Rhoden-Meisinger Nuptials Solemnized Saturday

Miss Donna Lee, Rhoden daughter of Mrs. Blanche and the late Kelley J. Rhoden of this city, was married to Lyle V. Meisinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar F. Meisinger, also of Platteville, Saturday evening at 6 o'clock at the First Christian church in this city.

The chancel was decorated with seven branch candelabra and baskets of snapdragons, jonquils, iris, and acacia. The family pews were marked with bows of white satin ribbon.

Rev. Harold V. Mitchell officiated at the candlelight, double ring ceremony in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends.

Miss Marilou Warner sang "Because 'Through the Years'" and "The Wedding Prayer." Chester Harvey Johnson of Mullen, Neb., cousin of the groom, was organist.

Candlelighters of the service were Karlene Kay Senf, niece of the bride, and Irene Meisinger, sister of the groom. They were dressed in identical green taffeta gowns and wore wrist corsages of pink carnations.

Given in marriage by her brother, Jearl Rhoden, the bride chose for her wedding, a gown of gleaming candle light satin designed with a basque waist and long fitted sleeves tapering to a point at the wrists. The full gathered skirt extended into a beautiful cathedral train. A round collar of cut out matching satin lace and the covered satin buttons were the only trim. A French illusion veil of finger tip length fell from a half bonnet of finely etched lace trimmed with clusters of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Ushers for the wedding were Dean Meisinger, cousin of the groom and Darwin Rhoden, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Rhoden had chosen for her daughter's wedding a grey suit with which she wore a winter white hat and gloves and black accessories. Mrs. Meisinger wore a navy blue silk print dress with brown accessories. The mother's corsages were pink carnations.

A wedding reception was held in the church parlors. The lace covered serving table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake which was served by Miss Dorothy Cappell while Miss Shirley Jacobs poured.

Miss Jean Meisinger and Miss Katherine Parkening served the individual ice cream moulds. Others assisting were Mesdames Karl Senf, Darwin Rhoden, Pearl Micin, Rex Young, Philip Rihn, LeRoy Covert, and Ward Schade.

In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Robert Meisinger. Lincoln, with Miss Patty Coiby and Miss Marilou Lutz at the gift table.

For travel, Mrs. Meisinger chose a navy bolero suit with navy and white accessories and a white rose corsage.

After a trip in the south, the couple will make their home in Platteville.

Mrs. Lyle V. Meisinger

heart shaped, white satin pillow edged with lace.

The groom was attired in a light blue business suit. Best man for his brother was Eldon Meisinger, Omaha, who wore a grey business suit. Groomsmen were Leon Meisinger, cousin of the groom, and Charles Thomason. They wore grey and blue business suits respectively. The men all wore white lapel carnations.

Mrs. Rhoden had chosen for her daughter's wedding a grey suit with which she wore a winter white hat and gloves and black accessories. Mrs. Meisinger wore a navy blue silk print dress with brown accessories. The mother's corsages were pink carnations.
