Junior, Senior Woman's Club Have Banquet Monday Night

The May day theme was beautifully carried out in the decorations for the joint banquet of the Junior-Senior Women's Club of Plattsmouth held in the Fellowship room of the Presbyterian church Monday evening, May 7. A large number of members of both clubs and many guests attended. Mrs. Orville Enteman, state chairman of drama and literature N. F. W. C., and Mrs. Fred Jensen, state treasurer of Omaha, were in attendance.

Large baskets of spring flowers were placed about the banquet room and blossoms were also used as centerpieces for the dining tables. Miniature maypoles with pastel ribbons were on each table. These were the work of Mr. R. B. Keller. Small colonial ladies, complete with gay bouffant costumes and powdered hair, further carried out the decorative motif. Hand painted programs, the artistic work of Pat Christweiser, retiring vice-president of the Junior club, marked each place. An arrangement of vari-colored tulips centered the speakers table at which were seated the retiring and newly elected officers of both clubs as well as distinguished guests and program participants.

A large Maypole with pink and green streamers was the center of the room. The social committee of the Senior club was in charge of the decorations. Mrs. Louis Hansen, chairman, assisted by Mrs. W. F. Evers, Mrs. G. G. Griffin, Mrs. C. A. Ruse, Mrs. Fred Lugsch, Mrs. J. G. McMaken and Mrs. Henry Donat spared no effort on this feature. The program was planned and arranged by Junior club members. Mrs. Phyllis Young, chairman. Other members of her committee were Mrs. Helen Rosborough, co-chairman, Mrs. Faith Frist, Mrs. Mary Keeley, Mrs. Shirley Mayabb, Mrs. Vera Warga and Mrs. Ruth Ann Davenport.

Mrs. Philip Hirz, who is closing a two year regime as Senior club president, opened the banquet and extended the welcome. Mrs. Phyllis Young, president-elect of the Juniors, presided as Toastmistress. Mrs. W. F. Evers gave the devotionals. Six pupils of Mrs. Jean Lockin - Sharon Harms, Nancy Hirz, Nancy Bullin, Valerie Gorton, Zandra Nielsen and Reedna Taylor, gownned in summer pastels, danced around the Maypole, with Mrs. Juanita Brendel at the piano. This feature was under direction of Miss Viola Miller. Mrs. Sylvia Flynn of Bellevue sang a refrain from 'The Chocolate Soldier', Italian Street Song and 'Smoke Gets in Your Eyes'. Mrs. Juanita Brendel served as accompanist.

Mrs. Orville Enteman delighted the group with her readings. She gave 'It Gives Me Great Pleasure', a new story by Emily Kimbrow, and a very modern version of Hamlet. Kay Casey and Wayne Lewis, advanced pupils of Jean Lockin, gave an

Mrs. Young and Mrs. Keller each received a president's pin. A recording, 'The End of a Perfect Day', by Orville Nielsen, came as a fitting close to the evening and the year's work of both clubs.

Marie Elena Lavie Luca And Donald Nelson Are Married

Marie Elena Lavie Luca and Donald Albert Nelson were married at Caracas, Venezuela recently in the Church of Saint John the Baptist conducted by Monsignor Feo. Miss Luca is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henrique Lavie of Caracas, and Mr. Nelson is the son of Mrs. Selma Nelson of Murray.

The church was adorned with calla lilies and lilies of the valley and was illuminated by candlelight. Organ music was played by Esteban Nadas. The bride's gown was a Parisian creation of silver brocade. The headdress and veil were sent from Italy. Maids of honor, in white organza gowns designed by the bride were her sister, Luisa Mercedes and Ines Lavie Luca, along with cousins Esther Luisa Lavie Betancourt and Marilyn Lavie Garcia. Wedding rings were carried by Alberto and Jose Luca Francheschi, cousins of the bride.

After the ceremony the bride and groom were honored at a reception at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding cake, composed of three separate parts joined by iced sprays of flowers, was prepared by an aunt of the bride. The newlyweds drove to a mountain retreat for a few days prior to leaving the country for Mexico and the United States, where they are visiting the family of the groom.

Mrs. Nelson, a prize winning artist, plans to continue her studies in preparation for a special concert in the fall. She studied last year at the Academy Julian of Paris. Mr. Nelson is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, and a veteran of World War II. Since 1948 he has been employed by the Texas Petroleum Company at Caracas as field auditor for the Venezuelan Division. The couple expect to make their home in Caracas.
