

Father Tuchek Host To Rosary Altar Society

Members of the Holy Rosary Altar Society were guests of the pastor, Father Edward C. Tuckek at the second annual Christmas Dinner last Sunday evening at 6:30. The dining room was decorated with cedar garlands and Christmas crystals. Along one side of the room was represented the advent of the shepherds; along the other the coming of the Magi. The focal point of the two lines was a shadow box with the statue of the Madonna holding the Infant Saviour. The four large tables had as a center piece one pure white square candle on a platform of silver encircled with holly. A large poinsettia formed by long slender red leaves sent from Florida covered the top of each table. The service table was decorated with two candelabra and holly. Canapes of various kinds were arranged on huge silver trays.

The buffet was decorated with holly. A three tier fruit cake festively decorated formed the center piece. Six young men of the parish in white coats and French chef caps served from the buffet. They were: Donald Clifford, Clifford Girardot, Ramon Koubek, Daniel Rohan, Thomas Rohan and Kenneth Meisinger.

The menu included: roast tom turkey, oyster dressing, sweet potatoes in orange shells, Brussel Sprouts, cranberry candle, salad, rolls, fruit cake a flame, and coffee.

During the cake lighting the waiters sang Christmas carols. After dinner, Father Tuckek presented each officer of the Altar Society with a hand carved Tyrolian Christmas Crib.

Funeral Services Held Sat. For Herman Leefer

Funeral services for Herman Leefer, Avoca, who passed away on December 6, 1950, were held Saturday, December 9, at 2:30 p. m. from the Tonsing and Son Funeral Home and at 3:00 p. m. at North Branch Church with Rev. F. L. Bracher in charge.

Born September 10, 1870 in Germany, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leefer, he came to America at the age of seven with his parents. On March 2, 1905, he was united in marriage to Lina Bruggman at North Branch church. They continued to reside in that community until moving to Syracuse in 1948.

Surviving are his wife, a son Fred, of Avoca, and a daughter, Irene, at the home, and three grandchildren. One daughter, Minnie Nutzman, preceded her father in death in 1933.

Casket bearers were John, Harry and Henry Leefer, Henry Borman, William Kehlbeck and Richard Haupt. Interment was made in North Branch Cemetery in the family plot.

QUESTION ENEMY NURSES... Brig. Gen. Kang Moon Pong and Capt. Yoon Bin Suk of the South Korean intelligence are questioning three North Korean nurses captured near the Manchurian border. They were flown to the rear by airlift.

Yanks Who Gave Auxiliary Fund Drive Completed

Wednesday marked the closing day of the "Gifts for the Yanks Who Gave" campaign for funds sponsored by the Plattsmouth American Legion Auxiliary headed by Mrs. Vera Warka and Mrs. Sophia Wolever.

The chairman of the committee and members of the Auxiliary were well pleased with the response to their appeal for assistance to see that every sick or disabled veteran confined in hospitals in Nebraska would be remembered on Christmas Day with a gift from those who did not forget.

Although the goal was set somewhat higher than the total collected, members realize that at Christmas time too many organizations ask for contributions placing a tremendous burden on those who would like to assist.

Below is a complete list of all contributions made during the drive:

Weeping Water Masons Confer Masters Degree

Masters Degree was conferred upon David Meyer at Weeping Water Monday evening, when Euclid Lodge No. 97, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons met for the ceremony in the lodge hall there. R. P. Hobson, uncle of the candidate, conferred the second section of the degree, assisted by out-of-town installing officers William McDonald, Murdock of Elmwood Lodge, William White, Louisville, of Springfield Lodge, Leonard St. John, Dunbar, of Nehawka Lodge, and Herbert Eager of the Louisville Lodge.

First section of the degree was conferred on the candidate by Clarence Norris, Worshipful Master of Euclid Lodge, with Clifford Cooper, Harold Elliott, Virgil Rhodes and Gordon Heneger comprising the local installing officers.

Guests of Euclid Lodge to witness the degree work included Most Worshipful Brother John S. Hedlund, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Nebraska, of Omaha; William F. Evers, Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery Knights Templar of Nebraska, and superintendent of Nebraska Masonic Home in Plattsmouth; Carl Grieson Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge, of Omaha, and Raymond C. Cook, Grand Custodian of the Grand Lodge, of Plattsmouth.

Proceeding the ceremonies at the lodge, Worshipful Master Clarence Norris acted as host to a turkey dinner at his home at Weeping Water with officers of the Grand Lodge as guests. Turkey for the dinner was supplied from Mr. Norris' own prize winning flock.

Over 200 Attend School Meet At Union Monday

UNION — (Special) — The community meeting was held last Monday evening at the school house. About 200 attended. The program was one of the best for a long time. The primary pupils with their teacher, Mrs. Eganet of Plattsmouth, put on a very colorful appearance as the little boys and girls marched into the assembly and made a stunning picture in their cute little green caps and capes.

The rhythm band gave several numbers. Keeping perfect time with the pianist, Mrs. Faquet. The second group made sweet music on their song flutes and they all received a fine applause from the large audience.

Miss Chase, teacher of the intermediate room and her pupils presented a very beautiful tableau entitled "The First Christmas." The manger scene with the wise men, the shepherds and the angels were beautifully presented. Nancy Land was the narrator of Robert A. Lebery sang "Oh Holy Night," the Angels sang "Joy to the World." The high school was there on the last part of the program. Lois Garrens, Barbara Wolfe, Joyce Stevens and Dorothy Schaus sang "Joy to the World" with Ramona McQuinn accompanist. A girl's trio, Barbara Garrens, Bonnie Baker and Ramona McQuinn sang "Oh, Holy Night." Their voices harmonized beautifully and they received a hearty applause. Mr. Parsons, superintendent of schools, then showed two very interesting pictures. The first one was "Canadian Scenery" and the second "In the African Jungles." The refreshment committee was a Mrs. Chas. Attebery, Mrs. Need, Mrs. Jane Roddy, Mrs. Holben and Mrs. Ollie Attebery. They were indeed a busy committee feeding so many. The refreshments were sandwiches, cake, coffee and cocoa.

Rail Commissioner Unhurt in Accident

Richard Larson, member of the Nebraska state railroad commission, was uninjured Monday morning when his car skidded on ice three miles west of Union and over-turned.

Mr. Larson was en route to Nebraska City to attend an Interstate Commerce Commission hearing on proposed abandonment of the Missouri Pacific Railroad right-of-way between Crete Junction a mile northwest of Talmage to Otoe.

Larson reported the highway icy in spots between Lincoln and Union. His car hit an icy spot three miles west of Union and went out of control. A passing motorist stopped, opened the door and helped Larson out.

Although the car was badly damaged, the driver escaped unhurt.

CORRECTION

In the list of donors to the gravel fund furnished this newspaper by Wm. F. Nolte in last Monday's issue, the amount given by Albert Hilfiker should have read $150 instead of $125 as carried in the article. We are glad to make the correction.

Other errors reported were Otto Peteriet should have read $125, and two names were omitted, Ford Helm $81.00 and Walter Weiss with a donation of $49.50. The Journal is glad to make these corrections.

Walter Anderson Tops Omaha Market

Among shippers of market-topping hogs on the Omaha market Monday was Walter Anderson of Cass county who delivered 16 head averaging 216 pounds and hit the high of $18.10 per cwt.
