Betty Lou Modlin Becomes Bride Of Ervin A. Siemoneit

In the Grace Methodist church in Omaha, located at 25 and E street at 8 o'clock p. m. Sunday, April 15, 1951, a lovely candlelight wedding was held. Miss Betty Lou Modlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Modlin, of 2725 Drexel street became the bride of Ervin A. Siemoneit, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Siemoneit of Plattsmouth, Nebr.

Dr. C. E. Harkin, minister of the church, performed the double ring ceremony with Dr. A. B. Lentz, minister of the Christ Evangelical Lutheran church of Louisville, assisting. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's wedding gown was made of white slipper satin with a sweetheart neckline and long tapered sleeves and a 3 yard train. The 6 yard veil was of net and the outside edges trimmed in lace, held together with a tiera of beads. Her necklace was of rhinestone. She carried a white New Testament with yellow roses and streamers of white and yellow ribbons.

Cheryl Irene, little 4 year old sister of the bride, carried the bride's train.

band was white and pink net with red rosebuds. Carol Ann wore a formal of two layers of net, pink over blue, with a pink satin slip. Her headband also was white and pink net and red rosebuds.

The groom wore a blue suit with a white carnation boutonniere.

Max Schackmies of Omaha, close friend of the groom, was best man and Joe Carson of Panora, Iowa, a schoolmate, was the attendant. Both men wore blue suits and white boutonnieres. James McCambley, Warren Hobson, Larry Bolter of Omaha, and Gary Peter of Louisville, cousin of the groom, served as ushers. All were attired in business suits and white boutonnieres.

James Cisar, uncle of the bride, sang "Always" and "Because," with Mrs. Dean Ringer playing the organ.

Ervin A. Siemoneit graduated from Plattsmouth high school in 1949. He is a student at the Electronic Radio Television Institute in Omaha and also is employed at the Union Pacific Railroad.
