Mrs. Orion Baldwin Dies In Colorado

Word was received here last week by Mrs. C. C. Baldwin of the death of her son's wife, Mrs. Orion Baldwin of Ft. Morgan, Colo. Mrs. Baldwin had been very ill and hospitalized for quite some time. Funeral services were held at Olathe, Kan., Thursday, July 12. Mrs. Homer Abrams of Denver and Mr. and Mrs. Melville Baldwin of Ft. Morgan arrived here Tuesday and with Mrs. Edward Dowler of Omaha and Miss Jessie Baldwin and Miss Maude Baldwin drove to Olathe to attend the final rites of their sister-in-law. The relatives from Denver and Omaha returned here, spending the week end with Mrs. C. C. and Misses Jessie and Maude Baldwin.

Woman's Association Meets Wednesday

The Congregational Woman's Association met last Wednesday at the church with Mrs. Dave Patterson, Mrs. C. H. Spohn and Mrs. Rasmus Lauritzen, Sr. as hostesses. Mrs. Arthur Jones, another hostess, was not present. Devotions were led by Mrs. E. E. Lorensen, and the lesson "Thy Will to Do in the Homeland" was presented by Mrs. E. W. LaRue. Mrs. Homer Jameson, association president, presided at the business meeting which was very brief, as few matters of importance were up for discussion or decision. A farewell gift was presented to Mrs. George Sell, who with Mr. Sell, are leaving for their new home in Fremont soon. Mrs. E. F. Marshall was also remembered with a farewell gift although she was unable to be present at the meeting. Mrs. Marshall plans to make her future home with members of her family in Omaha and Denver. Portions of a letter from Jane Molden were read to the group. Jane told of her recovery sufficient to make the trip from the east back to Lincoln where the Molden family now reside. The dining room of the church was decorated with vases of pink rambler roses and other mid-summer flowers and were brought by Mrs. Spohn. The hostesses served marachino cherry ice cream, pink frosted angel food cake and coffee.

Mrs. John Albert and Mrs. E. W. LaRue were business motorists Wednesday to Elmwood and Eagle. Thursday morning a similar trip was made to Louisville and in the afternoon Murray was on the ladies' schedule.

The Nehawka Enterprise has accepted the printing of the Cass county fair premium books for the coming fall fair. Glen Rutledge is the editor of the Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sell were scheduled to leave here Monday for their new home and business in Fremont. Mr. Sell conducted a closing out at half price sale last week.

Square Dance On Street Is Enjoyed

Saturday evening found most of the square dancing couples of Weeping Water and surrounding community enjoying the street dance here. The project was schemed up by the Duve Produce Company and was financially sponsored by them and the local merchants.

The Ruth Circle will sponsor an ice cream social next Thursday evening, July 19th at the Methodist church basement.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Kastening and family returned here last Saturday evening from a ten day vacation trip in Missouri.

Rev. and Mrs. John C. Pryor drove to Crete Sunday afternoon taking with them Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith, who will attend the Junior Pilgrim Fellowship group who are to meet at Doane College for the coming week. Ann is the seventh representative to go from Weeping Water, six senior members having attended the Fellowship at Crete previously.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Grauer of Manhattan, Kan., were recent guests at the home of her mother, Mrs. James Kivett and Mr. Kivett. The Grauers, it was learned, are not in the flooded area of Manhattan.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reckard returned here last week after a Lookout Mountain, Tenn., trip and visiting with their son, C. F. Reckard and family. They report the Tennessee Reckards as all well, and that they had a very fine trip and visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Towle of Torrance, Calif., who are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Towle of Eagle were Wednesday visitors in Weeping Water. The Californians are former Weeping Water residents.

Joe Bender spent Friday and Saturday of last week with his mother, Mrs. Bender and other Sutton relatives.

Sterling Marshall left here Saturday afternoon for Lincoln, en route to Denver for a week's visit with his sister, Mrs. E. F. Klein. Dr. Klein we learned is hospitalized with a heart ailment.
