Athletes Honored Wednesday Night At Weeping Water

The annual athletic banquet was held Wednesday evening at the Cass County Agricultural building honoring all the members of the various athletic departments. Rev. Harry Hart gave the invocation followed by John Benders, EMC, introducing Jack Cohen who welcomed the guests of honor and their accompanying fans. Patricia LaRue, senior cheer leader and volley ball member responded to the welcome. Presentation of the athletes was given by Coach P. H. Hinds. Supt. R. C. Porter presented the awards. Patsy Clark, former coach, and present athletic director of the University of Nebraska was the main speaker of the evening, bunding his talk around the value of university education and its relation to the students accepting their proper station in world business as well as its effect on them for the military duties that seem to be inevitable for most of them. During the evening's presentation to each guest none escaped the sparkling humor which was on in full force by EMC, John Benders. The following are the list of athletes presented to the large crowd attending the banquet: football, basketball and track: Richard Keckler, John Stone, Marvin Friesel, John Everett, Terry Bickford, Wilmer Hermann, and Richard Gibson. Football and basketball: James Stacey and James Garrison. Football and track: Lyle Thomassen, Rodney Knaup, Robert Betts and Leonard Nell. Football: Al Bickford, Lloyd Sell, Don Fleming, Dale Gray, Joe Murphy and Robert Domingo. Track: Gene Burgen, Edwin Sterling, Richard Nickles, Robert Compton and Wilbur Meisinger. Student managers: Jerry Meeske and Robert Compton. Volley Ball members presented were: Evelyn Lauritzen, Monda Friesel, Virginia Philpot, Janet Christensen, Charlotte Stacey, Mary Domingo, Dixie Lee Applegate, Valerie Uffelman, Carol Jean Ambler, Lois Dennis, Eleanor Boardman, Ruth Wannamaker, Mary Murphy, Susan Hobson, Joanne Bender, LaVonne Kiskinger and Patricia LaRue. Student manager, Dorothy Ann Kunkel. Cheer leaders: Pat LaRue, Mary Domingo, Carol Jean Ambler, Evelyn Lauritzen and Raymond Rice.

The banquet was served by the Ruth Circle of the Methodist church. Committeemen for the banquet were J. Marion Stone, chairman; R. C. Porter, co-chairman; Miss Pearl Schultz, banquet serving; Coach P. H. Hinds, athletics and tickets; L. A. Malstead, music; Louis Noble, public address system; Miss Ellen Monfross, decorations; and Mrs. Florence Paap, program.

with the DEARBORN ROTARY HOE

The 320 steel fingers really dig under young weeds and flip them out on the ground. Attached to the Ford Tractor, this 7' 4" wide hoe can cover 30 acres a day.

In addition to first cultivation on row crops, it is ideal for cultivating drilled crops, such as alfalfa or clover, breaking up soil crust and preparing seed beds in stubble mulch farming. By changing the hitch, spiders rotate in reverse direction for use as a treeder in heavy stubble and other crop residue without Ford Tractor in 60 seconds. Ask us about it.
