

BATTER-UP! Get In The Swing with SPRING!

THE PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, SEMI-WEEKLY JOURNAL
PAGE FOUR Section B Thursday, March 15, 1951

Chick Care Vital Poultrymen Warn

LINCOLN—Care must be used when shifting chicks from the small sized feeders and waterers to the larger sizes or automatic kinds, says J. H. Claybaugh, extension poultry husbandman.

house until the chicks become accustomed to the new equipment. This change should usually be made when the chicks are three to four weeks old.

The U. S. bituminous coal industry has never asked for a government subsidy of any kind.

A Classified Ad In The Journal costs as little as 35c.

As Seen in VOGUE

Hollywood inspires them
everyone admires them

St Louis blues

... add rhythm and classic harmony to your spring wardrobe. For matched wear or contrast, from tailored suits to after-five, it's the NEW Navy... "St. Louis Blues" by Solene.

$7.95 to $9.95

Woster Shoe Store

X-pert Fitting & Shoe Repair

Dollar for Dollar you can't beat a Pontiac

Yours for Years of Dependable Transportation!

- America's Lowest-Priced Straight Eight
- Lowest Priced Car with GM Hydra-Matic Drive (Optional at extra cost)
- Your Choice of Silver Streak Engines—Straight Eight or Six
- The Most Beautiful Thing on Wheels

MINOR PONTIAC CO.

625 Ave. A "Your Pontiac Dealer" Phone 255

When you buy a Pontiac you buy more than pride of owning the most beautiful thing on wheels—you buy a car that will deliver completely satisfying, carefree performance year after year.

Your eyes will tell you Pontiac is a beauty, every time you see one—and the records will prove Pontiac's dependability every mile you drive one. Dollar for Dollar You Just Can't Beat a Pontiac!

Weeping Water

(Opal E. Wallick)

Mrs. A. J. Peterson returned here Saturday from the St. Elizabeth hospital where she underwent minor surgery earlier in the week. Irving, her son, brought her here from Lincoln. Reports from the family say that she is getting along quite nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Little entertained last Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Klemme who were celebrating their 18th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. George Dickman and boys and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baker, Sr., were also guests.

Mrs. George Smith returned here last week after having made a visit to Duluth where she became acquainted with her new grandchild, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith. Mrs. William Mutter attended to the Smith Beauty shop during Mrs. Smith's absence.

Miss Hazel Pool was in Weeping Water briefly last Tuesday attending to business matters. She was accompanied by her uncle, Professor Ray Pool of the University of Nebraska. Miss Pool visited at the home of Mrs. Charles V. Wallick, while Professor Pool took advantage of the trip to make his first tour of our school building and greet his old friend, S. J. Ambler.

The mobile TB unit is to be here March 16-17 according to dates announced. Lyman Burkholder of Omaha, representative of the American Reserve Life Insurance Company was a business caller at the Nebraska State Bank Monday afternoon.

Charles T. Wallick called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Wallick from the west coast Monday evening. The TAP US S J C Breckinridge docked Monday morning with the first of the 1,000 marines to be returned home. Only one Nebraska boy was with the returns.

Mr. Williams and Mr. Sokoloff of Omaha, Micklin representatives, were in town Monday afternoon and evening attending to business matters.

Len Snyder of Crete and cousin of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hammond, made a Sunday visit at their home this last week end. Mrs. J. M. Ranney left for Blair Wednesday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lingo and family. While there she was to help Robert, her grandson, celebrate his birthday. Mrs. Ranney returned here Saturday.

Ivan Rector was here over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh T. Hanlan left Redlands, Calif., this week to continue their vacation days in Albuquerque with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sluyter and Miss Helen Franz of Omaha visited here last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lane and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Murlin Fernbaugh and Joyce were Lincoln visitors last Sunday afternoon with Mrs. C. E. Pool at the Bryn Mawr hospital. In the evening they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Brooks. L. R. Lane, who has been associated with the People's Natural Gas Company, has announced that he has resigned as meter reader and collector for the company. Mr. Lane has been with the company for 17 years.

The Helping Hand Aid Society met last Thursday with Miss Edith Johnson of the Sunny Hill district. Twenty-one members were present, spending the afternoon following the business meeting piecing quilt blocks. Mrs. Lester King is to be the next hostess, the meeting to be held April 5th in the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wood and daughters, Susan and Mary Alice, drove to Lincoln last Saturday evening. After attending to business matters they enjoyed a movie.

