Nickles Return From West Coast Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nickels and children have returned home after a two week's outing on the Pacific coast. They spent the greater part of the time at Comos, Washington, where they were the guests of Lloyd and Dorris Lowther, brothers of Mrs. Nickels, as well as with other relatives. They enjoyed a visit through the large paper mills where there are 3,500 persons employed in the making of paper.

Royers Enjoy 5,000 Mile Trip Through South And West

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Royer and daughter Patty of Murray and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Royer of Plattsmouth returned March 1st from a trip to California to visit the boy's father, John Royer and sister, Mrs. Gertrude Williams and daughter Peggy at Richfield, Calif.

They traveled the southern route, going out stopping to see the Grand Canyon. After they arrived at Richfield, their father took them sight seeing, going through the Red Woods on over to the ocean, going through the Shasta Dam, through the olive plant, saw mills and to see several gas wells close to Mr. Royer's home. They also picked oranges and lemons while there to bring home.

When they returned home they came the northern route, stopping at Salt Lake City to see the Mormon's tabernacle and museum. In all they traveled over 5,000 miles. Richard Royer has been called back to service and left for Topeka, Kansas, March 11th where he will be stationed at present.

Mrs Donat Addresses Union Woman's Club

UNION—(Special)—The Union Woman's club met with the Howard Snodgrass last Tuesday afternoon. There was a fine attendance. Mrs. Herman Comer conducted the devotionals.

After the business of the afternoon had been finished, Mrs. Dorothy Foster, leader of the afternoon, introduced Mrs. Donat of Plattsmouth who gave a review of the two books, "Where Love Is, God Is" and "Father Forgive Them" (taken from Ben Hur). The ladies appreciated the fine reviews given by Mrs. Donat herself and give them. They were both so very touching and gave each one present the desire to be more sincere and thoughtful of others, especially at this Easter-tide.

The hostess and her mother, Mrs. Ona Kunkel of Nehawka, served very delicious and attractive refreshments at the close of the meeting.

New Member Added To Roll Of Woman's Society At Union

UNION—(Special)—Mrs. Delbert Lindsey was hostess to the Woman's Society of Christian Service last Thursday afternoon. Twenty members attended. Mrs. Randall Faris, Mrs. Elsie Porter and Mrs. Martin Nelson were guests. Mrs. Nelson consented to become a member of the society and her name was placed on the roll. It was voted to give $5.00 to the Red Cross. Mrs. Howard Snodgrass presided over the meeting as the president and both vice presidents were unable to attend. Mrs. Comer conducted the devotionals in the absence of Mrs. Carl Cross, devotional leader.

After a social hour, Mrs. Lindsey, assisted by Mrs. Snodgrass, served very delicious refreshments of ice cream, cake, mints and coffee in which the St. Patrick's colors and shamrock motif were carried out. Mrs. Louis Mongey served her "dime cake." Mrs. Lee Faris drew the "dime piece of cake." The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Jane Paasch.

Per capita coffee consumption in the United States has risen sharply and now stands at about 20 pounds.
