

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER
The Southern Kingdom.

IN THE DIVISION of the kingdom of David and Solomon, the Southern Kingdom of Judah had several points of superiority over the Northern Kingdom. Judah had the reigning house of David, which kept the throne until the end.

While there were wicked kings who did evil in the sight of the Lord, there were several great rulers in the succession of David. Prominent among these was Hezekiah, the "good king."

Greater than Hezekiah was the mighty prophet Isaiah. Tireless in his efforts to preserve the nation, he was especially active against alliance with Egypt, not only because it was the land of his people's bondage and should have been abhorrent but also because dependence upon an earthly power would supplant trust in Jehovah.

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Animal magnetism has no scientific foundation, for God governs all that is real, harmonious, and eternal, and His power is neither animal nor human. Its basis being a belief and this belief animal, in Science animal magnetism, mesmerism, or hypnotism is a mere negation, possessing neither intelligence, power, nor reality, and in sense it is an unreal concept of the so-called mortal mind."