Ralph Keckler, owner of the Keckler oil station, resumed his operations there March 1st. Ralph Lane, who has operated the station for several years by lease, will remain with the station for some time pending developments.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyne Parson and family of Cedar Creek visited here last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Parson.

Mrs. Della Tynan left last week for Leavenworth, Kansas, to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Gene Tynan. Mrs. Tynan has been visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nutter since last fall.

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Markland drove to Friend last Sunday to take his father home. The elder Mr. Markland has been visiting at his son's home for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Cass Sylvester moved to Papillion this past week. Frances Hebard and Ronald Cooper assisted in the transfer operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lühring left Friday for Hanover, Kansas, and a visit with his mother, Mrs. Mary Lühring. They were to return Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lane had as their Friday evening dinner guests Mrs. Henry Rughe and Mrs. Ora Rector. Mrs. Rughe and Mrs. Rector left this week end by car for Lawton, Okla., where Mrs. Rughe will visit for some time. Mrs. Rector will return to her California home.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rasmussen and son, Mrs. Joseph Fienhold and daughter, all of Dunlap, Iowa, were visitors at the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rector on Thursday of last week. Coming here also from Lincoln were Lt. and Mrs. Irving Patterson to visit with the Iowans and her parents.

Chapter BT met at the home of Mrs. Frank Cook Friday afternoon with Mrs. George Corley and Mrs. Lloyd P. Wolcott as assisting hostesses. During the business meeting election and installation of officers was held. Aunt Jemima, famous pancake advocate of the Quaker Company was here Saturday at Joannie's market at which pancakes were served to customers throughout the day.

The Cass County Christian Fellowship met last Sunday night with an attendance of about 275. Rev. Marvin Franklin was the main speaker for the evening. Music was furnished by the Louisville choir and the Methodist church boys' choir of Weeping Water. Next meeting is scheduled for May 6th at the Avo Methodist church.

The Welfare Society met last Monday at the Methodist church. Mrs. C. A. Niel was the leader for the afternoon devotions and hymns. During the business meeting it was decided to send convalescent cards to Mrs. Earl Wildrick and Mrs. C. E. Pool. A sympathy card was sent to Mrs. Emerson Dowler. Quilt blocks were sewed for the afternoon's work after which refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Danish Ladies Aid met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Julius Nielsen. At this meeting secret pals for the past year were revealed and a new name was drawn for this year's secret pal. Mrs. Nielsen served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Mogens Johnson returned here Monday from Hammond, Indiana, after having been called there by the death of his brother, James Johnson, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Roy C. Olson (Birdie Mae) on March 2 following a stroke. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson had been making their home with their daughter and family since they left the Avoca vicinity. Burial was in Hammond, Indiana.

Rev. Leonard J. Reckard, pastor of the Wesleyan church at North Platte and son of Mr. and Mrs. George Reckard of this city, is to be the principal speaker at the Interdenominational Sunday school convention which is to be held here Thursday, March 15th at the United Missionary church. Rev. Reckard was the delegate to the National Sunday School Convention held last fall in Philadelphia and will give a report of his attendance there. Rev. C. A. Niel, local pastor of the United Missionary church issues a blanket invitation to all local churches to join them in their meetings which will convene at 10:30-2:00 and at 7:30. Rev. Fred Warrington of the Wesleyan church and Mrs. C. W. Severn, both of Plattsmouth, are to be speakers also during the convention. Those coming from a distance are requested to bring a covered dish for the noon meal Thursday.

Guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leslie Wiles were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bender and family, Mrs. George Domingo and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jameson. Mrs. Lew Stanley and Mrs. Emily Lane who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Porter for about a week left last Thursday for Perry, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Porter took them to Omaha Union depot. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fitzpatrick left this week end for Los Angeles, Calif., for an indefinite visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin and daughter, Marty. Mrs. Martin is the former Marion Fitzpatrick. Arthur Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor, is to report March 30th for the armed services and training. Mrs. Estelle Conrad, sister-in-law of Henry Crozier left her home in Washington last week after several weeks' stay here. Mrs. Conrad was called here by the death of her sister, Maud Crozier. Mr. and Mrs. Thorwald Hansen and family have moved to their new farm home in Albion. Mr. and Mrs. Grover Lorenson are planning to move back to their farm home in the Wabash vicinity the first of the month. (Continued on Page 5)

family since they left the Avoca vicinity. Burial was in Hammond, Indiana.

