St. John's Holy Week Services Conclude Sunday

In preparation for the celebration of the anniversary of the institution of the Holy Eucharist on Holy Thursday, confessions were heard on Wednesday in St. John's Chapel. Mass today at eight o'clock opened the Holy Thursday ceremonies. After mass the procession of the Most Blessed Sacrament took place to the altar of the Repository. After the procession the altars were stripped and throughout the day adorers are watching for an hour before the Blessed Sacrament. At 8:00 to-night services close the day's adoration.

Good Friday, Mass of the Precursor will be said at 8:00 a. m. followed by the veneration of the cross by the faithful. From 12:00 noon to 3:00, the hours of Christ's hanging from the cross, parishioners will visit the church to meditate and venerate the cross. Confessions will be heard Friday at 4:00-5:00 p. m. On Friday evening at 8:00 p. m. devotions and stations of the cross will be held.

Saturday at 8:00 a. m. will take place the reading of the prophecies, Blessing of the new fire and baptismal font and Mass. Confessions will be heard Saturday from 11:00-12:00, 2:00-3:30, 4:00-5:30 and in the evening from 7:00-9:00.

Easter day Masses are at 8:00 and 10:30. The 8:00 being a High Mass at which the Choir of St. John's school will sing The Mass of St. Barbara by Nemmers.

Methodist Youth Seek To Remodel Study Room

(Continued from Page One) young people The Word in the a. m., and the preacher helps them put it into practice in the p. m. But they want to convert it into a high-school youth hang-out with a home-like atmosphere. This involves quite a project of interior decoration. At present the place looks like the insides of a little red school house long deserted.

The members are sketching ideas of interior decoration to be discussed. Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Yelick they already have a nice radio and record player. By virtue of the fact that the room is where they hold their church school class they are going to put the pressure on the board of education of the church to provide a good piano. They will either beg, borrow or buy the rest of the equipment and furnishings. When through they will have a place in the church which they can call their own, to which they can invite their friends for a while after school or in the evenings, in which they can hold their bull-sessions and spin a few platters of Bach, Beethoven and Spike Jones.

Sometimes their ideas run way ahead of anything the preacher is used to, but they recognize that he is getting middle-aged and somewhat out of style. They have the knowledge that he and the leaders of the church stand behind them, because they would rather see the young people have their good times in the presence of the church, rather than in some environment that does little or nothing for the finer qualities of our young people.
