Mrs. Grace Plybon

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Miller had as their guests from Saturday and over New Year's their sister-in-law, Mrs. Ezra Miller of San Francisco, and her mother, Mrs. Cora Collins of Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller of Lincoln were also New Year's day visitors.

Tuesday was an important and busy day at the Methodist church basement. It was blood bank day for this part of the county. There were 113 who registered, more men than women, but there were a few notable to give their donation for various reasons. With the bloodmobile came one doctor, five nurses and two men helpers. Mrs. Emily Gonzales, Red Cross chairman, was local arranger, and her local helpers were two typists, Mrs. Leavitt and Barbara Miller, and others assisting were Mrs. Horton, Mrs.

Summer, Mrs. Emmett Cook, Mrs. Bucknell, Mrs. Elbert Miller, Mrs. Monning, and Mary Capwell Stretch. Plans are being made for the visit of the tuberculosis mobile here soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Miller enjoyed a short visit with their son and daughter-in-law of Portland, Oregon, when Leonard called them up on Monday to wish them a happy New Year.

The annual business meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers Union Co-operative Oil Association was held at the Community building on Tuesday afternoon. Charles Miller and Herbert Oehrling were re-elected on the board of directors. In the evening a large crowd was present with members from Murdock, Eagle, Alvo, Unadilla, Cedar Creek, Wabash and Avoca in attendance along with the local people. The Jack Wright entertainers put on sleight of hand and ventriloquist performances, a marionette or puppet show, and music by Elvyn Evershow, and music by Elvyn Evershow, assisted by other ladies, served a delicious lunch.

FINDS MENTAL ILLS COMMON

NEW YORK (UP)—At least 30,000,000 persons in the United States need mental hygiene treatment of some kind, according to Prof. Esther Lloyd-Jones, head of the guidance laboratory of Columbia University's Teachers College. Stating that these persons all had been students in the nation's schools and colleges, she contended that the educational system is failing to meet mental health needs of the people.

Sterling, Avoca Earn Second Place Shares

Sterling and Avoca town cage fives this week earned shares of the four-way tie for second place in the Tri-County Association. The Sterling townies rapped Otoc, tied for last place with Unadilla, by a count of 63-41 in the first tussle of a double bill at Avoca.

Bill Huetson sparked the winners with 23 falls on nine fielders and five gift tosses. High man for the losers was Bob Rche, who dunked 12 points. Avoca, behind a 23 point barrage by George Wessel, cut its piece of the second place pie with a 7-48 romp over Palmyra.

Wessel hit the strings for ten fielders and three free shots. Ronald Powers' 17 points sparked the losers.

Otoc Cagers Trim Nehawkans, 57-34

Ken Gardner's Otoc cagers Friday night blasted the Nehawka five 57-34 on the Indians' floor.

Nehawka pressed the winners in the first period, but Otoc led 14-10 going into the second. The Gardner pupils found better range in the second stanza and moved ahead 26-13 at the half. The Indians hit a slump in the second half, scoring only ten points in both the third and fourth periods. Otoc led 36-25 as the last period opened.

Ron Witt, Otoc hook shot artist, scored 28 points (10-8). Ron Paap hit for 15. J. Dietl sparked Nehawka with 12 (4-4).

Blue Devils To Seek First Win

Coach Merle Stewart's cagers will return to the basketball court this week with a pair of games scheduled. The Blue Devils will be seeking win No. 1 when they invade the maples of their intra-county rival, Weeping Water, Wednesday night. It will be the first game since before the holiday vacation.

Losers in their first three outings of the current basketball season, the Blue Devils will be out to hit the win column.

Joseph Tasler, Plattsmouth Man's Father Dies

Joseph Tasler, son of Anton and Josephine Tasler, was born near Creston, Iowa on November 6th, 1874. He passed away at his home January 3rd, 1951 at the age of 76 years, 1 month and 28 days.

In early childhood he moved with his parents to Holt County, Nebraska where he grew to manhood.

In February 25, 1895 he was united in marriage to Mary Dobias daughter of James and Anna Dobias. He was then engaged in farming and live stock raising. Later on he and his family moved to a farm west of Peru in which vicinity he farmed until poor health forced him to retire in 1946 at which time he moved into Peru.

He is survived by his widow and four children - Eddie Tasler of Stella, Ella Cotton of Lincoln, Charles Tasler of Plattsmouth, and Clara Comstock of Peru; four sisters - Mary Humal of Omaha, Josephine Humal of Ulysses, Francis Dobias of Atkinson, and Matilda Neely of Newman Grove. Also 12 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

Two sisters and two brothers who preceded him in death were Anton Tasler of Atkinson, Frank Tasler of O'Neill, Ella

Webster of Madison, and Anna Lana of Alton, Kansas.

Funeral services were held Saturday, January 6th at 2:00 p.m. at the Casey Funeral Home in Auburn with Rev. Ward Merritt officiating.

Full bearers were Morris Crook, Harry Leahy, Cecil Rogers, Elmer Allgood, Frank Hays, and Everett Applegate.

Two songs "Abide With Me" and "Rock of Ages" were sung by Mrs. Leland Fass.

Interment was in the Mt. Vernon Cemetery at Peru, Casey Funeral Home in charge of funeral arrangements.