Rev. Leonard J. Reckard, pastor of the Wesleyan church at North Platte and son of Mr. and Mrs. George Reckard of this city, is to be the principal speaker at the Interdenominational Sunday school convention which is to be held here Thursday, March 15th at the United Missionary church. Rev. Reckard was the delegate to the National Sunday School Convention held last fall in Philadelphia and will give a report of his attendance there. Rev. C. A. Niel, local pastor of the United Missionary church issues a blanket invitation to all local churches to join them in their meetings which will convene at 10:30-2:00 and at 7:30. Rev. Fred Warrington of the Wesleyan church and Mrs. C. W. Severn, both of Plattsmouth, are to be speakers also during the convention. Those coming from a distance are requested to bring a covered dish for the noon meal Thursday.

Guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leslie Wiles were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bender and family, Mrs. George Domingo and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jameson. Mrs. Lew Stanley and Mrs. Emily Lane who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Porter for about a week left last Thursday for Perry, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Porter took them to Omaha Union depot. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fitzpatrick left this week end for Los Angeles, Calif., for an indefinite visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin and daughter, Marty. Mrs. Martin is the former Marion Fitzpatrick. Arthur Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor, is to report March 30th for the armed services and training. Mrs. Estelle Conrad, sister-in-law of Henry Crozier left her home in Washington last week after several weeks' stay here. Mrs. Conrad was called here by the death of her sister, Maud Crozier. Mr. and Mrs. Thorwald Hansen and family have moved to their new farm home in Albion. Mr. and Mrs. Grover Lorenson are planning to move back to their farm home in the Wabash vicinity the first of the month. (Continued on Page 5)

Easter Treats at STIBALS

Special — Marshmallow Panned Eggs, all sizes, per pound 35c

Filled Easter Baskets to fit most needs.

GIFTS and TOYS

STIBAL VARIETY

Gambles

The Friendly Store

26th Anniversary Sale

Anniversary Sale

FAMOUS ANNUAL SAVINGS EVENT! COMPARE THE LOW PRICES—BUY PRESENT AND FUTURE NEEDS NOW!

CORONADO "New Yorker" TELEVISION

IN YOUR OWN LIVING ROOM!

- TV Console
- Buy of the Year!
- 16" Rectangular Picture Tube
- Easy Tuning with Syncro-set Tuner
- Superior Toned 12" PM Speaker

PRICE INCLUDES WARRANTY!

The kind of TV you've waited for! Low in price, high in quality! Presents an extra clear, life-like picture! Features "Perfectione" FM sound; "Skytenna" built-in aerial; hand-rubbed mahogany finish.

$299.95

Plus Tax

LOW DOWN PAYMENT

CHROME DINETTE SET With 4 Chairs $84.95

REG. $2.19 CARNU AND CAR-PLATE With FREE 50c Sponge Only $1.69

REG. 95c — FIRST QUALITY — 1 PIECE GENUINE CHAMOIS Only 79c

REG. 30c COLORFUL NEW PLASTIC SET OF 6 COMBS 6 For 9c

NO. 4 LARGE 30-FT. ROLL FRICTION TAPE Roll 19c

COMPACT OVAL DESIGN! CORONADO "BANTAM" RADIO Only $12.95

WITH KOROSEAL COVER — CHROME PLATED POP-UP TOASTERS Only $13.50

Free Estimate
TRADE IN YOUR OLD REFRIGERATOR ON A NEW 1951

Ask For a Free Estimate. Trade in on a new 1951 CORONADO Refrigerator.

CORONADO "GREAT VALUE" REFRIGERATORS

- 13.21 Sq. Ft. Shelf Space
- Famous "Thriftmaster" Unit
- UL Approved; 5-Year Warranty

$239.95

"Great Value" with deluxe features such as 35 lb. super-cold freezer, space for 12 milk cartons plus 4 tall bottles, instant leg levelers, porcelain interior.

Low Down Payment

Other CORONADO'S Priced As Low As $184.95

SPECIAL

Stock Up and Save on "Elgrade" FILTER DISCS Regular Price 63c SALE PRICE 49c Box A 6" all-purpose disc that filters thoroughly. Made of fine bleached cotton fibers.

ALWAYS BETTER BUYS AT Gambles
HERB FREEBURG — OWNER — PLATTSMOUTH