

Weeping Water

(Opal E. Wallick)

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Compton, Mrs. Charles Neil and Mrs. Dorothy Howard of Nebraska City visited with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hammond on Sunday.

SYMPATHY

SURE, your neighbors will sympathize. But sympathy doesn't pay off! Secure adequate insurance from

Stephen M. Davis

Second Floor Plattsmouth State Bank Bldg. Phone 6111

Mrs. Chris Miller Notes Birthday

— Weeping Water — Mrs. Lester Heebner, accompanied by Mrs. Henry Dankleff, Mrs. Ernest Salling and Mrs. Mathilda Madsen, all of Avoca, came to Weeping Water last Wednesday to the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Chris Miller, to help her celebrate her birthday. Mrs. John Heebner, Mrs. Fred Neumeister and Mrs. Chris Rasmussen joined the out of town guests for the event.

— Weeping Water — Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Maxfield of Lincoln were Sunday visitors at her parents home, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Rasmussen. On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Rasmussen's grandson, Richard, came for a brief visit. Richard, a member of the national air corps, is to leave this Friday for a base in Maine.

— Weeping Water — Mrs. Lynne Parson and children left last Wednesday for Grand Island where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wiles and family. Mr. Parson joined his family over the week end, all returning here Sunday evening.

— Weeping Water — Mrs. Vesta Baker says that her son, Charles, is now in Honolulu. His address is Pfc. Charles E. Baker, 127287576, 1500 Medical Group, APO, 953 Postmaster, San Francisco, Cal. Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freeman were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freeman of Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. James Mathers, Boyd, of

Better Health Club Learns About Feet

— Weeping Water — The Better Health club met at the home of their leader, Mrs. J. M. Ranney, with a lesson on "Our Feet." They learned about the bones and about the ligaments and muscles, which, when joined together, support the entire weight of the body. Discussion of manner of walking and care of feet was heard. The type of shoe and the effects of poorly fitted shoes were also discussed. Roll call was answered by members naming clothing suitable to weather types. Maurer Morris acted as secretary during the business meeting and was the hostess for the day. A new member was taken into the club, Libba Norris. Members were to look for safety rules in yards and to report on them at the next meeting.

— Weeping Water — Lt. and Mrs. Charles A. Seitz and daughter, Georgia Sue, spent several days here last week with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Dwyer. Lt. Seitz left Wednesday to report for reassignment to the Indian hospital where he has previously spent some time recuperating from wounds received in the Korean war sector. Mrs. Seitz and daughter have stayed for a longer visit.

Mrs. A. E. Barber Reported To Be Ill

— Weeping Water — Word comes by way of Mrs. Helen Wallick of the illness of Mrs. A. E. Barber. The nature of her illness was not known at the time of Mrs. Wallick's letter although it is known that she suffers acutely from asthma. Mr. and Mrs. Barber were former Weeping Water residents quite a number of years ago but are more recently residents of Louisville and Elmwood. Mrs. Barber expressed a desire to hear from some of her former friends here.

— Weeping Water — Miss Joan Rector is our new "hello" girl at the Lincoln Telephone office, having previously been a toll operator in the Lincoln office. She takes the place of Mrs. Jamie Fleming.

— Weeping Water — Miss Jane Lorenson of Lincoln came home Friday and over the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lorenson.

— Weeping Water — Mrs. F. B. Cherry spent last Monday night with her daughter, Mrs. Eddie Hill, and family, of Omaha.

— Weeping Water — Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sudduth were last Monday visitors in Lincoln.

— Weeping Water — Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sell of Hastings visited last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Sell, Mrs. Marion Appling, sister of the two men, was present at the dinner held for the guests from Hastings on Sunday.

— Weeping Water — Mr. and Mrs. Royce Fish and son, James, of Columbus, were week end visitors of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Jameson, last week for several days. On Sunday they were all guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jameson and family of Nehawka. The Columbus visitors drove later to Auburn where they visited with relatives of Mr. Fish.

— Weeping Water — Miss Ruth Bunting of Belvidere, who is now teaching in the Eagle schools, was a guest of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Mutter, last week end.

— Weeping Water — Mrs. W. W. Davis celebrated her birthday last Thursday. Glenn Taylor is getting around on crutches now, following a trip to Lincoln last week at which time the cast was removed from his leg. Byron Baker took Glenn to Lincoln.

— Weeping Water — Mrs. Walter Lühring and Mrs. Cy Brandt were Lincoln motorists last Monday.

— Weeping Water — Mr. and Mrs. Ted Akeson of Lincoln stopped here briefly Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Day. They had been visiting with Mrs. Akeson's sister, Mrs. Bert Jameson, and her husband in Plattsmouth.

John Swindle Arrives In States

— Weeping Water — Friends will be glad to learn that John Swindle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Swindle of Lincoln, is on the west coast. He has a 30 day leave from the Marines and duties of war. John was with the beleaguered reservoir sector in Korea. Recently he has been in a hospital in Japan where he was recuperating from wounds received in the defending of the marine's position at the reservoir.

