday schools will both have their Christmas programs on Saturday evening, Dec. 23rd. The Union Woman's club is having their annual "Family Night" and Christmas party at the Methodist church on Tuesday evening, Dec. 12th. (More about that next week).

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Schaefer and sons and Mrs. Todd were shopping in Plattsmouth last Saturday afternoon. Lyle and Lowell called on Santa Claus. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Rich and twin daughters were in Nebraska City last Saturday and had glasses fitted on the girls.

Richard Mougey left last Sunday evening for the east coast. He is going overseas from there.

stand in refrigerator for four to five days. They'll be tender and the juice will be sweet.

Use odds and ends of jam and jelly by placing spoonfuls into custard cups before pouring in cornstarch pudding. It's a nice, sweet surprise at the bottom of the dish, especially for young-uns.

If you're out of pecans when you are making pecan pie, add coarsely crushed cornflakes for a good substitute. A bit of almond extract can be added to the cereal. They will rise to the top, as the pecans, and give the same effect, and good flavor.

Cold, boiled potatoes are delicious when fried in bacon drippings. Remove bacon pieces before adding potatoes. When potatoes are cooked, break a few eggs among them and stir enough with a fork to break them up. Cook until eggs are done and you have a good main dish.
