Your Tavernman Deserves Your Support

Most Nebraska tavernmen operate their places in a manner that deserves commendation. These responsible citizens, appreciating their obligations to the community, are careful to maintain clean, respectable places... refuse sales to minors and excessive drinkers... make an honest attempt to keep well within the intent of the law in all respects.

This attitude has been strengthened by the industry's program of self-regulation in the interest of the public. The program launched first in Nebraska has proved so successful it has been adopted in many other states. And the industry's educational program has resulted in widespread improvement in tavern operation.

You can aid this worthy effort by offering encouragement to your retailer.