Helping Hand Aid Society Meets

— Weeping Water — The Helping Hand Aid Society met last Thursday afternoon at the Methodist church with Mrs. Lester King as hostess. During the business meeting it was voted to give money to the Girls State fund, which is sponsored by the Legion Auxiliary. The afternoon was spent further by trying a quilt. Mrs. Troy Murdock is to be the next hostess at which time there is to be a plant exchange.

— Weeping Water — Mrs. George Trunkenbolz spent several days last week here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. F. Schomaker, who has been ill.

— Weeping Water — Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Hatcliff of Lincoln were last Sunday guests of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Cherry. The two men are railroad brothers.

— Weeping Water — CALL 4687 FOR CORN SHELLING and HAULING GAIL MEISINGER Louisville, Nebr.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Meeske entertained at dinner for their pastor, Rev. Melvin Meyer, last Monday evening. Following the dinner members of the Sunday school teaching department were present to discuss matters pertaining to the work for the Sunday school.

— Weeping Water — Mrs. Richard Tenhulzen drove to Lincoln Monday evening where she is taking work to further her teaching certificate.

REAL ESTATE LOANS!

5% Percent Interest Charge Reduced for each monthly payment. Plattsmouth Loan & Building Ass'n.

Pat Bauers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bauers, was here for several days last week from Alaska where he is stationed with his ship.

— Weeping Water — Latest word from Mrs. Fred Gorder through her daughter, Helen, is that she has gained enough strength to sit in a chair, though only for short periods of time. Miss Helen, who only recently underwent surgery, is getting along nicely, but is doing her convalescing in Cobina near her mother.

— Weeping Water — Mr. and Mrs. Greeley Biel of Murray visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lühring.

— Weeping Water — Judge and Mrs. Leon Merrick of Osceola visited Saturday and over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Day. Sunday evening they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Wallick.

Hobby And Craft Display To Be Held

— Weeping Water — April 30th is the date set for a display of hobbies and crafts at the Cass county auditorium. Demonstrations will be held from 10-12 in the morning for those who are interested in the work. Completed articles and models in the decorating process will be on display.

— Weeping Water — John Swindle left last Tuesday from his home in Hardin, Mont., after several days visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Domingo and other relatives.

— Weeping Water — Supt. R. C. Porter and family visited in Grinnell, Iowa, at his brother's home and with Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Porter, his parents, in Cedar Falls, Iowa, over last week end. A visit to see Mrs. Porter's mother, Mrs. Lew Stanley, of Perry, Iowa, was also made.

— Weeping Water — Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Philpot visited with their son, Dale, last Tuesday. He is at the Methodist hospital in Omaha.

— Weeping Water — Miss Pearl Schultz contacted local craftsmen and hobbyists to set up a display of their spare time interests in connection with the national home demonstration week of April 30-May 5.

— Weeping Water — Mr. and Mrs. Leo Christensen are keeping a sort of open house since their new television set arrived. Thursday evening their guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Finley and daughter, Beverly, Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Potts, and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Christensen.

— Weeping Water — Mrs. Charles Freeman is in Omaha where she is with her sister-in-law, Mrs. George Kunz of Elmwood. Mrs. Kunz is seriously ill at the University hospital.

— Weeping Water — Pvt. and Mrs. Wayne Beltz were Weeping Water visitors last week end. Pvt. Beltz is stationed at an army camp on the East coast, and was home on a leave of absence. He returned Sunday.

— Weeping Water — Mrs. Ben Olive and her guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Olive, were Monday luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tucker of Nehawka. Mr. and Mrs. George Olive left for their home in Princeton, N. J., the following day.

— Weeping Water — Chapter BT, PEO, met at the farm home of Mrs. John Norris with Mrs. Carl Teft as hostess last Friday afternoon.

— Weeping Water — Thomas Molden of Riverside, Calif., and son of Mr. and Mrs. Molden, left his home the first of last week to visit with his sister, Jane, who is ill in a Princeton, N. J., hospital.

— Weeping Water — Mrs. J. Marion Stone went to Lincoln last Wednesday evening. Susan spent the night with Joan Berthold while her mother was gone.

John Swindle Arrives In States

— Weeping Water — Friends will be glad to learn that John Swindle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Swindle of Lincoln, is on the west coast. He has a 30 day leave from the Marines and duties of war. John was with the beleaguered reservoir sector in Korea. Recently he has been in a hospital in Japan where he was recuperating from wounds received in the defending of the marine's position at the reservoir.

Helping Hand Aid Society Meets

— Weeping Water — The Helping Hand Aid Society met last Thursday afternoon at the Methodist church with Mrs. Lester King as hostess. During the business meeting it was voted to give money to the Girls State fund, which is sponsored by the Legion Auxiliary. The afternoon was spent further by trying a quilt. Mrs. Troy Murdock is to be the next hostess at which time there is to be a plant exchange.

— Weeping Water — Mrs. George Trunkenbolz spent several days last week here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. F. Schomaker, who has been ill.

