

Achievement Program Concludes Bible School

The Union Vacation Bible School conducted at the Methodist and Presbyterian churches closed two weeks of enthusiastic work with an achievement program last Sunday evening at the Methodist church. The theme "Hands Across the Sea" was carried out in various ways by each of the four departments—in song, Biblical quotations, poetry and dramatization. In their construction work also it was well illustrated.

Much credit is due Mrs. Paul Fauquet for a mural "Hands Across the Ocean," made by the Juniors under her direction. There were 29 other teachers and assistants who contributed their time and talent. In the Beginners Department at the Methodist church Mrs. Vic Schreiner, Mrs. Ed Mische, Anita Spidell and Mrs. Charles Christensen directed the activities. Mrs. Virgil Perry directed the Beginners at the Presbyterian church with the aid of Dorothy Cappel, Mrs. William Highfield and Nancy Perry. The Primary department was in charge of Mrs. Richard Biery at the Presbyterian church, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Russel Shay, Mrs. Chris Bull, Mrs. Ralph Karen Jacobs, John Stoll, Nancy Painter, Phyllis Tritsch, Fatty Brown and Marlene Wetenkamp.

The Junior and Junior High departments were held at the Methodist church under leadership of Mrs. H. G. McClusky, Mrs. H. V. Mitchell, Mrs. Theo Yelick, Miss Pearl Staats, Mrs. J. Howard Davis, Mrs. T. J. Fries, Mrs. Edgar Glaze, Darlene Spangler, Shirley Glaze and Patty Painter.

Enrollment totaled 157 pupils, most of whom had perfect attendance. Their contributions to missions amounted to $53.92. The expense of the school was almost covered by the offering contributed Sunday evening by the parents and friends.

Sr. was in Omaha to attend the graduation exercises of his son, Warren Jr., and wife, June 1st, who had completed three years study of missionary work, from the Omaha Bible Institute.
