Local Seniors To Get Glimpse Of College Life At Peru
Peru State, its faculty and student body, is laying plans for their first annual "Senior Day" to be held on Monday, April 30. Plattsmouth seniors have been invited to attend.
Ninety-six high schools from Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri, have been invited to attend the all-day activity. Seniors from these high schools will be given a chance to see college life in action. The members of Southern Nebraska's Class of '51 will visit college classes in session, have a tour of the campus, eat at the college cafeteria, be entertained by a Student Council convocation, and meet with the college instructors and students in their field of interest to receive counseling and to ask specific questions pertaining to college attendance.
Robert Speltz, faculty instructor in commerce, is general chairman of faculty-student "Senior Day" committee. The final activities will be all-sports demonstrations, a reception, and an all college mixer.