— Weeping Water — Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Hatcliff of Lincoln were last Sunday guests of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Cherry. The two men are railroad brothers.

— Weeping Water — CALL 4687 FOR CORN SHELLING and HAULING GAIL MEISINGER Louisville, Nebr.

national home demonstration week which will occur April 30th through May 5th. Harrison Livingston visited Monday with his wife at the Bryan Memorial hospital. She is getting along nicely following a week's stay and expects to be home soon.

— Weeping Water — Mr. and Mrs. Neil Munkres returned here last week from Des Moines where they attended a convention of theater owners.

— Weeping Water — Dean Cherry, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Cherry writes his folks that he now has a new rating of TE SN 3 and is still located at Treasure Island. Mrs. P. H. Hinds, seventh grade teacher, was absent Monday from her duties. Mrs. Frank Cook was the substitute. The Christian church youth plan to join a youth rally next Sunday, April 22, at Elmwood. Friday evening of last week three one-act plays were presented to the public. A quartette from Lincoln provided musical numbers. Lunch was sold and served to those attending.

"Cheap" Seed Corn

We sell Nebr. Certified hybrids for less than most commercial brands, BUT "QUALITY" is never sacrificed. Using nationally known drying & grading equipment, but hiring less labor, and personally supervising all operations, enable us to sell for less and insure you of choice, "Blue Tag" seed corn.

SOLD BY RICHARD COLE, PLATTSMOUTH, H. G. ARENDS, MANLEY, DWIGHT BAIER, AVOCA, LEWIS CALLAWAY, UNADILLA, CLIFF ANDERSON, EAGLE, BOB WALL, GREENWOOD, OR DIRECT FROM US.

Order "NOW", from your nearest dealer. Choice flat kernels left in most varieties.

HOWARD A. POOL, Elmwood, Nebr.

PROCLAMATION:

RUNT HUNT WEEK

April 23-28

Our store is your local headquarters for the NATIONAL RUNT HUNT, beginning the week of April 23-28. See us for complete information and service on this important project.

Swine authorities predict 40 million pigs in 1951 will be runts, slow-growers or poor-doers. Tests at the Allied Mills Research Farm show that more than 80% of rusty pigs can be changed into thrifty, fast-gaining pigs by feeding the amazing new super-feed, Wayne Tail Curier. It works wonders with pigs of all ages. It's not expensive — costs less than many ordinary pig feeds.

Visit us during Runt Hunt Week—we have a FREE "Lucky Pig" pocket piece for you.

FARMER'S Feed & Seed
Phone 3131

For Ride...You can pay more but you can't buy better!

Jounce, pitch, and sway are things of the past when you own a '51 Ford. That's because Ford's new Automatic Ride Control self-adjusts to all types of roads for maximum smoothness. It's a "Look Ahead" Ford feature.

For Drive...You can pay more but you can't buy better!

For '51 Ford "Looks Ahead" to bring you new Fordomatic® Drive... the newest, smoothest, most flexible Automatic transmission ever! The great new Fordomatic never lags, gives you trigger-quick getaway and easy "rocking" in snow or mud. *Optional on Y-8 models at extra cost.

For Styling...You can pay more but you can't buy better!

For years ahead, Ford's elegance of style will rule the road! New "Color-Keyed" Fordcraft Fabrics, "Safety-Glow" Control Panel and new "Colorblend" Carpeting are all custom-matched to Ford's exterior colors.

The '51 FORD

43 "Look Ahead" Features plus FORDOMATIC® Drive

Plattsmouth Motors

Washington Avenue

Phone 287

Loans

$1,000 or Less

LOANS MADE ANYWHERE

Write or Come in

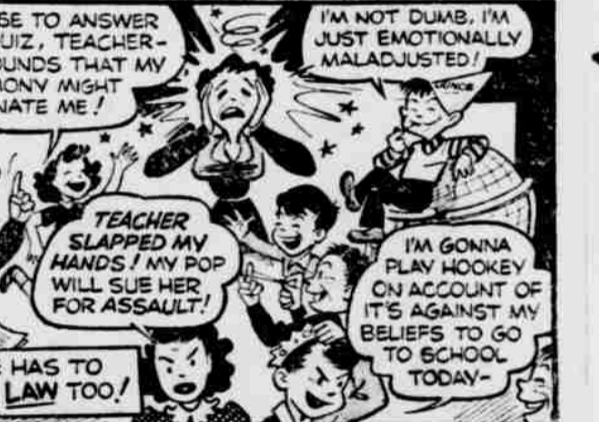

AMERICAN LOAN PLAN

O. T. NICHOL, JR., Mgr.
112 No. 5th St. Ph. 3213
Plattsmouth

Cavalcade of COMIC strips

Produced and Directed by Albert H. Smith

BY ART BEEMAN

DEEMS

BY TOM OKA

GOING WEST

BY FRANK THOMAS

OFF MAIN STREET

BY JOE DENNETT

RURAL DELIVERY

BY PAUL GRINGELE

JACKIE

BY AL SMITH